Reap the Rewards of the Work Training Scholarship for Non-credit Students

Are you unemployed or underemployed? Do you need some updates on your computer skills to move up in your current employment? The Work Training Scholarship – offered by UVU Community & Continuing Education – has a fund available for people who need to update their computer and business skills. Non-credit classes are available to update your computer skills, help you understand how to start a business, or build and maintain a website. Also, you can get certified as a ski, snowboard, or personal trainer with this scholarship.

*FIVE Simple Steps to Apply

1. Apply online at http://www.uvu.edu/ce/scholarship/
2. Send in identification documents.
3. Send a one page letter telling about your circumstances and how taking these classes will help you secure a job or upgrade your current position.
4. Return an Award Notification from UVU’s Scholarship Office along with a Thank You letter to the donor.
5. Register for non-credit Community Education classes.
