The student outcomes for the Construction Management program are the following:

1. Construction project management from pre-design through commissioning.
2. An ability to analyze the local and global impact of project life-cycle and sustainability.
3. Recognition of the need for health and safety, accident prevention, and regulatory compliance.
4. An ability to apply knowledge of law, contract documents administration, and dispute prevention and resolution.
5. An understanding of materials, labor and methods of construction.
6. An ability to apply knowledge finance and accounting principles.
7. An ability to use and apply current technical concepts and practices in planning and scheduling.
8. An ability to design, implement, and evaluate construction cost management including plan reading, quantity take offs and estimating.
9. An ability to identify and analyze project delivery methods.
10. An ability to function effectively on teams and demonstrate skills in leadership and managing people.
11. An ability to use and apply verbal and written business and communication skills.

The Construction Management student outcomes are documented on posters displayed in the Construction Technologies Department office, in department files, and online at http://www.uvu.edu/cm/pages/program/index.html.