

How to Verify Your Number for Emergency Text Messages

UVU is committed to the safety of its campus community and to responding to emergency or disaster incidents in a safe, effective, and timely manner. There are several channels UVU will use to notify students, faculty, and staff of an emergency or incident. These include the main campus public announcement system, digital signage, web alerts, and social media. Two additional methods are UVU's Emergency Information website, found at www.uvu.info, and mass emergency text messaging. To receive these emergency text messages, it is important to ensure the text messaging number UVU has on file for you is correct. Follow these steps to verify your information.
