Application Instructions/School Information

Application Submission:
- Utah Valley University: If you are not a current student at UVU, you must complete a UVU Application for Admission and be accepted to the University before you can be accepted to a Special Education Program.
- Special Education Program: Program applications must be submitted the semester prior to starting professional courses. Application deadlines are: 10/1 for Spring entry; 3/1 for Fall entry.

Advising:
- Students should meet with their Special Education advisor once per semester.

Examination Scores:
- All scores for required entrance exams must be received in the Education Academic advisor's office to be considered for entry into the professional program. (Please check with the academic advisor for current admission examination requirements.)
- More information concerning testing locations, times, and dates can be obtained from your advisor.

Licensure:
- A student will be recommended for state licensure upon completion of all program requirements.

Academic Standards:
- Continuation in and completion of the Special Education Licensure Program is determined by the student's performance in education courses at the end of each semester.
- Students complete all required coursework with appropriate grades (B- or higher), submit all required assignments and department documents (professional portfolio) prior to graduation and licensure, abide by the policies and procedures of the Special Education Program and Utah Valley University, and abide by accepted ethical teaching standards as requirements for graduation and licensure.

Transcripts:
- Official transcripts from all colleges or universities previously attended (except UVU) must be submitted to the following address: Utah Valley University, Records Office, 800 West University Parkway, Orem, UT 84058-5999. Processing can take 4-8 weeks. Unofficial transcripts from institutions other than UVU must be submitted with this application.

Student Interviews/ Background Check:
- Information regarding group interviews will be provided once applications have been received.
- Legislative mandate requires that all prospective teachers be fingerprinted and undergo a background check prior to any field experience in the public schools. This background check has required processing and LiveScan fees. Students will be given more instruction after acceptance into the professional program.

Acceptance to the Special Education Program at UVU:
- Applications become the property of the School of Education.
- Acceptance notification will be by letter.
- After acceptance, students must attend a special education orientation to be approved for registration. Dates and times for this orientation will be included in the acceptance letter.
- After acceptance to the program, students are responsible for checking their school issued email for official updates and correspondence. Contact information must be current and updated through both One Stop and the education advisors.

I certify that the information given is correct. I certify that I understand the requirements for admission to the Special Education Program and for licensure, and I agree to abide by the policies and procedures of the School of Education and Utah Valley University.
