Utah Valley University
June 2018 Volume V Issue 4

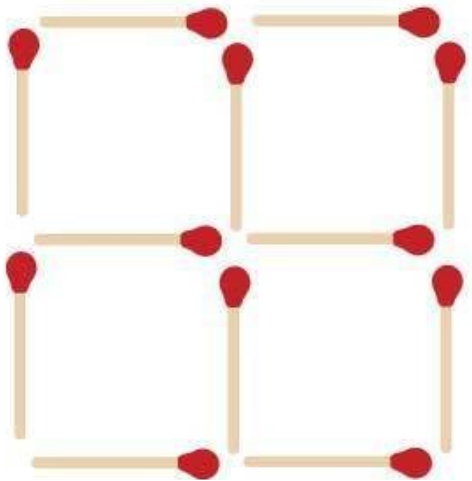

Agenda

9:00-9:10	Welcome & Announcements
9:10-9:25	Writing Center	Christine Crane
9:25-9:45	Academic Tutoring	Kolene Mills
9:45-10:15	FYESR	Marcy Glassford
10:15-10:45	Parking	Frank Young

When I have phone appointments, I like to send a follow-up email. I'll include a recap of the most important information we covered and some next steps if necessary. I will also attach documents or include links to websites we talked about, especially if we went over content that I would normally have a handout for at an in-person appointment. That way the students have something to refer back to and can just quickly reply with any additional questions.

Kristi Wilson—Woodbury School of Business

Kristi has been an academic advisor for one year. Prior to this she was a support advisor for over two years. Kristi loves working with the students and seeing them succeed in their academic goals.

Kristi loves reading, hiking, enjoying nature, photography, and going on “adventures.” She also loves having plants, especially succulents, but she says she has a lot to learn as many of her succulents and other plants are currently dying... Kristi’s favorite color is yellow because it is a happy color, but she also claims purple, green, and blue as her favorite colors since most of her clothes and things that she owns are those colors. Kristi’s favorite food is toast with butter or ice cream. There are so many good books out there, but a recent favorite of Kristi’s is Nightingale, by Kristin Hannah. She loves reading fiction, historical fiction, memoirs, fairy tales, and children’s books. Kristi’s all-time favorite children’s book is Ella Enchanted, which is way better than the movie; they are basically different stories. Her all-time favorite movie is Ever After.

Three months ago Kristi married her wonderful husband, Taylor. They just bought a house, and they are slowly settling in. Her favorite part about owning a house is doing yardwork, weeding, planting flowers, etc. Kristi is a dreamer and is excited to visit many different places, with Ireland at the top of the list. But she would love to visit anywhere in Europe. She loves visiting new places, exploring cathedrals, and hiking various trails.

Must-Try Recipe—Reese’s S’Mores Skillet Dip

You will love the taste of these peanut butter cup s’mores without the campfire smoke! They are so quick and easy to make!

26 mini Reese’s peanut butter cups

2 1/2 cups miniature marshmallows

16 full graham cracker sheets

Heat oven to 400 degrees. Place peanut butter cups in a single layer in the bottom of an ungreased 8 to 10 inch oven safe skillet or cast iron skillet. Top with marshmallows.

Bake 5 to 8 minutes or until marshmallows are golden brown.

Serve immediately with graham cracker pieces for dipping.
