Defining Homeless:

The McKinney-Vento Act defines homeless children as "individuals who lack a fixed, regular, and adequate nighttime residence." The act provides examples of children who would fall under this definition:

- Children and youth sharing housing due to loss of housing, economic hardship, or a similar reason.
- Children and youth living in motels, hotels, trailer parks, or campgrounds due to lack of alternative accommodations.
- Children and youth living in emergency or transitional shelters.
- Children and youth abandoned in hospitals.
- Children and youth awaiting foster care placement.
- Children and youth whose primary nighttime residence is not ordinarily used as a regular sleeping accommodations.
- Children and youth living in cars, parks, public spaces, abandoned buildings, substandard housing, bus or train stations park benches, etc.
