Statement of Inclusion and Solidarity

UVU Office of Inclusion

Utah Valley University is proud to be an institution committed to inclusion and diversity. UVU provides an inclusive and safe learning and working environment for students, faculty, and staff from diverse backgrounds, experiences, and perspectives. We do not tolerate protected class harassment that creates a hostile environment. For students and employees who feel alone, please know that you are not alone—UVU stands with you. If you have experienced or witnessed any form of harassment, please visit with UVU’s Title IX/Equal Opportunity Office (http://www.uvu.edu/equalopportunity/services.html). We also invite you to visit UVU’s Inclusion site for information about resources, services, and centers that are designed to support your needs and identities (http://www.uvu.edu/inclusion/). We remain resolute in our mission to create a safe space for students, faculty, and staff and are committed to core values of inclusion, equity, and social justice. Rather than having our differences divide us, now more than ever we need to celebrate and cultivate our uniqueness and build bridges of understanding and appreciation for differences.
