

Welcome to Utah Valley University.

As Chair of the Committee for Use of Copyrighted Materials I would like to inform you of some of the resources available to help you navigate the treacherous waters of Intellectual Property law and Higher Education.

The Committee is charged with informing the University community of their rights and responsibilities under copyright law. The committee maintains a website (<http://www.uvu.edu/copyright/>) with basic summaries of the law, our contact information, and helpful information sites around the web. The members of the committee are always available to answer any questions you have. They are:

Also included in this folder are two pamphlets. The first, Know Your Copy Rights, was produced by the Association of Research Libraries and provides a brief summary of what faculty may and may not do in the process of teaching. The second, Author Rights, from the Scholarly Publishing & Academic Resources Coalition, describes the rights you have as an academic author.

I look forward to working with you in the future,

Jacques d'Emal
