The web at UVU

Web Community

The Web Community is a group for all members of UVU's campus who work with the web -- site owners, site managers, content contributors, and anyone else who works with UVU's web presence. We want everyone in the Web Community to have easy access to resources, help, training, and support services to provide the best web experience possible.

SWAT also has members from the Web & Mobile Solutions and the University Marketing and Communications department.
