

Need Some Interviewing Advice?

J. Teresa Davis – Career Development Center Counselor

Interviewing Etiquette ... The 411

Have you ever applied for a job, gone to an interview, think you nailed it, then got a rejection phone call or letter? Interviewing can sometimes feel like a bad blind date, or being voted off the island...it can be rough out there. What many students don't realize is that there are some key things you need to do before, during and after the interview to get the attention of those interviewing you. We will uncover these well-kept secrets in this workshop so that you can be confident in your next interview process.
