I. Purpose

The purpose for this revision of the B-1.4 Expenditure policy is to delineate appropriate and inappropriate expenditures and empower managers to make good spending decisions and be good stewards of Institutional Funds.

II. References

B-1.1 General Fiscal Policies
B-1.4 Purchasing
B-6.2 Travel
B-6.3 Educational Travel & Study Abroad Purchasing Procedures found on UVU Purchasing Web Page

III. Terms

The following terms are used in this policy and are defined as follows:

A. Agency Funds. - Funds of non-Institutional organizations or groups where the University is only the custodian of such funds.
B. Auxiliary Funds. - Funds designated by the Regents as Auxiliary Funds of the Institution; e.g., Bookstore, Dining Services, and Student Center.
C. Foundation Funds. - Agency funds controlled by the Utah Valley University Foundation, Inc.
D. Institutional Funds. - Any and all funds processed through the University financial system and are included in the University's financial statements, including Agency, Auxiliary, Foundation, III, and state-appropriated funds.
E. III Funds (Institutional Interest Income). - Funds generated from the interest of Institutional funds in bank accounts, excludes Foundation Funds.
F. State Appropriated Funds. - Funds appropriated by the Utah State Legislature including, but not limited to, State tax funds and tuition and applicable fees (e.g., application fees, graduation fees,).
G. Student Fee Funds. - Funds collected as "General Fees" along with tuition and approved by the Board of Regents for student activities, events, and facilities.

IV. Policy

A. POLICY STATEMENT

As a Utah State Institution of Higher Education, Utah Valley University must ensure that all university funds are only used to support appropriate university business. When the expenditure is funded by a grant or contract, the use of such funds will be governed by the most restrictive... conditions of the grant, contract, or university policy. The following standards shall guide all institutional expenditures.

A. Each school, department, unit, and approving official must exercise prudent judgment to ensure that the commitment of funds is appropriate and justified for institutional operations.

B. All expenditures must be for institutional purpose and not of a personal nature.

C. Expenditures for compensation as defined by IRS code and/or Utah Code Annotated are covered and should adhere to UVU compensation policies.

D. Agency Funds expenditures by non-Institutional organizations and component units will be in accordance to Institutional policy, procedures, and practices.

A. APPROPRIATENESS OF EXPENDITURES

The Appropriateness of specific expenditures is found in the PROCEDURES Section V, B, entitled Appropriateness of Expenditures.

V. Procedures

A. REQUIRED APPROVALS

1. The procedure for required approvals of expenditures is as follows:

   a. Responsible Parties or his/her designee will approve all requisitions for any amount tied to their index codes.

   b. Vice Presidents will approve (a) all requisitions for $25,000 and above and (b) all requisitions for a membership, floral, clothing, or awards commodity assigned.

   c. The President will approve (a) all requisitions for $100,000 and above and (b) all requisitions with a membership, floral, clothing, or awards commodity from his personal staff.

   d. The President will review all requisitions from $150,000 to $499,999 with President’s Council prior to approval.

   e. The President will obtain Board of Trustees’ approval for all requisitions for $500,000 and above. The Board of Trustees will approve all requisitions for $150,000 and above as an agenda action item in their regular Board of Trustees meeting.

   f. McKay Events Center may issue settlement checks to sponsors or entertainers provided auditable documentation is available and kept on file.

   g. Any expense reimbursement to an employee must have a second-level supervisor's approval.

   h. Any expenditure external to UVU that cannot be purchased with a limited purchase check or procurement card must be obtained using a requisition through the Purchasing Department.
i. Please see specific type of expenditure for additional approvals and conditions, if required.

2. The detailed procedures for processing appropriate expenditures as defined in this policy are found in other UVU policies and procedures as follows:
   a. Purchasing Responsibilities, Purchases, Restricted and Special Procurement, Solicitation of Bids and Proposals and the Award of Procurement Contracts, Lease or Rental of Property for University Use, Warehouse materials, Procurement from Vendor in which University Employee has an interest, Limited Purchase Checks are found in B-1.3 "Purchasing" policy and procedure.
   b. Retainment and payment of non-university employees with specialized expertise are covered in B-4.1 "Contractual Services" policy and procedure.
   c. Reimbursement for Travel is covered in B-6.1, 6.2, and 6.3 "Travel" policies and procedures and on the Business Office Web site.
   d. Procurement card expenditures should follow the Purchasing Departmental procedures found on the Purchasing web page.
   e. Gifts, Prizes, and Awards that are taxable for Employees must be reported by using these procedures and by using a payroll Action Form (PAF) according to Human Resources/Payroll departmental procedures.

3. Any exception to this policy and procedure requires second-level and the appropriate Vice President's approval with a written explanation stating the reason why policy/procedure was not followed and justification for an exception to policy/procedure.

4. APPROPRIATENESS OF EXPENDITURES
   a. Alcoholic Beverages
      1. Serving of alcoholic beverages for events on campus or at campus facilities is not permitted.
      2. Vice Presidents may authorize employees to use available Foundation Funds or III Funds, if available, for the purchase and reimbursement for alcoholic beverages required to promote the Institution at events external to the campus. Utah state laws specifically prohibit the use of state appropriated funds for the purchase of alcoholic beverages.
   b. Appliances
      1. Microwave ovens and refrigerators for departmental use are an appropriate expenditure.
      2. Fans and ceramic space heaters are an appropriate expenditure.
      3. Hot plates and stoves are not appropriate departmental expenditures except for Dining Services and other appropriate departments/locations where food is served.
4. Appliances that are used in, or in support of, educational and research programs are appropriate expenditures; e.g., autoclaves or ice machines. (See also Equipment.)

c. Caps and Gowns. -- Rental of caps and gowns for institutional faculty/staff who participate in an institutional commencement ceremony is an appropriate expense.

d. Charge Cards (Corporate)

1. Corporate charge cards (e.g., American Express) annual fees, delinquency assessments, and penalties are considered personal charges and are not reimbursable regardless of the fund source.

2. For Group Travel, University will allow payments of annual fees on corporate cards as authorized by the Purchasing Department and appropriate Vice President when the charge card is the most effective way to pay for group travel (e.g., athletics, study abroad, etc.)

e. Child Care Expenses. -- Child care expenses are considered personal expenses and are not reimbursable.

f. Clothing

1. Personal laundry/dry cleaning is considered a personal expense and not reimbursable.

2. Laundry/dry cleaning of team uniforms or costumes is an appropriate expense.

3. Personal clothing is considered a personal expense and reimbursement is not appropriate.

4. Standardized uniforms required for work assignments are an appropriate expenditure and require a Vice President approval. (See Uniform policy.)

5. Clothing and apparel provided to promote Institutional student recruiting programs, marketing, and promotional events, and related to Institutional business (e.g., Bookstore, Dining Service, Perspective Student Services, etc.) is an appropriate expenditure and requires a Vice President approval.

g. Donations to Charitable and Non-Charitable Organizations. -- Donations of Institutional funds to charitable and non-charitable organizations for or on behalf of employees, non-employees, and former employees are not appropriate expenses, regardless of fund source. UVU sponsorship of or marketing with charitable and non-charitable organizations is appropriate with the appropriate Vice President's approval. Student clubs are exempt from Section G. (See also Functions of the Institution, Charitable Events/Institutional Functions.)
h. Emolument, gratuity, contribution, loan, or reward for Expenditure. -- Expenditures of UVU funds by UVU employees that are associated with receiving an emolument, gratuity, contribution, loan, or reward, or promise thereof, for the employee's own use or benefit of any other person or organization is not appropriate and is potentially illegal (See Utah Code Annotated 63-65-1001, as may be amended).

i. Entertainment. -- Expenditures for entertainment are appropriate as outlined in Functions of the University, Entertainment/Hosting Events, and/or in Functions of the Institution, Faculty and Staff Events.

j. Equipment. -- Equipment purchases for academic and Institutional purposes are an appropriate use of funds when justified to meet the instructional and business operations of the Institution. Purchasers need to conform to policy and procedure B-1.3, Purchasing.

k. Flowers

1. Flowers are defined as bouquets, planters, floral arrangements, and include balloons, cookies, and stuffed animals. Appropriate events for flowers should be coordinated with the University Marketing and Communications department except as noted below. Flowers are appropriate under the following conditions with approval from the appropriate Vice President:

2. Bereavement flowers due to employee death, the death of the employee's spouse, parent, or employee's child.

3. Bereavement flowers are appropriate for the death of a student. The flower purchases should be coordinated with the Vice President of Student Affairs or designee to minimize multiple purchases by various Institutional departments, offices, and organizational units.

4. Bereavement flowers are appropriate for the death of a donor, trustee, board member or their spouses. The flower purchases should be coordinated with the Vice President for Institutional Advancement or designee to minimize multiple purchases by various Institutional departments, offices, and units.

5. Flowers for hospitalization of employees, board members, and donors.

6. Flowers for receptions and convocations (e.g., graduation) where they pertain to Institutional business.

7. Flowers for Institution-sponsored events/functions (e.g., Foundation Fundraisers, Donor events, Individual donor development, Government Relations, Institutional marketing, etc.) are appropriate from Foundation Funds and III Funds to foster Institutional relations.

8. Flower expenditures for office use, personal office/work areas, holidays, non-Institutional business, and other special occasions (e.g., weddings, baby showers, Secretary's Day, Valentine's Day, Bosses' Day,) are considered personal expense items and are not an appropriate use of funds.

9. Flowers are appropriate expenditures when purchased by auxiliaries for resale.

1. Functions of the Institution.

1. Business Meetings and University sponsored Events. -- University business meetings and university-sponsored employee events (including Employee Achievement Awards programs, Student Academic/Athletic Awards programs, and Faculty/Staff Academic Awards programs) where food or meals are provided in the course of doing business is an appropriate use of funds under the following conditions:

   a. Limited to appropriate Institutional faculty and staff for a university business meeting or university-sponsored event and must be approved prior to the event by a second-level supervisor;

   b. Light refreshments for staff meetings;

   c. Institution Recognition/Awards/Academic Programs must be approved by the Dean or Director, his/her designee, and account manager;

   d. Cost for honoree or student and their guest is authorized;

   e. Attendance by other guests of the University faculty and staff will be at their own expenses, unless invitation is extended to the spouse or guest;

   f. Cost associated with the event/function should be reasonable;

   g. If held on-campus other than the McKay Events Center, use Dining Services.

2. Charitable Events/Institutional Functions. -- Charitable events participation such as University and Foundation fundraisers may be approved by a Vice President or his/her designee if it is one of the major marketing/fundraiser sponsorships of the University as designated by the President; e.g., Scholarship Ball, Alumni Golf Tournament, Wolverine Golf Tournament, (See Functions of the Institution, Charitable Events/University Functions)

3. Entertainment/Hosting Events. -- Entertainment/Hosting events where business meals, light refreshments, and entertainment are purchased or provided for donors and other non-university employees are appropriate under the following conditions from university funds.

4. If guests are hosted as a result of their services or contributions or their probable services or contribution to the Institution; and/or

5. If the activities contribute to, or result from, a university-related business activity.

m. Faculty and Staff Events
1. Because the University recognizes the benefits of events where employee morale is strengthened, the cost of one faculty or staff social per year per organizational unit may be paid from university funds as approved by the appropriate Vice President. Such costs may include rentals, food, entertainment, and decorations.

2. Expenditures associated with university-wide employee functions or events held by the President and/or Vice Presidents (e.g., faculty/staff receptions, faculty/staff appreciation and employee service award programs, holiday socials) are considered appropriate use of funds.

n. Receptions and Locations, Other

2. Going-away receptions, parties, luncheons, or dinners held for employees transferring to another college, department, or unit within the University are not considered an appropriate use of funds, regardless of the fund source.

q. Student Events

1. Student Life entertainment events to benefit UVU students and community members are to be paid for out of student fees.

2. Reasonable food/candy purchases to be used for welcoming, marketing, or recruiting purposes must have Deans, Associate Vice President, or Assistant Vice President's approval.

r. Gasoline/Fuel

1. Gasoline/fuel expenses for private vehicles are included in the mileage reimbursement when vehicle is used for university business and are not appropriate reimbursable expenses independently. These expenses are to be submitted on a Travel Reimbursement Form.
2. Fleet cars (university vehicles) should be fueled using Gascard. If unable to find a Gascard dealer, the driver may purchase fuel and be reimbursed.

3. Fuel may be purchased for rental cars and is appropriate reimbursement. If used for travel, the fuel should be claimed with travel expenses. Departments using rental cars for non-travel use may (1) appropriately use pro-card or (2) be reimbursed for University use only.

s. Gifts, Prizes, and Awards

1. Gifts, Prizes, and Awards are subject to state and federal limitations on process and on taxability.

2. Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Rules and Regulations stipulate for employees that any gift of cash, a gift certificate, or cash equivalent, such as an item which is easily converted to cash, must be included in the recipient's gross income since it is essentially extra salary or wages, regardless of the amount involved. Cash, no matter how little, is always included in the recipient's gross income and must be processed through the payroll process for employees.

3. Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Rules and Regulations stipulate that restricted and non-negotiable gift certificate is distinguishable from a cash equivalent gift certificate when it can only be redeemed with the issuer and cannot be cashed out, sold to another person, or used to reduce an outstanding account balance with the issuer of the certificate (e.g., certificate for admission to an event or one for the specific product such as a hat or t-shirt. If the restricted or non-negotiable gift is under $75, the gift does not have to be reported in gross income. If the restricted or non-negotiable gift is $75 or more, the value of the gift must be reported to the Business Office to include in the gross income for the employee.

4. For non-employees, Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Rules and Regulations stipulate that if the total value of the gifts, prize or award is $600 or more paid in any taxable year, the Institution must report the value on Form 1099 or 1099-MISC. The following information must be reported to the Business Office via memorandum, e-mail, or completion of Form W-9 "request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification" within 10 working days after the presentation of the Institution representative if a gift, prize, or award it presented to a Non-Employee:

a. Name; Social Security Number; home address (including City, State, and Zip code); Employment Relationship with the University (e.g., employee, non-employee).

b. Description of gift, prize, or award; Value (fair market value) of the gift, prize, or award.

c. Department contact's name and phone number, university, school, department, or organizational unit is required to provide written notice to the recipient that... the value of the gift, prize, or award may be subject to Federal, state, and/or local taxes.

d. Gifts, other than approved recognition programs, (to include restricted or non-negotiable gift certifications, prizes, and awards) presented to employees by university departments/organizational units are not appropriate, regardless of fund source.

e. Awards given to employees as part of a university or university-wide recognition program for service and are publicly awarded is appropriate.

f. Expenditures for gifts, prizes, and awards presented to non-employees must be approved by the Vice President or his/her designee and is appropriate use of funds.

g. All student scholarships, grants, or awards for tuition or tuition waivers should be applied to the student’s account through the Financial Aid Office. Any exceptions need to be granted by and through the Financial Aid office. Use of Appropriated Funds for scholarships, grants, and awards (e.g., Textbooks) is not appropriate and not to be done. Other awards (e.g., UVU Experience gift cards) used for student recruitment, orientation, marketing, and promotional events are appropriate from non-appropriated sources (see Clothing).

h. Plaques related to university business are appropriate expenditures.

t. Holiday Cards

1. Holiday and other cards (e.g., Christmas) may be purchased for an external audience when considered part of the University development or advancement strategy.
