Roommate Matching

Don’t have someone in mind? No problem. Most student housing complexes offer a roommate matching system to pair you with roommates who are similar to you. Just fill out the get to know you questions on your application so they can find a good match.

Choose Your Own

Want to select your own roommate? Easy. Create a roommate post on College Pads and browse other students’ profiles. When you find someone you think you’d get along with, send them a message so you can start searching for the perfect place. Think of it as a dating profile... but for finding roommates.

Move in with Friends

Already have a friend or two you’d like to live with? Great! When you apply for an apartment, make sure you list each other’s names on your applications.

Bonus Tip

Whether you’re good friends, or strangers, living with roommates can take some adjusting. Check out our Happy Roommates brochure for some tips on successful roommate relationships.
