

SUMMER 2026 GRANT WRITING SEMINAR

FULL PROGRAM SCHEDULE

June 9, 11, 16 & 18, 2026

DAY 1 | Foundations of Grant Development

Tuesday, June 9 | KB 405

9:00 AM — Welcome | Curtis Pendleton

- Brief introductions

9:15 AM — Opening Remarks | Daniel Fairbanks

- Overview of role and involvement in research and sponsored programs
- How grant funding has shaped career and institutional impact

9:30 AM — Follow-Up Remarks | Curtis Pendleton

- Key themes and expectations
- Overview of seminar structure and goals

9:35 AM — Logic Models & Project Summaries for Grant Projects | Ethan Sproat

- Developing clear project goals and outcomes
- Building effective logic models (inputs, activities, outputs, outcomes)
- Aligning project summaries with funder expectations

10:15 AM — Break

10:30 AM — Reading and Interpreting an RFP | Curtis Pendleton & Ethan Sproat

- Identifying key requirements and evaluation criteria
- Understanding funder priorities and language
- Common pitfalls and how to avoid them

11:15 AM — Elements of a Literature Review for Grant Projects | Rich Paustenbaugh

- Establishing need and context
- Synthesizing relevant research effectively
- Citing evidence to strengthen proposals

12:00 PM — Lunch

1:00 PM — Grant Search Basics | Ethan Sproat

- Overview of major funding databases and tools
- Developing effective search strategies

1:45 PM — Exploring Foundation Funding | Kathryn Johnson & Sheldon Sumpter

- Identifying foundation funders aligned with your project
- Using Raiser's Edge NXT and other tools
- Understanding foundation giving patterns

2:10 PM — Follow-Up Remarks on Foundations | Curtis Pendleton

2:30 PM — Break

2:45 PM — Using AI in Grant Development | Curtis Pendleton & Ethan Sproat

- Brainstorming and refining project ideas
- Drafting and editing proposal components
- Ethical considerations and best practices

3:45 PM — Wrap-Up & Q&A

DAY 2 | Compliance, Budgets, and Institutional Processes

Thursday, June 11 | KB 405

9:00 AM — Welcome | Curtis Pendleton & Ethan Sproat

- Any questions from previous sessions or topics.

9:15 AM — Budgets for Grant Projects | Alex Hartvigsen

- Direct vs. indirect costs
- Building accurate and compliant budgets
- Common budget justifications and pitfalls

10:45 AM — Break

11:00 AM — IRB & Research Ethics | Julie Salevurakis

- Human subjects research requirements
- When IRB review is required
- Common compliance considerations

11:30 AM — University Data | Taylor Lovell

- Survey and focus group support
- Understanding campus data resources
- Data-informed project and proposal planning

12:00 PM — Lunch

1:00 PM — Grants Accounting | Troy James

- Working with university finance offices

1:45 PM — Technology Transfer & Intellectual Property | Bradley Baugh

- Quantitative, Qualitative; Formative, Summative / Examples
- Working with tech transfer offices
- Disclosures and commercialization pathways

2:30 PM — Break

2:45 PM — Grants Administration & Avoiding Fraud | Alex Hartvigsen

- Roles and responsibilities in grant administration
- Common compliance risks and red flags
- Best practices for maintaining integrity

3:30 PM — Why Would Organizations Give You Money? | Curtis Pendleton

- Framing impact and significance
- Aligning your project with funder priorities
- Communicating value clearly and persuasively

3:55 PM — Wrap-Up & Q&A

DAY 3 | Introduction to Grant Proposal Writing

Tuesday, June 16 | KB 405

9:00 AM — Welcome | Curtis Pendleton

- Any questions from previous sessions or topics.

9:15 AM — Introduction to Grant Proposal Writing | Janis Raje

- Four Critical Quadrants
- Types of Proposals
- Getting Started Strategies
- General Outline of a Major Proposal Narrative

10:15 AM — Break

10:30 AM — Persuasive Grant Proposal Writing | Janis Raje

- Audience Awareness
- Focused vs. Unfocused Facts
- Persuasion through Organization

12:00 PM — Lunch

1:00 PM — Teamwork Time - Review Proposal Summaries | Ethan Sproat

- Review your one-page summaries
- Discuss the strategies you will use for your intended audience(s): program officers, UVU administrators, partners, etc.

1:30 PM — Writing Short Proposals & Foundation Proposals | Janis Raje & Curtis Pendleton

- Letters of Inquiry
- Letter of Intent
- Online Application

3:00 PM — Break

3:15 PM — Grant Examples that Have Made a Difference at UVU | Curtis, Janis, & Ethan

Assignment: Describe in detail the problem(s) or need(s) to be addressed by your proposal. Cite supporting evidence as appropriate.

DAY 4 | Writing a Grant Proposal

Thursday, June 18 | KB 405

9:00 AM — Welcome | Curtis Pendleton & Janis Raje

- Any questions from previous sessions or topics.

9:15 AM — Need / Reason for the Project or Research | Janis Raje

- Statements of the need or problem
- Identifying the gap
- Claim, evidence, warrant
- Activity - Revise and share problem, statements

10:30 AM — Break

10:45 AM — Goals, Objectives and Activities | Curtis Pendleton

- Goal and Objective models
- Activity - Write goal and objective statements; share within groups

12:00 PM — Lunch

1:00 PM — Plan of Operation, Methodology, and Management Plan | Janis Raje

- What will be done; How will it be done and by whom
- Why will it be done this way (justification and rationale)
- Activity – Make a list of things you will want to include in your project plan section.
- Roles and responsibilities – (organizational structure & key personnel)
- Timetables
- Activity – draft a timeline; what strategy could you use to organize it
- Sustainability & Dissemination

1:45 PM — Evaluation | Curtis Pendleton

- Quantitative, Qualitative; Formative, Summative / Examples
- Activity – Write an evaluation for two of your objectives; share within groups

2:15 PM — Supporting Documents in Grant Proposals | Janis Raje

- Abstract, Project Summary, Project Aims
- Facilities, Equipment and Other Resources
- Letters of Commitment, Support, and Collaboration

2:45 PM — Break

3:00 PM — Panel of Grant Recipients & Reviewers | Alex Hartvigsen, Eddy Cadet, Joe Jensen, Heath Ogden, & W. Barney Nye

Thank you for joining us for the Summer 2026 Grant Writing Seminar. We appreciate your participation and look forward to supporting your continued success in grant development.

(Please download the Seminar Resource Guide—available on the event webpage—for resources organized by session.)