TITLE IX ROLES

Title IX Coordinator
UVU’s Title IX Coordinator oversees university compliance regarding all Title IX related matters, including the investigation of complaints. Responsibilities include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Ensuring Title IX compliance
- Overseeing Deputy Title IX Coordinators
- Assessing and investigating all sexual harassment/misconduct allegations on
- Knowledgeable in university policies and procedures
- Providing information about resources available to both the complainant and the accused
- Investigating alleged discrimination and/or harassment in a prompt and equitable manner
- Acting as an impartial fact-gatherer in complaint investigations
- Assisting the complainant in identifying the appropriate university policy to resolve the complaint in a prompt and equitable manner
- Tracking and monitoring incidents of sex discrimination and sexual misconduct
- Providing information on options for complaint resolution
- Coordinating education and prevention efforts

Deputy Title IX Coordinators

UVU has several Deputy Coordinators, who are also trained to receive initial intake and, if designated by the Title IX Coordinator, investigate complaints. Deputy Title IX Coordinator responsibilities include the following:

- Supporting and assisting the Title IX Coordinator
- Knowledgeable in university policies and procedures
- Providing information about resources available to both the complainant and the accused
- Hearing and/or receiving initial intake (fact-gathering)
- Reporting intake to Title IX Coordinator for assessment
- Investigating complaints (if designated by the Title IX Coordinator)

Any student, faculty, staff member, or participant in any UVU-sponsored activity who has concerns about sex discrimination or sexual misconduct is encouraged to seek the assistance of the Title IX Coordinator or Title IX Deputy Coordinator(s).

The Director for Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action serves as the University’s Title IX officer, whose primary task is to ensure compliance with federal Title IX regulations regarding gender discrimination and complaint resolution. Please contact Acting Director Laura Carlson at 801-863-7590.