

CCS AT A GLANCE

A nonpartisan academic institute that advances understanding and practice of constitutional government, ordered liberty, and the rule of law through these resources:

CIVIC THOUGHT & LEADERSHIP INITIATIVE

Develops the next generation of citizens and civic leaders, instilling knowledge, skills, and virtues to build a more vibrant and just society.

QUILL PROJECT

NEH- and National Archives-supported partnership with Oxford University to digitally model creation of U.S. and state constitutions in support of the 50 in 10 initiative.

FEDERALISM INDEX PROJECT

Helps educators, students, judges, legislators, and citizens have access to data and scholarly analysis of current and past federal and state legislation and regulation.

CONSTITUTIONAL LITERACY INSTITUTE

Professional development for K-12 teachers to grow personal understanding of the Constitution, which they then share with students in the classroom.

ACADEMIC PROGRAMS

- Master of Arts in Constitutional Government, Civics & Law
