

CCS AT A GLANCE

A nonpartisan academic institute that advances understanding and practice of constitutional government, ordered liberty, and the rule of law through these resources:

CIVIC THOUGHT & LEADERSHIP INITIATIVE

Develops the next generation of citizens and civic leaders, instilling knowledge, skills, and virtues for a just and vibrant society

QUILL PROJECT

Partnership with Oxford University to digitally model the creation of U.S. and state constitutions and amendments, including the Utah Constitutional Convention of 1895 as part of Quill's 50 in 10 project

FEDERALISM INDEX PROJECT

Helps educators, students, judges, legislators, students, and citizens have access to data and scholarly analysis of current and past federal and state legislation and regulation

CONSTITUTIONAL LITERACY INSTITUTE

Professional development for K-12 teachers to increase personal understanding of the Constitution and share those principles in the classroom.

POWERED BY

Original research on federal and state constitutionalism, academic and public-facing conferences, university curriculum, and collaboration with K-12 educators.
