

Template for Proposal for MLK Presentations

Fill in this form online and submit to addresses below; or download this sheet, fill in, and send to addresses below; or simply use the outline to guide you as you write your proposal, and send to the addresses below.

Your name

Your contact information

phone #

email

Tentative Title of Presentation:

Type of presentation:

Academic paper

Art performance

Panel

Other (specify)

Proposed length: Sessions are 50 minutes or 75 minutes. Student papers typically should be read in about 15 minutes, or 8-10 double-spaced pages. Fine and Performance Art presentations may be of varying lengths. Please indicate if you would be willing to share a slot with another presenter.

Brief summary of presentation (use back of this sheet)

Academic paper: Claim and main points of evidence

Art performance: Medium, personnel involved, theme, “narrative” (if applicable)

Panel: Personnel involved; theme; general contribution of each panelist

One-paragraph explanation of the relevance of this proposed presentation to the legacy of Martin Luther King, Jr. (Use back of this sheet.) This year’s theme is “Realizing the Dream.” Many topics will have relevance to Martin Luther King, Jr.’s dream of social justice. Keynote speakers are Linda Brown, of Brown v. Board of Education (1954) and Charles Holt, performer/entrepreneur/motivational speaker.

* Submit proposals for papers or panels electronically to nicholju@uvu.edu or in hard copy to Julie Nichols, MS 153, LA 126g by Nov. 15, 2009.

* Submit proposals for art work/performances electronically to AngieB@uvu.edu or in hard copy to Angie Banchemo-Kelleher, MS 233, GT 687 by Nov. 15, 2009.

- You will be notified regarding your proposal’s acceptance by Dec. 1, 2009.
- Final drafts of papers will be due for judging by an independent committee by the first day of Spring Semester, 2010.
- Outstanding individual papers and/or art/performances by UVU students are eligible for cash prizes (amounts vary by category; see our website at uvu.edu/hass/mlk.) Please direct questions to the above members of the MLK Advisory Board, or to GaeLyn.Henderson@uvu.edu , at any time.