PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

CONGRATULATIONS to you, the class of 2022!

Spring is my favorite time of the year, not only because it brings blossoms, birds, and blue skies, but also because it is time to celebrate graduation. I have seen students like you in your green gowns, taking pictures with family and friends at landmark locations on campus. It fills my heart with pride and joy. Every snapshot captures years of hope and hard work, and every picture reflects a future that looks bright.

Throughout your time at Utah Valley University (UVU), you have proven your grit and resilience. Graduation represents years of discipline and determination. You have conquered assignments, extracurriculars, long nights, early mornings, lots of group projects, and even a pandemic. You have created memories to last a lifetime. Celebrate your years at UVU, and celebrate all the people who have helped you get to where you are today.

As you leave UVU, I hope that you will continue to live the core values that animate this institution. Exceptional Care will allow you to see others as they are, appreciate differences, and work on shared goals despite those differences. Exceptional Accountability will remind you to bring your best selves to your workplaces and communities, use your resources wisely to achieve your goals, and be unafraid to have hard conversations. Finally, I hope you will get to relish Exceptional Results for yourself, your families, and others as you deploy the knowledge, skills and competencies you learned at UVU.

People of character and integrity are needed every day in this world. People of care, compassion, and light are indispensable to a healthy and sustainable society and civilization. People just like you! Elisabeth Kübler-Ross captured this sentiment when she said, "People are like stained-glass windows. They sparkle and shine when the sun is out, but when the darkness sets in, their true beauty is revealed only if there is a light from within." As Wolverines, you have a forever, beautiful green light in each of you.

Thank you for choosing UVU. Once a Wolverine, always a Wolverine. Congratulations, and I look forward to welcoming you back as engaged alumni.

President

MARY C. DALY

Honorary Doctorate of Public Service

As president and CEO of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco, MARY C. DALY leads an organization dedicated to building a healthy, inclusive, and sustainable economy in the Federal Reserve System's Twelfth District, the largest and most diverse within the Federal Reserve System (FRS).

Mary has charted a vision of the San Francisco Fed as a premier public service organization, dedicated to helping create unreserved opportunity for all Americans. Emphasizing that opportunity is not a luxury, but a necessity that needs to be accessible to everyone, she works to broaden and deepen engagement with the communities the bank serves. Mary champions initiatives to make the San Francisco Fed's policies and decision-making more transparent. She actively supports the bank's commitment to understanding the economic and financial risks of climate change and inequities, issues that materially affect the Fed's mandate and the growth and competitiveness of our nation. Mary's leadership is underpinned by her belief in "3D public service," the need for public servants to be fully human – vulnerable, compassionate, optimistic, and pragmatic – to help solve the most pressing issues of our time.

Mary became president and CEO in October 2018, building on a distinguished career at the bank that began in 1996. Starting as an economist specializing in labor market dynamics and economic inequality, she went on to become the San Francisco Fed's executive vice president and director of research. She has also held multiple leadership positions at the bank and within the Federal Reserve System more broadly, including chair of the SF Fed Diversity and Inclusion Council and executive chair of the FRS Committee on Research Management.

As a leader dedicated to raising the profile of public service, Mary has served on numerous advisory boards, including the Congressional Budget Office, the Social Security Administration, the Office of Rehabilitation Research and Training, the Institute of Medicine, and the Library of Congress. She currently serves as an advisor to the Center for First-generation Student Success and the Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs at Syracuse University.

Mary earned a bachelor's degree from the University of Missouri-Kansas City, a master's degree from the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign, and a Ph.D. from Syracuse University. She also completed a National Institute of Aging post-doctoral fellowship at Northwestern University.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

STEVEN J. LUND

Honorary Doctorate of Business

6

STEVEN J. LUND serves as executive chairman of the board for Nu Skin Enterprises. As an early co-founder, Steve has served in multiple roles at the company, including vice chairman of the board from 2006 to 2012, president and CEO from 1996 to 2003, and executive president of Nu Skin International.

For several decades, Steve has had meaningful impact on his business, religious, and civic communities. He's held positions on the Board of Directors for the U.S. Direct Selling Association, BYU Law School Board of Advisors, and The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints Young Men's General Presidency. He was appointed to the Utah State Board of Regents in 2015.

Steve earned his Juris Doctorate degree from Brigham Young University's J. Reuben Clark Law School.

In addition to all of his civic service and community involvement, Steve enjoys playing the guitar, reading great books, and spending time with his family.

KAREN L. ACERSON

Honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters

KAREN L. ACERSON served on the Utah Valley University Board of Trustees twice for a total of 11 years (2005-2007 and 2012-2021), serving with three university presidents. She also served on the Mountainland Technical College Board of Trustees for eight years.

Karen worked as the director of customer support for WordPerfect Corporation, where she helped rewrite their user manual, taught classes, and instructed in training videos. Her book "WordPerfect: The Complete Reference" was a New York Times bestseller. Karen wrote a total of five books for Osborne/McGraw-Hill and Ziff-Davis Press.

Karen helped Karen Ashton and other volunteers to organize the Timpanogos Storytelling Festival, now in its 33rd year. She also served as its executive director and president for much of that time.

She has also been a 4-H leader for young women, served as PTA president at Pleasant Grove High School, and involved the community in several projects as part of Oprah's Pay it Forward Challenge in 2006. She currently serves as a board member at Brades' Place, a non-profit organization which helps children with lifelong health challenges, and is a recipient of the Senator Arthur V. Watkins Award for Outstanding Community Service.

Karen and her husband, Jeff, served as mission leaders for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, presiding over the Italy Rome Mission from 2007-2010. Her greatest joy is being a mother to six and grandmother to nine.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

Academic regalia had its beginnings in medieval Europe, where clergymen draped themselves in heavy caps, gowns, and robes for warmth in unheated buildings. In those days, the Church of England operated schools and the priests served as teachers. Church attire then became scholarly attire.

When education and religion began to follow separate paths, much of the pomp and circumstance of the church was retained in academic ceremonies. Each university or college developed its own commencement and a different wardrobe for its faculty and students.

Europeans brought their popular traditions to the New World, and, in 1642, America experienced its first commencement at Harvard University.

To avoid confusion in color and style of academic clothing, representatives from most American universities met in 1895 to consider a uniform code for ceremonial academic attire. The result was the Academic Costume Code, which is still in effect today. About 98% of American institutions adopted the code, which covers three main areas: caps, gowns, and hoods.

The mortarboard, or Oxford cap, was introduced in the 1890s and consists of a loosely fitting headpiece with a flat, square top. The code allows for one exception: a soft cap.

Black tassels may be used for any degree. Gold and metallic tassels are reserved for doctoral degrees and governing officials. (At UVU, black tassels distinguish certificates, diplomas, and associate degrees, while tassel colors for bachelor's and master's degrees are in accordance with the major.)

Academic robes are usually black, although they may be the color of the institution. The bachelor's gown is simply constructed in straight lines. A master's gown comes with stitched, pointed sleeves. Doctoral degree holders' robes are adorned with velvet panels on the front and neck, and three bars of velvet on the bell-shaped sleeves.

Probably the most ornate piece of academic costume, and the most informative to the trained eye, is the academic hood. Hood size denotes degree level; the doctoral degree holder wears the largest hood. Velvet strips in the school's color are sewn into the lining. Each color of academic hood represents a different discipline.

PRESIDENTIAL MACE

In early times, maces were weapons intended to protect a king or other royal figure. From its seminal role as a symbol of military command, the ceremonial mace has evolved to represent the authority of the presidential office. During special occasions, such as commencement, a ceremonial mace-bearer carries the artifact.

UVU's presidential mace was handcrafted from wood from every continent except Antarctica, signifying the six continents represented by UVU students. Its steel rings reflect UVU's deep roots in the trades, as well as early ties to Utah Valley's steel industry. Each seal represents a stage of UVU's growth, beginning as a tiny vocational school and continuing through today as the largest university in the state.

COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING & TECHNOLOGY

Valedictorians

TU PHAN

Bachelor of Science
Electrical Engineering

Tu Phan is from Vietnam and attended the Le Quy Don Gifted High School in Da Nang, Vietnam, before attending UVU. Tu plans to receive a Ph.D. and work for Hill Air Force Base in Utah. She has maintained a 4.0 GPA and has been on the Department of Engineering dean's list every semester at UVU. Phan has loved the dedication and willingness her professors have had in helping students. "Once you have found what you like," she says, "just go for it." In her spare time, Tu has started to learn how to play the piano.

JEREMY MICHAEL GOFF

Associate of Applied Science
Information Systems and Technology

Jeremy Goff was born in Denver, Colorado, but he grew up in Orem, Utah. Prior to attending UVU, he was completely homeschooled. He is graduating with a 4.0 GPA, an associate degree in applied science, and a Bachelor of Science in information systems and technology. While at UVU, Jeremy participated in the Elijah Interfaith Institute, where he helped host the former Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church, Bishop Frank Griswold, among others. "My favorite part of UVU is the diversity," Jeremy says. "At UVU I have had fellow students of all ages, nationalities, ethnicities, religions, and political views. Truly UVU is open and welcoming to everyone, and I love the perspectives and insights everyone brings." Jeremy currently lives in American Fork, Utah, with his wife, Emily, and their daughter, Victoria.

Student Awards

DENO PADILLA

Associate of Applied Science, Engineering Design Technology
Award of Excellence in Architecture and Engineering Design

Deno Padilla graduated from Payson High School before coming to UVU. She plans to continue in different drafting positions until graduating with an associate degree in drafting. In five years she sees herself working with a drafting company that has civil projects. She says the training she has received at UVU has given her a leg up in the job search. “I really enjoy the skills and opportunities I have had to grow at UVU,” she says.

ADAM SCHADE

Bachelor of Science, Professional Pilot
Award of Excellence in Aviation

Adam Schade graduated from Maple Mountain High School before coming to UVU. He plans to continue flight instruction until he receives his ATP minimums before going to SkyWest Airlines. In five years, he hopes to see himself flying for United Airlines. He scored a perfect 7/7 on his first time pass on check rides and has loved flying airplanes to amazing places while here at UVU. Adam loves that his degree was structured around earning the professional certifications he needed to enter his field and that he's been able to gain real-world experiences that apply directly to his career.

AVA R. DECKER

Bachelor of Science, Computer Science
Student Award of Excellence in Computer Science

A native of Orem, Utah, Ava Decker attended Timpanogos High School and worked for a year at Microsoft before coming to UVU. Ava has loved UVU's welcoming environment and working so closely with her professors. She says that the classes at UVU have given her exposure to areas she likely would not have discovered on her own. Following graduation, she plans to work directly with hardware. “Don't let your schooling get in the way of your education,” Ava says. “Push yourself to be truly satisfied with what you learn and find what you're passionate about.”

TIMOTHY JOSHUA SEYSTER

Bachelor of Science, Construction Management
Student Award of Excellence in Construction Technologies

Tim Seyster is from Wenatchee, Washington, and graduated from Eastmont High School before attending UVU to earn a bachelor's degree in construction management. Tim says that UVU has some of the best faculty, staff, and students he's ever met. He is excited to enter the construction industry in his hometown. Following graduation, he hopes to start his own business in construction. "I would like to thank my very supportive parents for all the assistance and confidence to go back to school and receive my degree," he says. "I would also like to thank my fiancée, Berta, for all her love and support during my college career."

LINDSAY PECK

Associate of Applied Science, Culinary Arts
Student Award of Excellence in Culinary Arts

Lindsay Peck is from Avon, Utah, and attended Mountain Crest High School before coming to UVU. She earned an associate degree in culinary arts, and she's currently pursuing a bachelor's degree in food science. She hopes to leverage her culinary, food chemistry, and biology knowledge to grow her own produce and use it to create commercial food products that are sustainable, nutritious, and delicious. Lindsay has worked as a cook at The Lakehouse at Deer Creek and will be competing at the American Culinary Federation Student Chef competition in July 2022. She has enjoyed working alongside UVU's exceptional teachers and staff. When she's not cooking, she can be found camping, rock climbing, ballet dancing, or reading a good book.

SARA RUNYAN

Bachelor of Science, Digital Audio
Student Award of Excellence in Digital Media

Sara Runyan is from Folsom, California, and graduated from Folsom High School before coming to UVU. She decided to transfer to UVU after discovering the digital audio program and says that she just couldn't turn down the opportunity to learn about audio engineering in so many different entertainment industries. Now that she's earned her degree in digital audio, Sara hopes to attend the University of Utah to earn a master's degree in entertainment arts and engineering and become a sound specialist in the video game industry. Sara says UVU gave her a safe environment where she could develop her skills while creating lasting connections with classmates, professors, and advisors. "I have to give a quick shout-out to my mom," she says. "I would not be where I am today if she let me quit playing violin. Music was the start of my journey to finding this career path. I found my passion thanks to her."

TAYLOR SEIPEL

Bachelor of Science, Civil Engineering
Student Award of Excellence in Engineering

Taylor Seipel is from Rocky Ridge, Utah, and graduated from Juab High School before attending UVU. Taylor says that UVU not only gave her a good education, but a practical, hands-on as well. During her time at UVU, she has already secured employment at Horrocks Engineers. She plans on earning a master's degree and is working toward getting her professional engineer's license in five years. "I'm very grateful for my husband, who has given me so much support while going to school," Taylor says.

AUSTIN RICHARD ANDERSON

Bachelor of Science, Technology Management
Student Award of Excellence in Technology Management

Austin Anderson is from Monroe, Utah, and graduated from South Sevier High School. He transferred to UVU to pursue a degree in business/marketing education. Despite work, family obligations, COVID-19, and other personal barriers, Austin was able to graduate from UVU with a 4.0 GPA and become a recipient of the Student Award of Excellence. He was offered a full-time teaching position at Mountain Ridge High School in Herriman, something he credits to an internship set up by UVU. “I am beyond excited to share what I have learned at UVU with future generations,” he says. Austin and his wife, Savannah, have a one-year-old son named Callaway.

DANIEL MONREAL

Bachelor of Science, Technology Management
Student Award of Excellence in Technology Management

Daniel Monreal is from Orem, Utah, and graduated from Orem High School before attending UVU. Some of Daniel's favorite experiences at UVU have been his time on the UVU Race Team. Following graduation, he plans to pursue an MBA and grow his business in the food industry. “[UVU] provides an environment that leads to success,” he says. Daniel credits his wife, Kaitlin, for supporting him the entire time he attended school.

RICHARD (BLAKE) JACKSON

Associate of Science, Automotive Technology
Student Award of Excellence in Transportation Technologies

Blake Jackson is from Orem, Utah, and attended Orem High School before coming to UVU. While attending school, he has learned more about his field of interest and improved the quality of his work. He says that he has learned far more at UVU than at the previous university he attended and that he appreciated that learning was the main focus of the department. “UVU gives students a great education at a great cost,” he says. “It is the perfect environment for real learning.” Following graduation, Blake plans to grow his current business and his family — he and his spouse have a baby on the way.

Faculty & Staff Awards

18

ARLENE ARENAZ

Academic Advisor, Computer Science
Staff Award of Excellence

Arlene Padilla Arenaz is from Salt Lake City, Utah, and is currently serving as an academic advisor in the computer science department at UVU. She has a wide range of experience in academic and financial advising in both business and higher education. She served as the president of the Toastmasters International Speaking Club, PAL Chapter, and loves to travel, attend concerts, and spend time with her six grandchildren. “You are never too old to follow your dreams,” she says.

KELLIE M. JOHNSON

Administrative Assistant, Technology Management
Staff Award of Excellence

Kellie M. Johnson is the administrative assistant of the technology management department at UVU. Originally from northern California, Kellie is a proud United States Air Force brat with deep roots in Utah. She has a passion for education (especially at UVU), a love of travel, and recently learned to re-ride a bicycle after almost 40 years of being off the saddle. Kellie enjoys going to movies, concerts, and museums, but could easily stay home with her cats and read a good book or go for a swim on her own. “I have loved UVU since the day I started my education here in 1996,” she says. “While continuing to grow as a university, UVU has kept the sense of a small college in its attitude toward students. It is my honor to work at this university.”

ABOLFAZL (MASOOD) AMIN

Associate Professor, Engineering
Faculty Award of Excellence for Service

Dr. Masood Amin has been with UVU for 32 years and started as one of only two professors teaching engineering courses back in 2002. He holds a Ph.D. in mechanical engineering from Brigham Young University. Over the course of his teaching career, he has developed 12 engineering courses and taught 21 different courses. He has served as a publication reviewer and session chair at many ASEE conferences and authored many conference papers. Masood established the student chapter of American Society of Mechanical Engineers, ASME, in 2020 and says the highlight of his teaching career has been supervising a team of students who won two consecutive championship titles at the ASME-sponsored IAM3D Drone Competition. “Don’t give up, do your best, and success will be next,” he says.

EMILY HEDRICK

Assistant Professor, Digital Media
Faculty Award of Excellence for Service

Emily Hedrick is from Santa Barbara, California, and is an assistant professor in the digital media web developer and design program. She transferred to UVU (then Utah Valley State College) from Southern Utah University, where she got her start in digital media. She was one of the first graduates of the digital media department in 2009 and says she’s a “forever-proud Wolverine.” Emily also worked for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints as a producer and completed her graduate studies at Arizona State University. When she isn’t teaching, Emily is either traveling or dreaming about traveling. To her UVU graduates, she invokes Ted Lasso, encouraging them to “Be curious, not judgmental.”

OWEN PETERSON

Assistant Professor, Digital Media
Faculty Award of Excellence for Teaching

Owen Peterson, of Richfield, Utah, is an assistant professor of digital audio at Utah Valley University and has taught classes on game sound, production and post-production sound for film and television, music production techniques, and audio mixing. He is an active member of the Motion Picture Sound Editors (MPSE) and still works regularly in the industry as a freelance sound designer, composer, and production sound professional. Recently, he has worked on television programs and movies such as, “Love, Death, and Robots,” “Sonic the Hedgehog,” “Deidra & Laney Rob a Train,” “The Devil Inside,” and “Everything Must Go.” He and his wife, Mandie, have three children: Cairo, Livvy, and Eva.

M. TYLER BIRD

Associate Professor, Engineering Technology
Faculty Award of Excellence for Teaching

M. Tyler Bird, from Kemmerer, Wyoming, is an associate professor in the engineering technology department at UVU and has been a trailblazer of curriculum in the position he started in 2015. He previously served as chair of the engineering technology department and has industry experience working as an electrical controls engineer. He is a licensed professional engineer in Utah and Georgia. Tyler says the best part about teaching is watching his students grow and gain confidence in themselves while developing valuable skills. He and his wife, Nola, have five children.

TODD LEONARD

Associate Professor, Culinary Arts
Faculty Senate Award of Excellence

Chef Todd Leonard found his passion through cooking his whole life! As a senior instructor for the UVU Culinary Institute, his passion expands as he shares his love of cooking with the students. He always puts his students and class time first, and it shows in his many successes. Chef Todd was the USA National Chef of the Year in 2018-19 and has coached two of his students to become National Student Chefs of the Year as well. Chef Todd shines in the industry as he mentors his students in local eateries and places them in high-profile positions.

KYLE MERRILL

Professor in Residence, Technology Management
Faculty Senate Award of Excellence

Kyle J. Merrill, M.S., from Corvallis, Oregon, is a professional in residence in the Department of Technology Management and coordinator of the Master of Science in Engineering and Technology Management program. Prior to joining UVU, Kyle served as engineering manager for 18 years for different divisions of Hewlett-Packard Co. (HP Inc.) in the U.S. and abroad. Most recently he led engineering for a division of HP's large-format inkjet printing group in Barcelona, Spain, where he managed a combined staff of more than 80 engineers and contractors. Kyle's experience in engineering management, research and development, product development, manufacturing, and quality improvement informs his teaching and gives students a wealth of real-world insights. Kyle holds two U.S. patents and M.S. and B.S. degrees in statistics from Brigham Young University. When not teaching, Kyle and his wife, Kate, enjoy spending time with family, traveling, exploring the outdoors, biking/running/walking, gardening, and reading good books.

SAUL MONTAÑO

Adjunct Instructor, Automotive Technology
Faculty Senate Award of Excellence

Saul Montaña was born in La Paz, Bolivia. He currently serves as an automotive technology professor. Saul came to the United States in 1977 and enrolled at Brigham Young University to study geology and play for the university's soccer team. He worked for the federal government for 32 years, retiring in 2016. He also attended Utah Valley University from 2005-2007, studying automotive technology. Saul began teaching at UVU in 2015 and says that this is the greatest job he has ever had because he is able to help students understand and reach their potential. He believes strongly that education opens the doors to freedom.

Valedictorians

SAMANTHA NOBUHARA

Associate of Science

Nursing

Samantha K. Nobuhara is a native of Mapleton, Utah, and attended Maple Mountain High School. She is receiving an associate degree in nursing. She was attracted to UVU because of its diversity and the amazing things she heard about UVU's teachers. She was impressed by the university's nursing program and has been grateful to work alongside the front-line healthcare workers in the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic. "It has been so humbling for me," Samantha says. "I'm proud I will be able to be a coworker to the amazing nurses I've met." She says the best part about attending UVU has been the teachers. "I love that they all care so much about our success and are so passionate about what they teach." Samantha has also served as a representative for the Student Nursing Association, and she plans to continue her education to become a nurse practitioner. She is also getting married this semester.

A. BRYTON NELSON

Bachelor of Arts

National Security Studies

Bryton Nelson is from American Fork, Utah, and attended American Fork High School. He is receiving a bachelor's degree in national security studies, with minors in Spanish and German. Bryton says the national security studies program at UVU helped him realize that he had a passion for public service. During his time at UVU, Bryton was able to meet many prestigious individuals and travel to Washington, D.C., to participate in the National Security Studies Summer Seminar. He says one unique benefit UVU offered was obtaining education directly from former practitioners in the national security field. "My professors treated and respected me as an adult and were willing to help me at any given time," he says. "They were all very humble and helpful at all times." Bryton has been accepted to several graduate schools in Washington, D.C., and plans to work in the U.S. intelligence community.

62

JUSTINE S. ROE

Bachelor of Science, Dental Hygiene

Student Excellence Award in Allied Health, Dental Hygiene

Justine Roe is from Billings, Montana, and attended Skyview High School in Billings. She is receiving a bachelor's degree in dental hygiene. Justine's father attended UVU when it was known as Utah Valley Community College. She says he had a great experience and studying dental hygiene at UVU has always been her goal. "I have really enjoyed how hands-on my education has been," Justine says. "We get practical hands-on experience cleaning teeth in UVU's dental hygiene clinic. We also have a unique opportunity to participate in an outreach program where we help underserved populations in the community." Justine plans on working as a dental hygienist in a clinical setting, then branching out into teaching, research, or public health. Justine would like to thank her fiancé, Logan, who spent many hours in the dental chair as her patient each semester.

JENNIFER JORDAN

Bachelor of Science, Respiratory Therapy

Student Excellence Award in Allied Health, Respiratory Therapy

A native of Blackfoot, Idaho, Jennifer Jordan attended Blackfoot High School. Jordan has juggled raising three teenagers and maintaining a home-school life balance while attending UVU. "I've made lifelong friends," she says. "My program was unique in that I was with the same people for every class. I look forward to calling many of my classmates colleagues." Jordan's experience was especially unique because of the COVID-19 pandemic, as the need for respiratory therapists meant she could work as an apprentice while still in school. "The skills we were learning in class were put to use before graduation," she says. "We were able to ask real questions and get in-depth guidance from professors who had extensive experience in the field." Jennifer plans to continue working in the respiratory field and is interested in working in small, rural hospitals. She is married with three children and is proud to have accomplished a major life goal while her children are old enough to remember it.

BEN BIESINGER

Associate of Applied Science, Emergency Services
Student Excellence Award in Emergency Services

Ben Biesinger is from Walnut Creek, California, and attended Northgate High School. He is receiving an associate degree in emergency services. Ben is currently a firefighter with Unified Fire Authority (UFA) and a member of the Utah Army National Guard, both of which he calls his “dream jobs.” He previously earned a bachelor’s degree in psychology from Brigham Young University but decided to return to school in his late 30s. His fire department sponsored him to attend UVU’s paramedic program, which he says was one of his ultimate career goals. Ben’s future career and education goals include additional certifications and trainings offered by UFA and the Army. He says he plans to continue working with UFA “for as long as I can pull a hose and carry an axe.” Ben credits his wife for pushing and supporting him in his career and education. They have five children.

HALEY ORROCK

Bachelor of Science, Criminal Justice
Student Excellence Award in Criminal Justice

Haley Orrock is originally from Gilbert, Arizona, and attended Lone Peak High School in Highland, Utah. She is receiving a bachelor’s degree in criminal justice. Haley says attending UVU is a “family tradition – everyone in my family are very proud Wolverines!” She has especially appreciated the forensic science program for its many hands-on experiences and supportive faculty. “I love everything about UVU,” Haley says. “I love how open and accepting the school is of everyone, I love how caring the professors are, and I love how many experiences the program provides for me. It’s more than just a school – it’s a Wolverine community!” Haley was a teaching assistant for UVU’s anatomy program and completed an internship with a medical examiner’s office, assisting at crime scenes and autopsies. She is currently hoping to join the workforce at the Utah Office of the Medical Examiner, working as a medico-legal death investigator. Haley and her husband, Dakota, love dogs, going to the movies, and traveling anywhere.

MELISSA STRASBURG

Master of Public Service
Student Excellence Award in Public Service

Melissa Strasburg is from Saratoga Springs, Utah, and attended Orem High School. She is receiving a master's degree in public service. Melissa says learning is her passion — she has been taking classes from UVU since it was known as Utah Valley State College. She made the dean's list for four semesters while working a full-time job and raising a child. She also wrote and published a fictional novel while completing her undergraduate degree. “The best thing about UVU is the people,” she says. “My professors have been fantastic. They introduced me to new possibilities and helped me determine goals that I would have seen as impossible without them.” Melissa plans to work in public service at the federal level, but she is also considering law school. “I truly believe that education has opened doors for me that otherwise would have remained locked,” she says. Melissa has an awesome son and a beautiful granddaughter. In her spare time, she enjoys writing, blogging, cooking, kickboxing, and traveling.

TIANA ARGYLE PRESTWICH

Bachelor of Science, School Health Education
Student Excellence Award in Public Health

A native of Santaquin, Utah, Tiana Argyle Prestwich attended Payson High School before coming to UVU. She is receiving a bachelor's degree in school health education with a minor in community health. She is currently working in what she calls her “dream job” as a health teacher at Spanish Fork Junior High School, where she completed an internship before being hired full time. Tiana says she fell in love with the look and feel of UVU during a campus tour as a high schooler. She says the wonderful professors and student diversity were her favorite things about attending UVU. She hopes to continue her education with a master's degree and eventually become a full-time college professor, hopefully at UVU, where she already serves as an adjunct professor. Tiana is married, and in December 2021 the family welcomed a baby boy. She and her husband enjoy hiking, hunting, fishing, creating things in the woodshop, and gardening together.

MATTHEW MADRUGA

Bachelor of Science, Nursing
Student Excellence Award in Nursing

A native of Alpine, Utah, Matthew Madruga attended Lone Peak High School. He is receiving a bachelor's degree in nursing. Matthew's sister is a UVU alumna and preceded him in UVU's nursing program. She highly recommended that Matthew attend UVU due to the outstanding professors, in-depth education, and opportunity to develop critical thinking skills. "I am pleased to say that I have found and received all of these things from UVU," Matthew says. He points to the people skills he learned at UVU as something that prepared him for a successful career. "As a result, I now understand how to interact with people from different cultures, how to use therapeutic communication skills, and how to get to the roots of individuals' concerns," he says. Matthew's favorite hobby is jumping rope, a skill he picked up during the COVID-19 pandemic. He is also "passionate about smoothies" and says the car wash is his "happy place."

Faculty & Staff Awards

66

FRANCINE BENCH JENSEN

Associate Professor, Nursing
Faculty Award of Excellence

Francine Bench Jensen is from Platteville, Wisconsin, and currently serves as an associate professor of nursing at UVU. She earned a bachelor's degree in zoology from Brigham Young University, an associate degree in nursing from Piedmont Virginia Community College, and a master's degree in nursing from George Mason University. Francine is a registered nurse, and she has served as a program coordinator in the UVU Department of Nursing since 2016. Over the last two years, she has administered the COVID-19 response, screenings, and communication in the Department of Nursing. She says she is proud that UVU has remained open for education during this challenging time and maintained strong relationships with clinical partners. "Working at UVU allows me to teach and interact with students who have a variety of life experiences," Francine says. "This is important to me as an educator in nursing as we prepare to treat community members. Working with my colleagues in the Department of Nursing continually enriches my teaching practice and shapes me into a better person."

STEVEN D. ALLRED

Professor, Emergency Services
Award of Excellence for Service

Steven D. Allred is from Highland, Utah, and is a professor of emergency services at UVU. He is also a professor of emergency care at UVU and serves as the paramedic program director. He received an associate degree in fire science from UVU, an associate degree in emergency care and rescue from Weber State University, a bachelor's degree in public emergency services management from UVU, and a master's degree in education from Utah State University. Steven served 21 years with the Orem Fire Department; his career there allowed him to become a police officer, working both patrol and with SWAT. He also worked for Intermountain Health Care as a paramedic in the emergency room at Utah Valley for 30 years. Steven and his wife, Diane, have six married children and 13 grandchildren, and his favorite way to spend time is watching them grow, play sports, or just be cousins.

KELLY ROSE

Assistant Professor, Respiratory Therapy
 Director of Clinical Education, Allied Health
Award of Excellence for Engagement

Kelly Rose is from Mesa, Arizona, and currently works as an assistant professor of respiratory therapy. She is also the Director of Clinical Education for Allied Health. Kelly came to Utah in 2006 after working as a respiratory therapist in the United States Air Force. After obtaining her bachelor's and master's degrees, she worked in various Utah hospitals. In 2013, Kelly began teaching and it's been her passion ever since. She taught at Stevens-Henager College and Weber State before coming to UVU in 2017. Together with Max Eskelson, she was instrumental in starting the Bachelor of Science in Respiratory Therapy program. Kelly and her husband enjoy watching movies and traveling with their two wonderful teenage daughters.

THOMAS STURTEVANT

Associate Dean, College of Health and Public Service
Dean's Special Recognition Award

Thomas Sturtevant is the associate dean for the College of Health and Public Service. Thomas received a bachelor's degree in organizational management from Tusculum College in Greeneville, Tennessee; a master's degree in public administration from the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga; and a doctorate in education from the University of Tennessee at Knoxville. He is also a U.S. Air Force veteran. With over 40 years of experience, Thomas has a unique blend of emergency response and educational expertise with accomplishments in degree program development and administration, curriculum development, and accreditation and certification management. Thomas is a published author, has assessed several foreign emergency response training and certification programs, and served on the Board of Directors and Committee on Accreditation for the National Professional Qualifications System. He is a Senior Fellow of the Higher Education Academy (SFHEA) and a member of the Institute of Fire Engineers (MIFire). Thomas says the best thing about working at UVU is working with amazing faculty, staff, and students.

LORI MARSHALL

Managing Editor, Utah Fire & Rescue Academy
Award of Excellence for Staff

Lori Marshall is a native of Spanish Fork, Utah, and currently serves as the managing editor for the Utah Fire and Rescue Academy (UFRA). She graduated with an associate degree from UVU and a bachelor's degree in business management with an emphasis in organizational behavior from Brigham Young University. Before coming to UVU, Lori worked for a non-profit organization, worked briefly in human resources, and was employed as a business consultant for the Department of Workforce Services. Lori began at UFRA working in the certification department. For the past seven years, she has served as the managing editor of UFRA's magazine, a firefighter training magazine distributed statewide. In addition, she manages the UFRA website and social media accounts, and has worked on projects promoting firefighter mental wellness. Lori is honored to serve Utah's firefighters. She greatly admires the work and sacrifices they make every day. She enjoys being outdoors, reading, and spending time with her husband and two children.

MERILEE LARSEN

Assistant Professor, Public Health
Faculty Senate Award of Excellence

Merilee Larsen is from American Fork, Utah, and serves as an assistant professor of public health at UVU. She received a bachelor's degree in community health from UVU, and master's and doctoral degrees in public health from Loma Linda University. Merilee received the Adjunct Faculty of Excellence award from UVU in 2010 and the Alumni Outstanding Educator of the Year award in 2018. "The students will always be the best part of the job," she says of her time at UVU. "They come with such great attitudes, hopes, and dreams. I love to be a part of their learning journey." Merilee has also taught for the University of Utah, the Utah Highway Patrol, and in the private industry. She has more than 15 years of professional experience working for the Utah Department of Health, Bureau of Emergency Medical Services. In her spare time, Merilee teaches yoga and has done so for over 20 years. She is married and has two boys, Jagger and Bowie. They love to travel and spend time outdoors, and she loves to run, read, snorkel, and do yoga.

DIANNE MCADAMS-JONES

Professor, Nursing
Black Academic Excellence Award

MELINDA BARBER

Assistant Professor, Public Health
Student Advocate Award

MARY KENT

Director, Open Source Intelligence Center
Faculty Senate Award of Excellence

Mary Kent, a native of Orem, Utah, is currently serving as the director of the UVU National Security Studies Open Source Intelligence Center. Before coming to UVU, Mary worked at the Utah Statewide Information and Analysis Center as a senior intelligence analyst. She is a certified Department of Homeland Security analyst and has specialized in open source, narcotics, organized crime, and human trafficking intelligence. Mary also worked as a victim's advocate for the Provo Police Department where she assisted victims of crime. As an Army veteran, Mary obtained her master's degree in national security and terrorism studies from the American Military University and is currently working on a Ph.D. in criminology from the University of Stirling, Scotland. In her private time, she enjoys traveling all over the world, and has been to nine countries and counting.

Board of Trustees Award of Excellence

70

AMIE HOUGHTON

Assistant Professor, Criminal Justice; Program Director, Forensic Investigations

Amie Houghton is from Cedar Fort, Utah, and is an assistant professor and director of the forensic investigations program at UVU. She earned a bachelor's degree in biology from Arizona State University and a master's degree in forensic science with a specialization in crime scene investigations from George Washington University. Prior to working at UVU, Amie was a special agent with the Naval Criminal Investigative Service (NCIS). During her 11 years with NCIS, she conducted felony-level criminal investigations for the Department of the Navy. Amie's major focus has been to restructure and design UVU's degree program to create a competitive nationally accredited program under the Forensic Education Program Accreditation Commission (FEPAC). She was extensively involved in creating the national curriculum guidelines for crime scene investigation degree programs. Due to Amie's efforts, UVU was asked to be a pilot for the accreditation of UVU's forensic investigation emphasis. Amie married her husband, Jeff Houghton, in 2016. Through him, she has the honor of being a mother to three children (and their spouses) and a grandmother of eight grandchildren. They love to travel, play hard, and work hard.

Presidential Award of Excellence

JEANNETTE VARGAS GERMAN

Lab Manager, Emergency Services

Originally from the Dominican Republic, Jeannette Vargas German is the lab manager for the Emergency Services program at UVU. She holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from Universidad Autonoma de Santo Domingo, and two bachelor's degrees from UVU, in behavioral science and emergency services administration. Before joining UVU, Jeannette started her professional career at Brugal & Company in the Dominican Republic, where she was a recruitment and selection coordinator and registration and control coordinator. Jeannette has held a variety of administrative support positions at UVU, and has earned multiple Staff Excellence Awards at UVU, as well as the Champion of Inclusion Award in 2019. "The most remarkable aspect of working at UVU is working with students and empowering them to achieve their educational goals of obtaining a college education," Jeannette says. "UVU offers opportunities for employees to grow professionally, and it is a place where the true meaning of inclusion is reflected." Jeannette has been married to her husband, Edward, for 19 years. They have three children: Edward Jr. (16), Yanelli (15), and Angelina (13).

GREG JACKSON

Associate Professor, Criminal Justice

Greg Jackson is originally from Rancho Cucamonga, California, and is serving as a professor of integrated studies and national security studies at UVU. He earned a bachelor's degree in history and a master's degree in French studies from Brigham Young University and a Ph.D. in history from the University of Utah. Greg is the creator, host, and head writer of the U.S. history podcast "History That Doesn't Suck," which regularly trends among the top 10 history podcasts and top 200 across all categories in the United States. Greg earned the Faculty of the Year award in 2021 and the Dean's Award of Excellence for teaching in 2020. "The best thing about UVU is our grit," Greg says. "We have students and faculty who aren't afraid to try new things, step outside the lines, and outwork anyone. That's exactly the kind of crowd I like to run in." Greg is married to UVU Associate Dean of Health Sue Jackson, and they have three children. He enjoys serving his community as a Lehi City Planning Commissioner and Boy Scouts of America merit badge counselor. He also enjoys half marathons, cycling, rock climbing, and playing guitar.

COLLEGE OF HUMANITIES & SOCIAL SCIENCES

Valedictorian

EMILY G. LINFORD

Bachelor of Science, English

Emily Linford is from Elk Ridge, Utah, and hopes to become an author. She says she has enjoyed diving into literature and seeing how the works of authors apply to the world and contemporary issues. While at UVU, she was recognized with the Outstanding Honors Project Award for her capstone project – a novel in progress entitled “The Transformation of Medusa.” Emily credits the honors program for shaping her experience while at UVU. She says it provided her with opportunities to take classes, attend activities, and learn a variety of amazing topics, which enriched her educational experience despite the pandemic. She also notes UVU has felt accessible and is a place where she could be challenged and yet be successful. While immersed in studies, she says she learned “so much” about creative writing and skills that help her write, edit, and be a professional in the workplace. She hopes to be published within the next five years.

Department Outstanding Graduates

98

BEHAVIORAL SCIENCE

BRYNN WALLENTINE

Bachelor of Science, Psychology

Brynn Wallentine's hometown is Pleasant Grove, Utah. She chose UVU because of its commitment to diversity and accessibility. She says she felt at home among UVU's diverse student body and welcomed the opportunity to work alongside others with differing points of view. The opportunity for transformation fueled by a passion for lifelong learning led her to success at UVU. She says the university helped her learn to envision herself as someone who could reach her goals and gave her the motivation to not just keep going – but keep growing. Brynn values the relationships and connections she has formed at UVU. Other highlights of her education at UVU include presenting at an Evidence-Based Teaching & Learning conference in San Diego, earning a spot on the dean's list in Spring, Summer, and Fall of 2021, being awarded the Jeanene Watkins Scholarship, and earning a 4.0 GPA. Brynn enjoys cooking, reading, and playing hockey when she isn't studying. She is also particularly thankful for her mother and siblings and says, "they helped make this journey a beautiful one." Her journey is not finished. She intends to pursue a Master of Science in mental health counseling this fall.

COMMUNICATION

KAYLA BAGGERLY

Bachelor of Science, Communication

Kayla Baggerly, from Eagle Mountain, Utah, is graduating with a bachelor's degree in communication with an emphasis in journalism and a minor in digital media. Kayla says she decided to attend UVU because she loved its mission statement to include, engage, and achieve. While attending the university, Kayla had the opportunity hold multiple positions at the UVU Review newspaper, serving as a volunteer writer, social media manager, managing editor, and editor-in-chief. She is especially proud of earning a second-place award from the Society of Professional Journalists for her Latter-day LGBTQ+ series while at the newspaper. She was also a presidential intern in the Office of Inclusion and Diversity at UVU. Kayla currently works as a reporter for ABC4 News and hopes to be an even better reporter and published fantasy author in five years. Kayla loves playing piano, spending time with her dog and family, and exploring the world.

ENGLISH & LITERATURE

TYSON J. SWASEY

Bachelor of Science, English Education

Tyson Swasey is a native of Price, Utah, and the oldest of seven siblings. He is a first-generation student. He chose UVU because he said it's an environment of authentic innovation driven by passion and a love of learning. Tyson explains that while at UVU, he learned that everyone has a passion and a story. His English education major helped him understand the potential of learning and stories. He credits community-building opportunities such as winning ski passes and creating flower bouquets at an interfaith event for generating excitement for learning. He says he is most proud of his connections with his peers while at UVU. Through those relationships, he says his thinking progressed and showed him the potential outcomes of working together. At UVU, he worked for two English department journals: Touchstones and Essais. He also maintained a 4.0 GPA while working as an academic intervention aid at Carbon High during the COVID-19 pandemic. After graduation, he plans to return to the classroom as a middle school teacher. His long-term goals include becoming a school administrator.

INTEGRATED STUDIES

MASON STAUFFER

Bachelor of Science, Integrated Studies

Mason Stauffer is from Orem, Utah. He says he had no idea what to do with his life when he entered UVU. Still, good advisors, mentors, classes, professors, and programs taught him that he enjoyed anthropology and communication. He later discovered a connection between those two subjects and national security. He combined those passions and further cultivated his love of playing the trumpet while at UVU while maintaining a 4.0 GPA. This fall, he will begin a master's program at the Institute of World Politics, with a focus on strategic intelligence. He is grateful for the UVU professors who focus on students and individual success. He acknowledges that Utah Valley University may not be as "fancy" as other colleges, but appreciates that, as it allows more funds to go toward helping gritty students succeed. In his spare time, Mason enjoys hiking, trapping, Dutch oven cooking, and playing the trumpet.

HISTORY & POLITICAL SCIENCE

JEFF HIBBARD

Bachelor of Arts, Political Science

Jeff Don Hibbard hails from Pleasant View, Utah. His educational journey at UVU led to discovering a future career he was not aware of before his arrival on campus. He found that he enjoys global politics, public policy, and other political science-related fields. Jeff also had no intention of pursuing a graduate degree before homing in on his interests, but he's now preparing to apply for a master's program related to the Chinese language at a Chinese university. His 4.0 GPA may also serve to gain him acceptance into a graduate program with an emphasis on public policy. While at UVU, Jeff participated in various clubs and organizations, including the Utah International Forum, Rotaract, Foreign Policy Club, and the Chinese Club. He also assisted with UVU's Diplomatic Conference and spoke at the United Nations Commission on the Status of Women. He says the best part of attending UVU is the level of care provided by professors and the evidence that each student's success matters. He recommends students reach out to their professors as he did, having emailed every professor he has ever had. In his free time, Jeff enjoys reading, drawing, and sewing.

LANGUAGES & CULTURES

EMILY BRIANNA QUALLS

Bachelor of Arts, Spanish

Emily Brianna Qualls grew up in California, but has lived most of her life in Syracuse, Utah, with her family of 11. After changing her major four times, she was still searching for the right fit. After reflecting on her mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints to Guayaquil, Ecuador, Emily realized how deeply she missed and loved the people, food, culture, and language of Ecuador. She says that learning Spanish took a lot of time and effort, but that it opened up an entirely new world for her. Emily appreciated that the classes in her major pushed her to embrace Spanish literature, history, and culture in a way she never had before. Emily married the love of her life in December of 2021 and is currently working at doTERRA as an international database author.

PHILOSOPHY & HUMANITIES

JUAN DANIEL PALENCIA

Bachelor of Arts, Philosophy

Juan Daniel Palencia is from Palm Desert, California. He says Utah Valley University helped him develop a studying lifestyle and become part of a community of other curious individuals who shared questions and ideas. He says that faculty in the philosophy department created stimulating and engaging dialogue, and he enjoyed their authenticity and willingness to experiment in the learning environment. During his time at UVU, Juan served as club president for the UVU Philosophy Club, was the managing editor of the Sophia undergraduate philosophy journal, and was published in the Spring 2022 issue of Essais. After graduation, he plans to pursue an advanced degree in philosophy and eventually become a philosophy professor. Juan says that among the lessons learned at UVU, he found that the most challenging experiences are the most rewarding because you realize what you don't know, and that is the first step to knowing yourself and where you can improve. In his free time, Juan enjoys writing songs and recording music.

Faculty & Staff Awards

102

KIERA DAVIS

Associate Director, Master of Clinical Mental Health Counseling Program
Dean's Award of Excellence for Staff

Kiera Davis hails from Lindon, Utah. Kiera earned an associate degree in accounting with high honors and plans to pursue further education in accounting and whatever else may pique her curiosity. She has been at UVU for eight years, serving in various administrative support roles for the Office of the President, the College of Science, and the behavioral science department. She currently serves as the associate director of the Clinical Mental Health Counseling program. She says the best part about working at UVU is that “my colleagues are my work family.” Kiera is the proud mother of a 12-year-old and is a 15-year yoga enthusiast.

JEFFREY NIELSEN

Instructor, Philosophy & Humanities
Dean's Award of Excellence for Faculty Service

Jeffrey Scott Nielsen, MA, is a native of Brigham City, Utah. He is working on his Ph.D. (ABD) from Boston College and has a Master of Arts in philosophy (with distinction). He also earned a Bachelor of Arts in German with an emphasis in economics (Cum Laude) from Weber State University. His experience includes University Lecturer of Philosophy. He teaches courses in ethics, applied ethics, and critical thinking. He also coaches the Utah Valley Intercollegiate Ethics Team and has taken them to nationals multiple times. He is the organizer and director of the Utah High School Ethics Bowl and the Director of the Utah Institute for Public Deliberation. He enjoys working at UVU because he loves teaching students and working with intelligent and creative colleagues. His advice to graduates is to “never forget to be fully present to the moment you are in and to the people you are with. Remember, it’s not what happens to you but how you respond that will determine the happiness in life.”

TODD SPENCER

Assistant Professor, Behavioral Science

Dean's Award of Excellence for Faculty Scholarship

Todd A. Spencer is a native of Slaterville, Utah. He earned a Ph.D. from Oklahoma State University in human development and family science. He also holds a master's degree from Oklahoma State University in marriage and family therapy and a bachelor's degree from Weber State University in child and family studies. While in Oklahoma, he served as a faculty member and clinic director. He joined UVU in 2019 as a faculty member teaching within the Marriage and Family Therapy Master's program, serving as its first clinic director. He is also licensed as a marriage and family therapist. His many awards at UVU include a Faculty Excellence Award nomination and Flexible Learning Award nomination. His work has appeared in nine peer-reviewed publications and 12 published book chapters and has been presented at national and regional conferences dozens of times. He says the best part of working at UVU is the university's commitment to the student experience. He also calls the culture of collegiality among faculty a "dream come true."

Presidential Award of Excellence

The UVU Presidential Award of Excellence recognizes employees who advance the mission, values, and action commitments of the university. We are pleased to pay tribute to an award recipient from the College of Humanities and Social Sciences.

104

JESSI HILL

Associate Professor, Behavioral Science

A native of Miami, Florida, Jessi Hill is an associate professor of psychology at UVU. She is also the chair of the behavioral science department. Jessi earned a doctorate in developmental psychology from Florida State University and a master's degree in visual cognition and human performance from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. Her research on perceptions of women in leadership within Utah prompted the creation of the USHE Women's Leadership Exchange (UWLE), which she co-directs with Dr. Nancy Hauck and Dr. Liz Hitch. Jessi says that the best parts of working at UVU are the people, the chance to make a difference in the community, and the freedom to be innovative and creative in her work. Jessi and her husband, Samuel, have seven children. She is teaching herself magic, writes poetry, dabbles in photography, is a classically trained pianist, plays the guitar, reads science fiction and fantasy, and enjoys hiking.

GREG JACKSON

Associate Professor, Integrated Studies, Criminal Justice/Law Enforcement

Greg Jackson is originally from Rancho Cucamonga, California, and is a professor of integrated studies and national security studies at UVU. He earned a bachelor's degree in history and a master's degree in French studies from Brigham Young University and a Ph.D. in history from the University of Utah. Greg is the creator, host, and head writer of the U.S. history podcast "History That Doesn't Suck," which regularly trends among the top 10 history podcasts and top 200 across all categories in the United States. Greg earned the Faculty of the Year award from UVU in 2021, and the Dean's Award of Excellence for teaching in 2020. "The best thing about UVU is our grit," Greg says. "We have students and faculty who aren't afraid to try new things, step outside the lines, and outwork anyone. That's exactly the kind of crowd I like to run in." Greg is married to UVU Associate Dean of Health Sue Jackson, and they have three children. He enjoys serving his community as a Lehi City Planning Commissioner and Boy Scouts of America merit badge counselor. He also enjoys half marathons, cycling, rock climbing, and playing guitar.

Faculty Senate Awards of Excellence

The Faculty Senate Awards of Excellence recognize full-time and adjunct faculty who have made significant contributions to UVU's mission through demonstrated excellence in teaching, scholarship, and service. We are pleased to pay tribute to the selected faculty who teach within the College of Humanities and Social Sciences.

105

ELIZABETH FAWCETT

Assistant Professor and Program Director, Master of Marriage and Family Therapy Program

Elizabeth B. Fawcett graduated with a Ph.D. in marriage family and human development from BYU, where she also earned a bachelor's degree summa cum laude in psychology. She is a higher education fellow and a licensed marriage and family therapist. She joined UVU in 2017, and before that, taught graduate and undergraduate students in on-campus, online, and hybrid courses. She served as the MFT program director and vice president of academic affairs for Argosy's Salt Lake campus. She received two Best of State Awards for curriculum development and academic administration during that time. In 2014, the Utah Association for Marriage and Family Therapy selected her as the recipient for its annual Advancing the Profession Award. She also served as the MFT clinical director at Northcentral University, working with master's and doctoral students across 48 states and 14 countries. She chaired the Commission on Accreditation for MFT Education in 2021, and currently serves on the Utah MFT licensing board. She and her husband, David, are the parents of four wonderful sons.

JESSICA PAULY

Assistant Professor, Communication

Jessica Pauly hails from Lincoln, Nebraska. She earned a Ph.D. from the Brian Lamb School of Communication at Purdue University. She also holds a master's degree in communication from the University of Kansas and a bachelor's degree in communication studies from Nebraska Wesleyan University. Her varied life experiences include working in New York City in the fashion industry and holding various roles with university administration at KU and Purdue. Since arriving at UVU, she has continued to seek opportunities to apply her skills within the broader community and feels these experiences enhance her classroom pedagogy. Dr. Pauly is grateful for her partner, two "nutty" kids, and a diva dachshund.

MICHAEL WEEKS

Lecturer, History

Michael Weeks is a native of Provo, Utah. He received a Ph.D. in history from the University of Colorado, Boulder, holds a Master of Arts from Northern Arizona University, and a Bachelor of Arts in social science with a teaching credential from San Jose State University. Before arriving at UVU in 2017, he was a visiting assistant professor of history at Our Lady of Lake University in San Antonio, Texas, and taught high school for many years. At UVU, he enjoys his role as a history lecturer. His areas of expertise include U.S. history, environmental history, the modern American West, and Utah history. He has participated in the Environmental Ethics Symposium Executive Committee as a Higher Education Academy Fellow and has served as a Service-Learning Fellow. He also served on the CHSS and Social Sciences Teaching Committee and as a faculty mentor in project-based learning. Michael lives with Sacha, his wife of 23 years, and Sienna, a rambunctious border collie.

KATHERINE HANNEMAN

Lecturer, English & Literature

Katie Hanneman is from Rockton, Illinois. She completed her master's degree in literature at Utah State University and holds a bachelor's degree in English education with a minor in sociology. Before arriving at UVU in 2018, she taught composition and literature at Utah State for nearly a decade. She loves Utah Valley University for its "multifarious" student body. Hanneman says there are many different perspectives in every classroom, and each enriches the discussion and encourages empathy and understanding. When she's not sharing her passion for the written word in the classroom, you will find her gardening or on a great escape to Southern Utah. She is married with two sons and a daughter, who mean the world to her.

COLLEGE OF SCIENCE

Valedictorian

CAITLIN SHIRTS

Bachelor of Science, Biology

133

After earning an MFA in theater, Caitlin Shirts, from Provo, Utah, felt stalled in her life and career. She chose to change her career trajectory by studying biology at UVU and appreciates the university's open-admissions model that welcomes nontraditional students. While attending UVU, Caitlin had the opportunity to make agar art (painting on Petri dishes with bacteria as the medium) in the microbiology lab and entered the American Society for Microbiology's annual art contest. She also made a short documentary film about fellow biology student Jeremy Jensen's research. She wrote and ghostwrote for publications including STAT, the National Association of Science Writers Student Newsroom, and Neuroscience for Kids. After graduation, Caitlin plans to work in science communication, translating research for people who aren't trained scientists. Overall, her goal is to find creative ways to write and talk about science.

Salutatorian

134

ANH PHAN

Bachelor of Science, Physics

Anh Phan is graduating with a Bachelor of Science in physics with a minor in mathematics. Ahn moved to Utah from Danang, Vietnam, five years ago and plans to begin working toward a Ph.D. in physics within another five years and eventually become a physics professor. He says what he enjoyed most about UVU were the close relationships formed between professors and students as well as between students. While attending UVU, Anh participated in various clubs, received the 2019 NSF STEM Scholarship, and co-authored a high-profile article in Astrophysical Journal. Outside of academia, Ahn enjoys climbing and working out.

Outstanding Student Awards

The following students were recognized as being among the best of the College of Science. These students have performed exceptionally well in their classes and made other significant contributions. Some of the students have participated in research projects of regional or international importance, while others played key roles in service-learning projects. Many took on leadership roles within their departments, helping classmates with assignments and mentoring lower-level students.

As a group, these Outstanding Students have raised the academic bar at UVU, helped us be more engaged with our community, and made UVU an even more prestigious institution.

135

CLAYTON RAWSON

Bachelor of Science, Biology
Student Award of Excellence in Biology

Clayton Rawson, from Orem, Utah, says that attending UVU was the best thing he has ever done, and he has lost count of all the opportunities it has provided him. While it took him a while to complete his bachelor's degree, he says investing his time in his education was worth it. In his time at UVU, Clayton conducted meaningful research with various professors and served as a presidential intern for UVU Vice President of Digital Transformation Kelly Flanagan. He also held the positions of ambassador for the Honors Program, senator for the College of Science, and lead lab research assistant. After graduation, Clayton will return to UVU to complete a chemistry degree and teach chemistry and biology labs while applying to medical schools. His goal is to become a physician-scientist. Clayton also enjoys traveling, playing piano, singing, practicing archery, and cooking.

JOSEPH FURNISS

Bachelor of Science, Biology
Student Award of Excellence in Biology

Joseph Furniss, from Murray, Utah, is graduating with a Bachelor of Science in biology with a minor in languages (Spanish and Mandarin Chinese). While at UVU, Joseph took part in meaningful scientific research through the biology department's NSF S-STEM program and received multiple grants for research projects. He also worked with ESL students to improve his Spanish and to learn Chinese from scratch. He is proud of his success in STEM classes and scientific research and credits his mentors and classes for helping him get where he is today. Furniss says the best part about attending UVU is meeting so many hardworking and driven students from different backgrounds. After graduation, Joseph will attend medical school to become a doctor who breaks down language barriers. He is the oldest of seven children and is proud of his Puerto Rican heritage. Joseph enjoys reading, learning languages, and traveling.

JEREMY B. JENSEN

Bachelor of Science, Biology
Student Award of Excellence in Biology

Jeremy B. Jensen, from Provo, Utah, is graduating with a Bachelor of Science in biology. He says the best part about attending UVU is taking advantage of the available opportunities. While at the university, Jeremy was able to attend and present at six conferences and research insects with Dr. T. Heath Ogden and Dr. Joshua R. Jones. Jeremy is particularly proud of his accomplishments in collecting, organizing, and cataloging insect specimens. After graduation, he plans to attend graduate school to earn a Ph.D. in entomology and eventually wishes to research and teach about insects. Jeremy and his wife, Rebecca, have a 13-month-old baby girl named Annie, and enjoy camping, hiking, and playing and creating board games together.

MADELINE MOORE

Bachelor of Science, Biology
Student Award of Excellence in Biology

Madeline Moore, from Port Moody, British Columbia, Canada, received a soccer scholarship from UVU and played on the women's soccer team while pursuing medicine. Madeline is proud to be a Wolverine and wants to thank her coaches, trainers, teammates, and professors for supporting her passions. While at UVU, she completed research in the UVU Biology Lab on the suppression of epileptic episodes in Drosophila melanogaster with Angelman syndrome with the use of seizure suppressant drug valproate. She traveled the country with the UVU women's soccer team, playing against the Argentina national team and for the Utah Royals Academy semi-professional team. Madeline says the best part of attending UVU is its focus on diversity, which fosters a strong, creative, and supportive atmosphere. After graduation, Madeline will pursue a career in professional soccer and attend medical school to become a pediatric neurologist.

MICHELLE CHICAS ASLETT

Bachelor of Science, Chemistry
Student Award of Excellence in Chemistry

Originally from Los Angeles, California, Michelle Alexandria Chicas Aslett transferred to UVU from the University of Utah as she felt she needed a fresh start after losing her father. While at UVU, she worked with various professors in the chemistry department and performed research, collaborated with others, and grew her skillset. She says attending UVU helped her realize that she is a great leader, inspiring her to take on several leadership roles, including Chemistry Club president. Michelle also received the National Science Foundation scholarship and the American Chemical Society Outstanding Undergraduate Student Award. After graduation, Michelle plans on attending graduate school to pursue a Ph.D. in biochemistry. Her goal is to work for a university to train future scientists and to inspire more girls and Latinx to pursue science. Michelle wishes to thank her husband, mom, and brother for the support they have shown throughout her education.

NATHANIEL GOMEZ

Bachelor of Science, Chemistry
Student Award of Excellence in Chemistry

Nate Gomez, from Woodland, Washington, says that the best parts about attending UVU are the tight-knit and supportive community and the supportive faculty. During his education, Nate had the opportunity to engage in undergraduate research and to represent UVU at statewide and national research conferences. He also received an NSF S-Stem Scholarship and received an Undergraduate Research Scholarly and Creative Activities (URSCA) Grant. After graduation, Nate will move to southern California to attend a Ph.D. program in inorganic chemistry at UC Irvine. His goal is to work in the energy sector and help develop sustainable energy technologies. Nate says he is grateful for his fiancé, Nicole, and his two pit bulls, Theia and Barkley. He enjoys playing guitar and video games, watching TV, and backpacking and camping with friends and family.

CHARLES F. MEMMOTT

Bachelor of Science, Geology
 Associate of Science, Physical Science
Student Award of Excellence in Earth Science

Charles F. Memmott is graduating with a Bachelor of Science in geology, associate degrees in science and physical science, a Geographic Information Systems (GIS) certificate, and a minor in music. Charles is from Provo, Utah, and has enjoyed exploring more of Utah through UVU's geology program. His research projects involved studying the history of ruptures along the Oquirrh fault in Tooele County, flying drones with thermal cameras to observe how wetland birds interact with hot springs, and visiting the Northern Oquirrh Mountains and Antelope Island to collect photos of Lake Bonneville. Charles's favorite part of attending UVU was the support he felt from his professors. After graduation, he plans to work at GeoStrata's soil lab and to become a geotechnical engineer or aviation GIS planner. Charles enjoys playing French horn, drawing animals and landscapes, and learning about dinosaurs and avian dinosaurs (birds).

EMMA STOVER

Bachelor of Science, Geography
 Associate of Science, University Studies
Student Award of Excellence in Earth Science

Emma Stover is graduating with a Bachelor of Science in geography, an associate degree in university studies, and a Geographic Information Systems (GIS) certificate. Emma and her family moved to Utah from Bellevue, Nebraska, after being displaced by the flooding of 2019. Emma says the best parts about attending UVU are the student-focused atmosphere, diverse student body, passionate faculty and staff, and opportunities for career development. While at UVU, Emma was on the dean's list for four straight years and received the National Science Foundation STEM Scholarship. To further her education, Emma has been accepted to the Physics (Instrumentation) Graduate Program at the New Mexico Institute of Technology. She plans to perform research in atmospheric physics, studying terrestrial gamma-ray flashes. Emma says she is grateful to have the best mom, sisters, nieces, and nephew who encourage her to learn more about science.

SPENCER RASMUSSEN

Bachelor of Science, Exercise Science
Student Award of Excellence in Exercise Science

Spencer Rasmussen, from Sandy, Utah, is graduating with a Bachelor of Science in exercise science and a minor in biology. Spencer says the best part about attending UVU is there is a place for everyone, which gives students opportunities to achieve their goals. Spencer's time at UVU was unique, as he had the chance to participate in various research opportunities, produce five publications, and represent UVU at conferences and in scientific journals. While attending the university, Spencer also worked as a CNA in the Cardiovascular ICU at Utah Valley Hospital and achieved a GPA of 3.97. After graduation, he plans to attend medical school and eventually become an orthopedic surgeon. He is grateful for the amazing support he received from his wife, Maddy, throughout his education, as she often carried the main financial burden while also putting herself through nursing school.

SUNWOOK KWON

Bachelor of Science, Exercise Science
Student Award of Excellence in Exercise Science

Sunwook Kwon, from Vineyard, Utah, attended Cheongmyeong High School in Suwon, Korea, and is now graduating with a Bachelor of Science in exercise science. As a big weightlifting fan, Sunwook chose to attend UVU because of its excellent exercise science program. While attending UVU, Sunwook achieved a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) certification from the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA), was on the dean's list for eight semesters, and completed an internship at Utah Valley Hospital's Cardiac/Pulmonary Rehab center. After graduation, Sunwook plans to become an exercise therapist in a hospital's cardiac rehabilitation center, with the goal of becoming either a family medicine doctor or a cardiologist. Sunwook enjoys covering songs and recording them in The Noorda practice rooms.

TAYLOR PAIGE BRÄTT

Bachelor of Science, Exercise Science
Student Award of Excellence in Exercise Science

Taylor Paige Brätt, from Layton, Utah, says that the best part about attending UVU is being involved in the exercise science department and that the program's amazing faculty made her time at the university particularly unique. She says her time at the university taught her to be diligent and helped her develop confidence in her abilities to succeed in school and life. While attending UVU, Taylor worked in orthopedics and neurosurgery at Utah Valley Hospital and acute internal medicine and pulmonary at the University of Utah Hospital. She also earned an academic scholarship and spots on the dean's list almost every semester. After graduation, Taylor plans to pursue a career where she can help people live their healthiest lives possible. She also plans to continue running a photography and videography business with her husband, Jeff. She and her husband enjoy rock climbing, mountain biking, and outdoor adventuring.

ZANE W. EVANS

Bachelor of Science, Exercise Science

Student Award of Excellence in Exercise Science

Zane W. Evans, from Eureka, Utah, is graduating with a Bachelor of Science in exercise science. Zane decided to apply to UVU because his crush attended the university – and that crush is now his wife. He says he chose to stay at UVU because of its inclusive environment and caring, respectful professors. While at UVU, Zane had the opportunity to be involved with undergraduate research and will present at the American College of Sports Medicine National Conference in June of 2022. After graduation, Zane plans to attend physical therapy school to earn a doctorate in physical therapy. His goal is to perform research and teach while also practicing physical therapy. Zane enjoys playing basketball and spending time with his wife, Brooklyn, and his two-year-old daughter, Nora.

FRANKLIN MAXFIELD

Bachelor of Science, Mathematics

Student Award of Excellence in Mathematics

Franklin Maxfield is graduating with a Bachelor of Science in mathematics. Hailing from Bluffdale, Utah, Franklin attended Riverton High School. He says his favorite part of attending UVU was the accessibility of professors, and that his time at the university taught him how to think logically. He especially enjoyed taking the Putnam exams each year and scored a total of 26 points. After graduation, Franklin plans to teach and attend grad school. To future UVU graduates, Franklin says to enjoy life by taking it seriously, but not too seriously. He also wants to thank his mom and dad for their support throughout his education.

ZACHARY MATSON

Bachelor of Science, Mathematics
Student Award of Excellence in Math

Zachary Taylor Matson, from Forrest, Illinois, is graduating with a Bachelor of Science in mathematics with an emphasis on actuarial science. Zachary says he enrolled at UVU because it had the best atmosphere of all the schools he applied to. He says the best part about attending UVU is the professors, who went above and beyond to help him get through classes when he thought it was impossible. He feels that forming close relationships with his professors and his classmates helped him get more out of each class. One of his biggest academic successes was passing the first actuarial exam this winter. After graduation, Zachary's goal is to become an actuary near his hometown so that he can be near his family and friends. Zachary says future UVU grads should use all the resources they can, even when they think they won't need them.

SAXON STOCKTON

Bachelor of Science, Physics
Student Award of Excellence in Physics

Saxon Stockton, from Austin, Texas, is graduating with a Bachelor of Science in physics with a minor in mathematics. He enrolled at UVU after attending an addiction rehab program, as he knew that he needed to stay sober and turn his life around. Saxon says the best part about attending UVU is the inclusive and accessible approach the university takes to education. While attending UVU, he held the positions of National Science Foundation Scholar, junior member of the American Astronomical Society, president of the UVU chapter of the Society of Physics Students, and Physics Department Representative. He also received the NASA Space Grant and appeared on the dean's list. After graduation, Saxon plans to enroll in a Ph.D. program in astronomy or physics and eventually teach at a university. Saxon also enjoys playing guitar and video games, cooking, singing karaoke, and telling jokes.

KYLE GRANT

Bachelor of Science, Physics; Bachelor of Science, Mathematics
Student Award of Excellence in Physics

Kyle Grant hails from Pleasant Grove, Utah. While attending UVU, Kyle had many opportunities to discover the type of research he was interested in and to subsequently conduct that research. He also was able to prepare for graduate school and his career in physics, thanks to supportive teachers in the physics and mathematics departments. He also took classes relating to his hobbies, such as small guitar ensemble and music acoustics. Kyle says the best part of attending UVU is being involved in a tight-knit community of academics who also value knowledge and learning. After graduation, Kyle plans to pursue a Ph.D. in mathematics and become a mathematics teacher. Outside of his studies, Kyle enjoys music and learning languages, including Romanian and Japanese. One of his proudest accomplishments is learning to play “Oblivion” by Astor Piazzolla on guitar.

Faculty & Staff Awards

144

GEOFF ZAHN

Assistant Professor, Biology

Dean's Award of Excellence for Scholarship

Geoff Zahn, from Springfield, Missouri, earned a Bachelor of Science in biology from Missouri State University in 2010 and a Ph.D. in biology from the University of Arkansas in 2015. He has taught at UVU as an assistant professor since 2017 and says that the best part about working at UVU is supporting students in their education and beyond and that UVU enables classes to be deep learning environments for students. Other than this award, he has also received an award from the National Science Foundation S-STEM Scholarship Program and an award for Faculty-Mentored Experiences for Improving Undergraduate Biology Student Outcomes. He has co-authored two recent publications with UVU student authors. To the graduating class, he says: "Don't ever stop learning." He and his wife, Kelly, have three dogs and are Ozarkian river rats at heart. He loves to garden and cook.

BRITT WYATT

Assistant Professor, Biology

Dean's Award of Excellence for Service

Britt Wyatt, from Anchor Point, Alaska, received a Bachelor of Science in microbiology from Colorado State University and a doctorate in biological sciences from Marquette University. She has extensively researched various areas of biology and is proud of her publications, which aim to increase inclusion within science. She says the best part about working at UVU is the way students' unique backgrounds and experiences make the classroom a dynamic place in which to teach. She offers the following advice to the graduating class: "You were made to do hard things. When things get difficult, know that you have the skills and work ethic to accomplish those hard things." When not teaching or doing research, Britt enjoys hiking and exploring the zoo and museums with her two-year-old daughter, who is fierce, stubborn, and the love of her life. She also enjoys working out, reading sci-fi books, and listening to podcasts and audiobooks.

WEIHONG WANG

Associate Professor, Earth Science
Dean's Award of Excellence for Teaching

Dr. Weihong Wang, from Hejian, China, received a Master of Science in geology from Iowa State University and a Ph.D. in marine science from the University of South Carolina. She was a postdoctoral research fellow at Yale University and taught in New Jersey before joining UVU in 2012. At UVU, she has an outstanding record in teaching, research, and service. She also received the UVU Faculty Excellence Award and the Online Teaching Award. She has studied the anthropogenic impact on Utah Lake and has published papers related to nutrient loading, trace metals, and water budgets for the lake. She says that the best part of working at UVU is the opportunity to help students with diverse backgrounds succeed. To the graduating class, she says: "Do what you love and love what you do!" Weihong lives in Provo with her family and enjoys outdoor activities and cooking.

KERRI HOWLETT

Finance Manager, College of Science
Dean's Award of Excellence for Staff

Kerri Howlett, from Havre, Montana, began working at UVU in 1989 (then called UVCC) and worked as an administrative assistant for six departments. In 1995, she was hired as assistant to the dean of the School of Science and Health and has been in that position ever since. She also received the 2016-17 Board of Trustees Award. Kerri says the best part about working at UVU is being a part of student success and working with many wonderful colleagues. She will graduate from UVU with a Bachelor of Science in business management in May of 2022. She offers the following advice to the graduating class: "Never give up. You're never too old to finish what you started." She has been married for almost 33 years to her best friend, Cody Howlett. They have four children and four grandchildren. She enjoys archery, fishing, camping, sewing, crafting, and bowling.

MOHAMMAD ISLAM

Assistant Professor, Mathematics
Faculty Senate Award of Excellence

Mohammad Islam, from Comilla, Bangladesh, received bachelor's and master's degrees in statistics from Jahangirnagar University in Dhaka, Bangladesh. He also received a master's degree in statistics from Ball State University and a doctorate in statistics with an emphasis in biostatistics from Bowling Green State University. He held assistant and visiting assistant professor positions in statistics and science and has worked as an assistant professor of biostatistics at UVU since 2016. Mohammad says the best part about working at UVU is the supportive and inclusive environment that fosters student success and professional growth. In addition to this award, he has received the Dean Academic Excellence Award and the Outstanding Graduate Assistant Award from Ball State University. To the graduating class, he says: "To be successful and happy in life, just be positive and follow your dreams." Outside of academia, Mohammad enjoys listening to music and learning about different cultures and people.

EMILY C. HEIDER

Assistant Professor, Chemistry
Faculty Senate Award of Excellence

Emily C. Heider, from Springville, Utah, attended the University of Utah and earned a Bachelor of Science in chemistry in 2002 and a Ph.D. in analytical chemistry in 2010. She has worked as an assistant professor at UVU since 2019. Before that, she was a post-doctoral researcher at the University of Central Florida, a graduate student researcher at the University of Utah, a graduate student researcher at Technische Universität in Braunschweig, Germany, and a research and development scientist at ARUP Laboratories. Emily says the best part about working at UVU is that the university supports student research more than any other institution she's worked for. She has authored and co-authored numerous scholarly papers regarding chemistry. She and her supportive husband, James Harper, are raising three children together. As a family, they attend science outreach events and spread their love for experiments and data.

MICHAEL BUNDS

Professor, Earth Science

Faculty Senate Award of Excellence

Michael Bunds, from Northern California, graduated with a bachelor's degree in geological sciences from UC Santa Barbara, a master's degree in geology from UC Davis, and a Ph.D. in geology and geophysics from the University of Utah. He has worked at UVU since 2001, where he has taught geology courses and has assisted students in undergraduate research. He has mentored and co-mentored 56 UVU students who have authored presentations and papers at major scientific conferences. He says that the best part of working at UVU is helping students fulfill their dreams and seeing their wonderful successes. Michael is married to Anne Arendt, an associate professor in technology management at UVU. He is a lifelong cyclist who has raced professionally, and an avid cross-country and backcountry skier. His stepchild, Alex, is a current student at UVU. To the graduating class, he says: "Never stop learning. Think critically. The sky is the limit."

DANI TAYLOR

Assistant Professor, Biology

Faculty Senate Award of Excellence

Dani Taylor, from Mesa, Arizona, attended Arizona State University where she earned a Bachelor of Science in psychology and a Ph.D. in neuroscience. After graduation, she was accepted into a highly competitive teaching postdoctoral fellowship where she studied cell-fate decisions using Drosophila melanogaster as a model system. She also taught primarily underrepresented minority students as an anatomy and physiology professor at Central New Mexico Community College. Dani began working at UVU in 2016 and has loved using active learning techniques to spark students' love of science. She says the best part of working at UVU is helping students get into prestigious programs and accomplish their dreams. Her husband, Devin Taylor, Ph.D., is an assistant professor in UVU's Department of Biology. They have two Italian Mastiffs named Odin and Freyja. She loves cooking, hanging out with her dogs and husband, and reading many, many books.

CORY A. LARSEN

Teaching Laboratory Manager, Chemistry
Faculty Senate Award of Excellence

Cory A. Larsen earned a Bachelor of Arts in chemistry from Brigham Young University in 1978, a Ph.D. in materials science from the University of Utah in 1988, and a Bachelor of Science in pharmacy from the University of Utah in 1998. Before coming to UVU, Cory worked as a staff pharmacist for Community Nursing Services, a pharmacy director for Premier Research, and a quality control director for Cytozyme Laboratories, Inc. He says the best part about working at UVU is the flexibility to design his teaching and lab operations based on his professional judgment.

Board of Trustees Award of Excellence

ALAN PARRY

Associate Professor, Mathematics

149

A native of Clearfield, Utah, Alan is currently serving as an associate professor and the chair of the Department of Mathematics at UVU. He earned a bachelor's degree in mathematics from Utah State University; master's degrees in mathematics from Duke University and Utah State University; and a Ph.D. in mathematics from Duke University. He has received numerous teaching awards, including the Faculty Excellence award from UVU in 2019 and the L.P. and Barbara Smith Award for Teaching Excellence from Duke in 2010. Alan is a first-generation college graduate. "The best part about working at UVU is easily the fact that absolutely everyone who works there is supremely motivated by helping students be as successful as they can be," he says. Alan and his wife, Alesha, have been married for over 17 years, and they have four children: Madison (16 years old), Ethan (13), Lindsey (10), and Joshua (8). They are all amazing people and he loves spending as much time with them as he can, "especially when they want to talk about math or science with me and want to learn something new and cool." His other hobbies include creative writing and making fun and educational YouTube videos.

SCHOOL OF THE ARTS

Valedictorians

158

BRITTANNA ROBERTS

Bachelor of Science, Art Education

Brittanna Roberts is from Midway, Utah. While at UVU, she earned a 3.98 GPA, a score of 58 on the “educative” Teacher Performance Assessment (EdTPA), and had her artwork accepted into an internationally juried art show called Bound and Unbound VI at the University of South Dakota. She was the Fall 2021 Visual Arts Presentation winner in the UVU Showcase of Undergraduate Scholarly and Creative Works, and the Spring 2021 winner of the American Association of University Women Award with her painting “Celebrating Women – Vibrant and Equal.” After graduation, she plans to look for a job teaching drawing, painting, or printmaking at a high school for five to ten years. She has plans to continue her education and get a master’s degree. “UVU has been a great starting point for me, as I have made many great connections with students, professors, and mentors,” said Brittanna.

AUBREY FISHER

Associate of Science, Dance

Aubrey Fisher, from Provo, Utah, maintained a high GPA and was a recipient of the Exemplary Merit scholarship. She danced on Synergy Dance Company, which allowed her to experience an upper-level team experience and work with new directors. “The best part about attending UVU is the overwhelming amount of support that is felt here and the acceptance of everyone,” Aubrey says. “There is a place for everyone, and you do not feel pressured to meet unrealistic standards.” After graduation, Aubrey will continue at UVU and major in both dance education and modern dance. Within the next five years, she hopes to be working as a dance teacher and performing with professional companies. She might eventually pursue a degree within other fields of study or enroll in other courses to continue learning and allow herself to become a more capable instructor.

Student Awards

LEGRANDE LOLO

Bachelor of Fine Arts, Dance
Dean's Award of Excellence for Students

LeGrande Lolo is originally from Apia, Samoa, and attended school at LDS Church College Pesega in Pesega, Samoa. While at UVU, he helped found and choreograph for Atlas Dance Collective, attended American College Dance Association (ACDA) two years in a row, served as co-assistant to directors, choreographed for Synergy Dance Company, and presented work at UASAL and SCULPT. He also served as rehearsal assistant to Virginie Mécène in restaging Martha Graham's historic work Steps in the Street. After graduation and before pursuing a master's degree, LeGrande will work with dance companies in the area and pursue somatic certifications. His five-year goal is to dance with companies in Europe and travel nationally or internationally to perform.

KIRBY BOLICK

Bachelor of Fine Arts, Art & Design
Outstanding Student in Art & Design

Kirby Bolick hails from Valencia, California, and attended William S Hart High School in Newhall, California. He's most proud of his BFA show where he addressed the sensitive topic of suicide with an elegant, emotional, and potent approach through original photography, installation sculpture, and poetry. He was able to sell several of his art pieces to gallery attendants. He and his wife, Sarah, have four children, two of whom were born while Kirby attended UVU. "Truly commit yourself to your time here," Kirby recommends to future graduates. "If I hadn't committed myself to getting every drop of goodness out of my education, I would have missed priceless knowledge." Currently, Kirby works with a company as their internal photographer, and he plans to stay with them for the next little while as he builds his freelance clientele. Afterward, he plans to own his own studio for commercial products, portraits, and campaign work for larger companies and private clients.

JESSICA KETCHUM-LEE

Bachelor of Science, Dance Education
Outstanding Student in Dance

Jessica Ketchum-Lee, from Magna, Utah, graduated from Hunter High School. While attending UVU, she completed her student teaching, received her national teaching certification, and received a Utah teaching license. She served as assistant to the director for UVU's Synergy Dance Company and as assistant to the director during the 2021 Senior Capstone performance. She was selected to present various research papers and choreographic pieces at four undergraduate research conferences and to work with professional dance companies Repertory Dance Theater and Diavolo. She graduated with a 3.9 GPA, summa cum laude. After graduation, Jessica plans to teach dance at a local high school and accredited dance studio. "I would tell future graduates to take advantage of all of the opportunities that present themselves," she says. "Really commit to learning and experiencing as much as you can, because UVU has so much to offer."

KAITLIN BOOTH

Bachelor of Arts in Cello Performance, Music
Outstanding Student in Music

Kaitlin Booth is from Eagle Mountain, Utah, and graduated from Westlake High School. Kaitlin's performance history started at the age of 11 when she first started playing the cello. At UVU, she had the opportunity to perform with incredible groups such as Jason Alexander and Time for Three, and played in the pit orchestra for UVU's professional production of La Bohème. She won the UVU Concerto Competition, performed a solo concerto with an orchestra, and loved working with her two private teachers, Dr. Cheung Chau and Walter Haman. After graduation, she plans to continue working as a gigging musician doing studio work, weddings, chamber ensembles, orchestra groups, and whatever else comes her way. Currently, she owns her own business teaching cello lessons, which she will continue to do after graduation. Booth enjoys working on her jazz piano chops, learning new instruments, arranging sacred music, hiking, eating sushi, doing yoga, and, most of all, spending time with her husband, Preston.

JOSH NEEDLES

Bachelor of Fine Arts, Theatre Arts
Outstanding Student in Theatre

Josh Needles is from Meridian, Idaho, and graduated from Rocky Mountain High School. While at UVU, he got involved as much as possible, including performing in UVU theatrical productions. He also joined the Theatrical Arts Guild (TAG) council at UVU, where he helped originate the Chris Clark Award and the TAG Spotlight Series, and wrote a play which was produced in UVU's Short Attention Span Theatre. He was nominated for Irene Ryan awards and advanced to finals at the KCACTF competition, performed with Sundance Summer Theatre in their production of Mamma Mia!, and was featured in a Hallmark Christmas movie. Josh says that he learned how to be a more empathic and understanding human being in his time at UVU. After graduation, he plans to work as an actor for a while, get a master's degree, and possibly teach at a university. "I wouldn't have gotten through my degree without my family and friends."

Faculty & Staff Awards

162

HILARY DEMSKE

Associate Professor, Music
Dean's Award of Excellence for Faculty

Hilary Demske is from Coppell, Texas. She earned a Bachelor of Music in piano performance at the Peabody Institute of The Johns Hopkins University, and an artist diploma (Meisterklasse diploma) in piano performance from the Hochschule für Musik in Munich, Germany. Hilary received a Master of Music in piano performance from The Juilliard School in 2006 and a doctorate of musical arts from The University of Michigan in 2009. She has been a lecturer at the State University of New York-Fredonia, and started as an assistant professor at UVU in 2009, becoming an associate professor in 2015. In 2021, she won the Steinway & Sons Top Teacher Award and composed and released a Navona Records CD original arrangement of Franz Schubert's Winterreise, "Journey for One: A Winterreise Fantasy for solo piano," which received acclaim from Gramophone Magazine. Hilary performs internationally and believes her graduates have limitless possibilities ahead as they more deeply and broadly pursue the arts.

PETER LEONARD

Lighting Manager, School of the Arts
Dean's Award of Excellence for Staff

Peter Leonard, originally from Portland, Oregon, has designed over 300 productions for theatre and dance companies nationwide. He received a Perry Award nomination in April 2003 for lighting Children of Eden, produced by MOC Musicals. At UVU, he has designed lighting for multiple productions, including the acclaimed 2022 production of La Bohème. As lighting manager, Peter leads a team of part-time theatrical electricians in executing the lighting for The Noorda productions and Sundance summer musicals. Before joining UVU to open The Noorda Center, Peter designed shows at University of North Carolina and taught lighting design at CU Boulder. Some of his highlights include lighting the Joyce Theater, Jacob's Pillow, Lincoln Center, Kennedy Center, NY City Center, Sadler's Wells (London), and Movimentos Festival (Wolfsburg, Germany). His work with playwright and performer Vienna Carroll on Singin' Wid a Sword in Ma Han helped the original musical earn the Audience Favorite Award in the NYC Fringe in 2009. To UVU graduates, he says, "Follow your dreams! Who knows where they might take you?"

TRINITY JOHNSON

Box Office Staff, The Noorda Center for the Performing Arts
Dean's Award of Excellence for Staff

Trinity Johnson, from Payson, Utah, is a junior at UVU in the Department of Theatrical Arts for Stage & Screen. She's attending school on the Presidential Scholarship, is a student in the Honors Program, and has a current GPA of 3.9. Since starting school here, Trinity has worked at the Blair Family Box Office, acted in several short films, and directed four episodes for the JSK Stories Web Series "An Open Letter to Isabella Beck." Johnson graduated from high school as the Theatre Sterling Scholar. "Working as an usher in the Box Office allows me to participate in many of the wonderful shows here at UVU," says Trinity. "The work environment is positive and my coworkers are great. I enjoy my shifts and there is always something to smile about (even when it's just the little snacks we get from VIP events)." In her spare time, Trinity enjoys watching Star Trek and baking (she is the unofficially officially designated Blair Family Box Office Birthday Treat Person). She has three younger siblings and a Boston Terrier.

CHERYLYN WORTHEN

Associate Professor, Music
Faculty Senate Award of Excellence

Cherylyn Worthen, from Chicago, Illinois, holds choral conducting and music education degrees from Brigham Young University and a Ph.D. in music education from the University of Utah. She directs the Choir School for the Tabernacle Choir at Temple Square and is an active guest conductor and clinician throughout the nation for school, church, and community choirs. Her research has been featured at domestic and international conferences including NafME, ACDA, and the 2016 and 2018 Oxford Conducting Institute. She also serves as the Utah chapter president of the American Choral Directors Association. Cherylyn is proud of her work with the UVU Women's Choir, who premiered a piece called "Flight," arranged by Ryan Murphy, at the 2020 ACDA Western Division Conference. She is the inaugural recipient of the Bonnie Ballif-Spanvill Fellowship from the UVU Women's Center to support a project featuring women students and faculty in performance of newly commissioned works. She loves traveling, baking, and spending time with her 18 nieces and nephews.

CHRISTOPHER HOLMES

Adjunct Professor, Music

Faculty Senate Award of Excellence

Christopher Holmes obtained bachelor's and master's degrees in opera at the Oberlin College Conservatory of Music, a master's degree from Temple University, taught voice at Texas State University, and performed throughout the country. He returned to his hometown of Provo, Utah, to teach voice at BYU for three years and has taught at UVU for 12 years. With over 35 operatic credits, Christopher has been featured by companies such as Austin Lyric Opera, Central City Opera, Eugene Opera, Opera Idaho, and Phoenix Opera. He recently played Marcello in La Bohème in The Noorda's first professional opera. Christopher made his Italian debut in the role of Don Giovanni as a guest artist of Opera Orvieto. He is a parent to three children with his wife, Erin Kramer Holmes. Christopher's favorite part about teaching at UVU is being introduced to the unique talents of so many students and having the gratifying honor and experience of helping them to refine their abilities.

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

Valedictorian

172

AUDRA ASTON

Bachelor of Science, Elementary Education

Audra D. Aston from Oakley, Utah, attended Sky View High School. While at UVU, she was able to maintain a 4.0 grade point average and graduate with high honors. “I put my whole heart and soul into my schooling, doing my best work,” she says. For Audra, the best part about attending UVU was getting to associate with great faculty and peers every day. After graduation, she will continue teaching fourth grade at South Summit Elementary School and plans to pursue a master’s degree. She enjoys singing, reading, and being outside, and is married to her supportive husband, Ki, with whom she is raising four children: Kiley, Kade, Olivia, and Isaac.

Graduate Address

MARILYN SANDERS

Master of Education, Higher Education Leadership

173

Originally from Murphys, California, Marilyn Sanders attended Bret Harte High School in Angels Camp, California. She proved to herself that she can do hard things by maintaining a 4.0 GPA while working approximately 60 hours per week in two jobs. “My cohort has inspired me more than they will ever know,” Marilyn says. “In addition, I am grateful for the number of hours the professors have put into investing their time into their students and for putting up with me in the many office hours I have requested to go over assignments.” Within five years, Marilyn sees herself working on a university campus, ideally UVU, in an advisor position that supports first-generation students, career development, or rural students. Her favorite motto is, “If there’s a will, there’s a way,” and she wants to extend a huge thank you to her partner, Gus, for his constant encouragement, support, and positivity during these past two years.

Faculty & Staff Awards

174

NICOLE GEARING

Assistant Professor, Elementary Education
Faculty Excellence Award

Nicole Gearing is from Cranberry Township, Pennsylvania. She holds several advanced degrees, including a Ph.D. from Georgia State University in early childhood and elementary education with a concentration in elementary mathematics education. She is a recipient of the Utah Stem Action Center Math Innovation Grant, the STEM Fellowship from the Association of Mathematics Teacher Educators, and the Lorene Pilcher Outstanding Dissertation Award from Georgia State University. Nicole taught K-12 for 11 years and began teaching at UVU after receiving her Ph.D. She and her husband, Mike, have two children, Michael and Adelaide.

JENNIFER CALL

Lecturer, Secondary Education
Lecturer Excellence Award

Jennifer Call is from Humble, Texas, and received a bachelor's degree in special education from Texas A&M in 2005 and a master's degree in special education from Sam Houston State University in 2010. She became a Board Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) in September 2010. In 2017, she joined the faculty of UVU teaching the autism minor coursework. Jennifer is both humbled and honored for the opportunity to help shape the future of teachers, parents, and the students they will work with. She is a proud aunt to 26 nieces and nephews. To UVU graduates, she says, "Keep going and embrace all that life brings you. There will be some real highs and some extreme lows. Both experiences provide learning opportunities that will shape your future in ways you may not even imagine."

GENE NELSON

*Adjunct, Elementary Education
Adjunct Excellence Award*

Hailing from Mesa, Arizona, Gene Nelson earned a Master of Library Science and a Bachelor of Science in psychology from Brigham Young University (BYU), and an Associate of Arts from Mesa Community College. He's worked in several librarian positions, most recently as the director of the Provo City Library, and taught college students at schools including Brigham Young University and Emporia State University. Nelson has earned awards such as the Lifetime Achievement Award from the Provo City Library in 2022, the Fab Forty award from Utah Valley Magazine in 2018, and the Literacy Champion from the UVU Forum on Engaged Reading in 2017. He's been married for almost 50 years to his wife, Lori, and they have six children and sixteen grandchildren.

CONNIE WRIGHT

*Administrative Assistant, School of Education
Staff Excellence Award*

Connie Wright is from Orem, Utah, and earned a bachelor's degree in business management. She has worked several jobs in her life, with a majority of them being administrative assistant positions. She and her husband, Matthew, have two children and five grandchildren. Wright loves to work with students and see them succeed. To UVU graduates, she says, "Do your best and don't compare yourself with others. Everyone has different talents and abilities that are all needed in this world."

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE

Valedictorians

ZOIE BLACK

Associate in Science, University Studies

A native of Highland, Utah, Zoie Black attended Lone Peak High School before coming to UVU. At first, Zoie says she had a hard time deciding what she wanted to do with her life, but by taking many different classes in various departments, she was able to explore different fields. “I have learned so much about myself and my interests and feel prepared for my next steps because of the real-life experience I received during my program,” she says. Zoie is grateful for the sense of community at UVU and the great academic and social atmosphere. She maintained a 4.0 GPA and played for UVU’s club tennis team for several years. She says she plans to join a marketing team after graduation to continue learning the principles of a successful business. In the future, she hopes to apply the knowledge and skills gained at UVU to start her own business. “It has always been my dream to start a health wellness business to help people live more fulfilling lives,” she says.

MICHELYN OUSTRICH

Bachelor in Science, University Studies

Michelyn Oustrich graduated from Rubidoux High School in Riverside, California, and now calls Lehi, Utah, her home. She is receiving a bachelor’s degree in university studies from UVU. Michelyn first attended UVU in 1992 but did not complete a degree. When she returned in 2020, she was delighted to have a class taught by Ron Hammond, one of the first UVU professors she had in 1992. “I believe Professor Hammond is retiring this year, and it is a bit poetic that we are both finishing our UVU journey at the same time,” she says. Michelyn has earned a 3.95 GPA and has already begun work as an office manager at a software company. She is considering further education but enjoying work for now. “One of the most valuable skills I have learned as a student at UVU is how to think critically and articulate my point of view,” she says. “These skills will not only help me in a business environment but also as a citizen of the world.” Michelyn says she could not have achieved her educational goal of earning a bachelor’s degree without the support of her loving husband and five children.

Faculty & Staff Awards

184

LINDSEY GERBER

Assistant Department Chair, Developmental Math
Faculty Senate Award of Excellence

Lindsey Gerber is a native of McKinney, Texas, and currently holds the position of assistant department chair of Developmental Mathematics at UVU. She received her bachelor's and master's degrees in mathematics education from Tarleton State University and a Ph.D. in mathematics education from Texas State University-San Marcos. She has taught at UVU for nearly nine years and received tenure in 2019. "I became a professor to teach, and UVU is a university focused on teaching," Lindsey says. "The one reason why teaching is so important to me is that I love to see my students transform as learners. It is a great feeling when that light bulb in their head goes off and they understand the math concepts I am teaching." Lindsey earned the UVU Dean's Faculty Service Award in 2019. She and her husband, Justin, have three children under the age of five, which limits her time for hobbies.

ERIKA JOHNSON

Assistant Professor, Literacies and Composition
Faculty Senate Award of Excellence

Erika Johnson is from El Paso, Texas, and is currently an assistant professor of Literacies and Composition at UVU. She earned a bachelor's degree in English and American literature, a bachelor's degree in criminal justice, and a master's degree in interdisciplinary studies from The University of Texas at El Paso. During her graduate studies, Erika's work as a writing tutor and as a police records specialist for the El Paso Police Department inspired her to pursue the study of rhetoric. She went on to earn her doctoral degree in rhetoric and a graduate certificate in multicultural women's and gender studies from Texas Woman's University. As a member of the UVU Literacies and Composition department's diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) committee, Erika helps to educate faculty, staff, and students on recognizing and addressing microaggressions in the classroom, honoring multilingualism, and adding to the department's DEI lexicon. Erika loves all things sci-fi. Her advice to UVU graduates is to value and embrace justice, equity, diversity, and inclusion.

TERESA HAUG-BELVIN

Assistant Professor, Student Leadership and Success Studies
Faculty Senate Award of Excellence

185

Theresa Haug-Belvin is from Bonne Terre, Missouri, and is currently an assistant professor of Student Leadership and Success Studies at UVU. She earned a bachelor's degree in education with an emphasis in social studies/secondary education and a master's degree in administration with an emphasis in public administration from Southeast Missouri State University. She earned a doctorate in education with an educational leadership emphasis from the University of Missouri-Columbia. Theresa joined the Department of Student Leadership & Success Studies at UVU in the fall of 2019 and is the faculty director of the UVU Mentor Program. "Working with curious, motivated, and creative students has been the best part of working at UVU," Theresa says. "I am fortunate enough to teach courses in leadership and mentoring where I get to see students take what they learn and apply it to their own lives to become better people." Theresa lives in Saratoga Springs with her husband, Paul. They have one son, Isaac, who is 13 years old, and a seven-year-old Chihuahua named Paco who is benevolent enough to let them live in his house. Together, they like to hike, bike, and kayak.

Faculty Senate Award of Excellence

SERENA BUSS

Adjunct Instructor,
Faculty Senate Award of Excellence

A native of Orem, Utah, Serena Buss is currently an adjunct instructor and math mentor program coordinator at UVU. She received an associate degree in performing and fine arts from Ricks College, a bachelor's degree in business management from Brigham Young University, and a master's degree in public administration from Brigham Young University. Serena is passionate about assisting students in their educational journeys — she believes we can all learn from each other. She has been an adjunct instructor at UVU since 2009. “I love that UVU is focused on students, inclusion, and diversity,” Serena says. She loves the outdoors, woodworking and home improvement projects, traveling, and making music. She plays the violin, guitar, banjo, piano, mandolin, and anything else she can get her hands on. Serena raised two amazing boys as a single parent and is a champion of the underdog and the LGBTQIA+ community.

MELISSA GOODSSELL DAVIS

Adjunct Instructor, Literacies and Composition
Faculty Senate Award of Excellence

Melissa Davis hails from Alpine, Utah, and is currently working as an adjunct professor of Literacies and Composition at UVU. She earned a bachelor's degree in English with an emphasis in literary studies, and a master's degree in English, both from Utah State University. Melissa began teaching composition courses both face-to-face and online for Utah State University in 2002. She also worked in the Writing Center at Utah State University to help guide students through the writing process. She has taught a variety of courses for four different universities and currently teaches as an adjunct professor at both UVU and Brigham Young University-Idaho. “My favorite thing about working at UVU is the students,” Melissa says. “I have learned so much from them as I have watched them navigate really challenging things in their lives and also witnessed some of their successes.” Melissa has been married to her spouse, John, for 21 years. Together, they have four children. Some of her hobbies are traveling, playing the fiddle, and being outdoors.

CALLEY MARROTTA

Assistant Professor, Literacy and Composition
Dean's Award of Excellence for Inclusion

A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Calley Marotta is an assistant professor of Literacies and Composition at UVU. She received a bachelor's degree and a Ph.D. from the University of Wisconsin-Madison, a master's degree in humanities from the University of Chicago, and a master's degree in teaching from Pace University. Calley began her career as a K-12 special education teacher in New York City public schools, and she has since taught writing in college composition, writing centers, and community contexts. Her teaching values students' everyday literacy practices and centers on writing and linguistic justice. Calley is grateful to her teachers: the writers who participated in her dissertation study and are employed as university custodial staff; the Testimonio Group writers; the students, families, and communities at PS57 and Bushwick Elementary; the writings of feminist/womanist scholars like Tara Yosso, Audre Lorde, and Gloria Anzaldúa; and her mentors — especially Elena Garcia at UVU. Calley would like to thank Ryan and Ella for being her partners in all things.

DARIN ECKTON

Department Chair, Student Leadership and Success Studies
Dean's Award of Excellence in Scholarship

A native of Redlands, California, Darin Eckton is an associate professor and the chair of the Department of Student Leadership and Success Studies at UVU. He received a bachelor's degree in Spanish teaching, a master's degree in sociology, and a doctorate in education from Brigham Young University. Darin has a student-centered perspective, having spent over two decades in both student and academic affairs advising, teaching, and administration at four different institutions. Darin loves to design curricula and learning experiences that help students make the connection between theory and practice by way of innovative projects, research, and practical skill-building. He is married to Dr. Betsy Eckton, a retired educator, and they have six children. He says his favorite thing about UVU is working closely with students, empowering them to succeed in life and helping them become meaningful contributors to the world.

BENJAMIN JOHNSON

Associate Professor, Student Leadership and Success Studies
Dean's Award of Excellence for Service

Benjamin Johnson calls both Santa Barbara, California, and Provo, Utah, home. He is currently an associate professor in the Department of Student Leadership and Success Studies. Benjamin received bachelor's and master's degrees in history from Brigham Young University, along with a minor in computers and humanities. He earned an additional master's degree in education and a doctorate in educational philosophy and psychology (Educational Policy & Leadership) from The Ohio State University. He became a Faculty Innovation Fellow after completing the Teaching and Learning Studio for Design Thinking at Stanford University. Benjamin is also a Senior Fellow in the Higher Education Academy. He served as an outreach coordinator in the Walter E. Dennis Learning Center at The Ohio State University before joining UVU in 2013. Benjamin loves helping students from all backgrounds develop and enhance their academic strengths. Benjamin enjoys hiking, ultimate frisbee, spending time with his family and friends, and working with great students.

LUCY CASTRO

Coordinator, English Language Learning
Dean's Award of Excellence for Staff

Hailing from Orem, Utah, Lucy Castro is the operations coordinator for the Department of English Language Learning at UVU. She received a bachelor's degree in international studies from Brigham Young University and a master's degree in business administration from Utah State University. Lucy is an administrative professional with over 25 years of experience in private business, nonprofit, and higher education sectors. Her duties have spanned from startup mentoring programs for local schools to the administration of the UVU summer STEM program known as UVU PREP. Lucy received the Student Affairs Vice Presidential Award of Excellence in 2017. She has worked alongside leaders who have greatly shaped her career perspectives and have motivated her to be a lifelong learner. Lucy says working at UVU fuels her passion for personal educational enrichment and continuous growth.

KRISTEN HORNBERGER

Coordinator, Academic Tutoring, Math Lab
Dean's Award of Excellence for Staff

189

Kristen Hornberger is from Orem, Utah, and is currently a coordinator for the UVU Math Lab. She double majored as an undergrad and earned bachelor's degrees in mathematics and criminal justice from UVU and a master's degree in education from Utah State University. After graduating from UVU, Kristen worked as a high school math teacher at Hunter High School in West Valley, Utah, and then at Spanish Fork High School in Spanish Fork, Utah. She loved working with the students at both schools. As Math Lab coordinator, Hornberger hires, trains, and supervises up to 70 student and paraprofessional employees each semester. "I love the work that I do and being a part of helping students succeed in their math courses and finish their degrees," Kristen says. "It's a privilege to work with the amazing students and student employees." Kristen and her husband, David, are parents of two beautiful children and one ridiculous dog. She loves to run and has completed multiple 5K and 10K races, half marathons, and marathons.

TAYLOR STEVEN CRITTENDEN

Bachelor of Arts, Finance

Taylor is from Kamas, Utah, and attended South Summit High School before coming to UVU. Taylor is receiving a bachelor's degree in finance with a minor in business management. He will graduate with a 4.0 GPA and has made the Dean's List every semester at UVU. Taylor's career goals include continuing his education at law school, becoming a corporate lawyer in the tech industry, then starting his own firm one day. He says the best part about attending UVU has been the network of individuals students are able to develop with professors and fellow classmates. "The professors at UVU made my time unique," he says. "Many of them were very passionate about the course material and really took an interest in their students' lives." To his fellow students, Taylor's advice is to never stop learning: "Remember that learning is a lifelong process. It doesn't stop when class is over or when you receive your diploma. There is no growth in the comfort zone and no comfort in the growth zone." Taylor's other interests include hunting, snowboarding, and golfing.

JACOB ERIK EGAN

Associate of Science, Business Management

Jacob Egan is from Flower Mound, Texas, and attended Marcus High School. While at UVU, he has competed as a distance runner on the cross country and track and field teams. Being a student athlete and trying to balance time in the classroom with time spent practicing has been a challenge, but he loves competing for UVU and representing the university wherever he races. He has maintained a 4.0 GPA and has been on the dean's list each semester. To Jacob, the best part about attending UVU has been the student events and the professors — he says they do a really good job at getting to know their students on an individual level. After graduation, Jacob will continue studying at UVU in order to work toward a bachelor's degree in marketing and he plans to attend grad school.

PATRICK WEEKS

Bachelor of Science, Accounting

225

Patrick Weeks is from Orem, Utah. During his nine semesters at UVU, Patrick made the dean's list with a 4.0 GPA. According to Patrick, the best part about attending UVU is the amount of experience its teachers in the accounting department have and that the classes tend to focus on the aspects that will be relevant in the real world. After graduating, Patrick hopes to start working in a governmental auditing position, then go back to school after two years and work toward the credit requirement for the CPA exam. Upon earning the CPA licensure, he would like to work as an auditor for the IRS.

MIKKI O'CONNOR

Assistant Dean, Woodbury School of Business
Ian Wilson Community Engagement Award

As assistant dean of the UVU Woodbury School of Business, Mikki O'Connor is every student's greatest champion. She places a high priority on ensuring that business students from underserved communities complete their education and earn degrees. In 2017, she was recognized as a tireless candidate for the Women in Education Utah Women's Walk. Mikki, who has a master's degree in organizational behavior, has devoted more than 20 years of her life to UVU and believes encouraging students to achieve their full potential is the greatest reward of her career. Mikki is married to her wonderful husband, James, and together they share a beautiful family of seven children and 20 grandchildren.

DAVID STRATTON WAITE

Lecturer, Accounting

Dean's Award of Excellence for Teaching

From Bunkerville, Nevada, David Waite graduated from Brigham Young University with an accounting degree and spent 13 years practicing accounting. He worked as an auditor in public accounting for many years, and later became a CPA and CFE. He earned a master's degree in accountancy from Southern Utah University, and in 2013, began his teaching career at Brigham Young University-Hawaii. In 2019, he joined Utah Valley University, where he teaches introduction to financial and managerial accounting. He's a certified public accountant and certified fraud examiner. His favorite part of working at the university is teaching accounting to the amazing students of UVU.

LAURA C. RICALDI

Assistant Professor, Finance & Economics

Dean's Award of Excellence for Teaching

Originally from Flower Mound, Texas, Laura Ricaldi received a bachelor's degree in accounting from Texas Tech University in 2004. She was a mutual fund accountant and received an MBA in 2008 to become a leader in the corporate world. In the last semester of her MBA, she took a personal financial planning (PFP) course, and it changed her life. She decided to pursue a Ph.D. in PFP and teach others about the field that she loves so much. After graduating with her Ph.D., she was hired by UVU to teach financial planning courses. In 2021, she won the Best Online Course Design award from the Office of Teaching and Learning for her course "Finance 3060: Introduction to the PFP Profession." She was awarded Higher Education Academy (HEA) Fellow status in 2021. Laura's hobbies include reading, exercising, embroidery, and traveling with her husband, Marco, and their children, Cristiano and Celia, in their RV.

MELINDA BASH

Administrative Assistant, Accounting
Dean's Award of Excellence for Staff

Melinda Bash is from Lawrence, Kansas. She earned her Bachelor of Science in education from Brigham Young University in 1996. She was a preschool teacher for 10 years and a Golf Course Superintendents Association of America receptionist in Lawrence, Kansas, for three years. She's been working at UVU for three years. She and her husband, Jeremy, have four boys named Joshua (Nonnie), Caleb, Joey, and Spencer. Melinda says that the best part about UVU is the people she gets to work with. To UVU graduates, she says, "You got this; the best is yet to come!"

MICHAEL TAYLOR

Area IT Directory, Woodbury School of Business
Dean's Award of Excellence for Staff

Michael Taylor is originally from Fruitland, Idaho. He attended Boise State University before transferring to UVU (then Utah Valley Community College) and graduated with a Bachelor of Science in business management. He has proudly worked at UVU for 25 years, where he started in a part-time position as a lab assistant at UVCC. He was later hired as a part-time technician for IT services. He worked as a full-time area technician at MATC before accepting a full-time position with the Woodbury School of Business, where he was previously honored with the Staff Excellence Award. He and his wife, Shawna, live in Lehi with their son, Luke, and two very large lap dogs, Luna and Gus.

JOSH CIESLEWICZ

Associate Professor, MAcc Director, Accounting
 Dean's Award of Excellence for Scholarship

From Heber City, Utah, Joshua Cieslewicz earned a Ph.D. in international management from the University of Hawaii, and a Bachelor of Science in accountancy and Master of Accountancy from Brigham Young University. Between his master's and doctoral degrees, he worked for six years in auditing, corporate accounting, and finance-related positions. He then explored international aspects of business and accounting through a Ph.D., focusing on corporate governance, reporting, supervision, culture, abuse of power, and institutional influences. He won the UACPA Educator of the Year Award in 2021 and the Faculty Excellence Award in 2020. As the MAcc director, he recently led an effort to update their curriculum in response to changes in the accounting profession. Joshua and his wife are the parents of six children, with three still at home.

MARITZA SOTOMAYOR

Title, Department
 Dean's Award of Excellence for Scholarship

Originally from Lima, Peru, Maritza Sotomayor has been teaching at UVU since 2009. Her professional journey started in the financial banking system of Lima where she was a financial credit analyst for a private bank. After receiving a bachelor's in economics, she decided to earn a master's degree and from there got a position as assistant professor at El Colegio de la Frontera Norte (El Colef). She completed her Ph.D. dissertation about NAFTA and its effects on the Mexican manufacturing sector at Universidad Autonoma de Barcelona (UAB). Before coming to UVU, she was an adjunct instructor for the University of Utah and Weber State University. She lives in Salt Lake City with her husband, a violist for the Utah Symphony and Opera. They have a daughter graduating this spring with a double major in intelligence analysis and statistics.

XANTHE FARNSWORTH

Lecturer, Marketing

Dean's Award of Excellence for Service

Xanthe Farnsworth is from Vineyard, Utah. She earned an MA in rhetoric and composition from Brigham Young University in 2010 and a BA in English with a minor in editing from BYU in 2007. She became an HEA Fellow in 2021. She has been teaching at the university level since starting her graduate program at BYU in 2008. After teaching advanced technical writing for a few years, she transferred to UVU and taught marketing as an adjunct professor, then became a lecturer. In 2017, she began running the business school's writing lab. She and her husband, Randy, have been married for over forty years. They have two sons, two granddaughters, and three grandsons.

KEVIN RHOADS

Assistant Professor, Strategic Management & Operations

Dean's Award of Excellence for Service

Kevin Rhoads is from Orem, Utah. He received a BA from Brigham Young University and an MBA and Ph.D. in strategy from the University of Oklahoma. Over the past 27 years, Kevin has gained a unique blend of experience in senior-level sales and consulting, operations, and strategic development. His work with global Fortune 500 companies specializes in sales transformation, strategy, and leadership development. While working with clients such as The Boston Consulting Group, ExxonMobil, Hunt Oil, HP, StorageTek, NASDAQ, and Prudential, he designed strategic sales and marketing plans, managed long-term complex business relationships, and helped increase sales with established clients. He and his wife, Debbie Rhoads, have three children: Whitney, Madison, and Jacob.

AMIR KIA

Professor, Finance & Economics
Faculty Senate Award of Excellence

Amir Kia is from Provo, Utah. He earned a Ph.D. in economics from Carleton University and an MA in economics from the University of Ottawa. Before joining UVU, he taught economics and finance for several years, first at Emory University as a visiting assistant professor, then at Carleton University as a visiting associate professor. Amir also worked at the Bank of Canada for many years, holding several operational and research positions. Amir's wife, Diane, is a translation professor at the University of Ottawa. To graduates, he says: "Don't settle for second best; always aim higher."

DUSTIN HARDING

Assistant Professor, Marketing
Faculty Senate Award of Excellence

From Orem, Utah, Dustin Harding earned his Ph.D. and master's degree in marketing from Grenoble Ecole de Management and his bachelor's degree in statistics from Brigham Young University. Dustin is now head of research at UVU's award-winning Shaduf Biometrics Lab and assistant professor of marketing in the Woodbury School of Business. He previously worked as a market research insight analyst at Nu Skin Enterprises, a consumer researcher and lecturer on consumer behavior at Grenoble Ecole de Management, and a marketing research lab manager at Brigham Young University. His research has been published in some of marketing's highest-ranking academic journals, including the Journal of Consumer Research and the Journal of Consumer Psychology.
