

Curriculum and Instruction, M.Ed.

Empowering the student through knowledge, preparation, and ethics

The Curriculum and Instruction, M.Ed. is an applied graduate program designed for practicing educational leaders. This program focuses on enhancing instructional practice through advanced coursework in curriculum design, assessment, pedagogy, research methods, and data analysis. This program prepares educators to lead in classrooms, schools, and instructional teams. Students are allowed to transfer nine credits of 5000-level endorsement coursework (awarded by an academic institution for a USBE approved endorsement) to apply toward graduation requirements.
