Directions to Begin CITI IRB Training:

The following are basic learner instructions to logon to Utah Valley University’s CITI site:

- You should go to www.citiprogram.org to register for CITI online training.
- Once there, you simply click on the link “Register for CITI course”.
- Under institution selection you should select “Utah Valley University” in the “All others” drop down box.
- Next you should proceed to create your own username and password and select the CITI Recommended Learner group: Faculty/Staff Researchers, Student Researchers, Campus Administrators, or IRB Members and Staff.
- After going through the registration process, you should be ready and setup as a UVU CITI Learner and you can begin the training.
