Phi Alpha Theta (ΦΑΘ)

Is the honor society for students and faculty in History. The organization is a charter member of the Association of College Honor Societies and has over 350,000 members, with about 9,500 new members joining each year through 860 local chapters.

Phi Alpha Theta was established in March 1921 at the University of Arkansas by Professor Nels Cleven. Cleven had become convinced that a fraternity of scholars was important for the study of history. Initially known as the “University Historical Society,” the organization adopted its Greek letters a month later.

Phi Alpha Theta awards more than 25 scholarships annually, as well as prizes for papers, books and manuscripts, and student history journals.

Alpha Kappa, Kappa is Utah Valley University’s chapter for Phi Alpha Theta that was established September 12, 2002.

Incentives for membership

- Looks great on your resume when applying for work, graduate programs, and scholarships
- Pay once and remain a member for life
- Meet other historians and build contacts
- Provides opportunities to participate in debates, seminars and to present papers
- Receive the scholarly magazine The Historian
- Meet and collaborate with other history students
- Attend and present at regional, national, and international conferences
- Participate in service projects

Requirements to join:

- Membership is open to history and non-history majors
- 12 or more credit hours of history
- 3.1GPA in history
- 3.0 minimum overall GPA

For more information visit:
http://www.phialphatheta.org/

Utah International Mountain Forum (UIMF) was created in 2011 as a coalition of student clubs at Utah Valley University in order to engage students in Sustainable Mountain Development (SMD) advocacy.

UIMF Includes the Following Clubs:
- Sustainable Development Club
- Foreign Affairs Club
- American-Israeli Alliance
- College Republicans
- Russian/Slavic Club

Why should you join the UIMF at Utah Valley University?

- Make a difference in lives of the mountain communities around the globe
- Develop skills useful for future job market through focusing on sustainable mountain development. Such as:
  - Community engaged learning
  - Event organizing
  - Diplomatic and formal communications
  - Inter-personal and inter-organizational planning
- Make connections with influential companies, organizations, nations, and individuals
- Network and interact with students, clubs, and faculty with a shared interest in international relations, business, politics related to sustainable mountain development that is as great as your own interest

Utah International Mountain Forum
Utah Valley University
800 W University Parkway
Orem, Utah 84058
www.utahimf.org