Success Stories

Real-Time Reporting with Evisions Argos

Scott Messner discusses Nicolet College's need to be able to access data anytime, anywhere, and on any device – and how real-time reporting with Evisions Argos has allowed them to fulfill that need. It empowers them to make timely, data-driven decisions. By trusting their reporting process to Argos, they are able to devote more focus and resources to other important projects and priorities.

Moving many of our reports and processes to Evisions Argos has greatly improved our office's efficiency and time management. The ease of use and flexibility it offers our developers has allowed us to create Dashboards which are user-friendly, multipurpose and intuitive. We are excited to continue expanding our use of Argos's many available features and look forward to future extensions.
