Message from Chief Jeff Long

The Annual Security Report is a key component of Utah Valley University's ("UVU") commitment to ensuring a safe and secure campus environment. We appreciate your dedication to staying informed and encourage you to share this important information with other members of the UVU Community. Thank you for your attention and cooperation in promoting campus safety.

This report serves as a valuable resource for the UVU community and others, detailing current UVU polices, programs, resources, and services dedicated to your safety. It also includes crime statistics reported to the Utah Valley University Police Department (UVUPD). These statistics cover incidents within areas defined by federal law, including on-campus locations, certain off-campus buildings, UVU-owned properties, and public areas adjacent to or accessible from the campus.

UVUPD is committed to campus safety, and we hope everyone on campus will take an active role in crime prevention. Persons and property will remain safer when a responsible, caring population reports suspicious and unlawful behavior to the police. Crimes committed against members of our campus community are taken seriously and will be investigated fully. UVUPD also works closely with other law enforcement agencies to reduce crime and provide a safe campus environment.

This information is being provided in accordance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (Clery Act), related federal safety laws, and UVU Policy 710 Clery Act Compliance. For further information or to obtain copies of this report, please contact UVUPD.

UVU Interim Chief of Police

Preparation of the Annual Security Report

The Annual Security Report is prepared with information provided by UVUPD, the Office of the Dean of Students, the Office of Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action, the Center for Student Wellness, Emergency Management & Safety, Ethics Point, Campus Security Authorities, and numerous law enforcement agencies that provide services to Utah Valley University-controlled properties within their jurisdictions. This report covers UVU's main Orem campus, Lehi Campus, Canyon Park Campus (Orem), Wasatch Campus (Heber City), Provo Campus, West Campus (Orem), and Capitol Reef Field Station in Capitol Reef National Park. It is prepared consistent with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Statistic Act ("Clery Act"), related federal safety laws, and UVU Policy 710 Clery Act: Campus Safety and Security.

Collecting Crime Reports and Statistics Procedures

The Clery Act requires universities to disclose statistics for reported Clery Act defined crimes ("Clery crimes" based on the following criteria:

(1) where the Clery crimes occurred (must have occurred):

(a) on campus.

(b) on public property immediately adjacent to campus; or

(c) in or on non-campus buildings or property owned or controlled by the university.

(2) who the crimes were reported to.

(3) the types of crimes that were reported; and

(4) the year in which the crimes were reported.

UVUPD encourages members of the University community to use this report as a guide for safe practices on and off campus. This Annual Security Report may or may not reflect the actual number of crimes committed on campus as some victims elect not to report crime; however, it accurately represents the number of crimes reported to UVUPD, Campus Security Authorities (CSAs), local law enforcement, and other jurisdictions where the University owns or controls buildings or property.

UVUPD annually requests crime statistics from local law enforcement agencies for buildings and property it owns or controls; however, UVUPD has no access to information to verify the accuracy of statistics provided or not provided by outside law enforcement agencies.

All UVU students and employees receive an email that describes this report and provides the web address where the report may be found.

Each year, UVU also submits crime statistics for Clery crimes by type, location, and year to the U.S. Department of Education.

Utah Valley University Police Department

Mission Statement

The safety and well-being of students, faculty, and staff are a high priority at Utah Valley University.

Although the UVU campus is a relatively safe place, we are not immune to those problems that beset all urban citizens, including problems related to public safety and law enforcement.

The Utah Valley University Police Department (UVUPD), a police force fully accredited by the State of Utah, is charged with protecting the safety and property on the UVU campus. The full support and cooperation of the entire University community is required to allow for the pursuit of knowledge in a safe and secure environment.

UVUPD Services

UVU provides several important services to a diverse University community consisting of more than 41,000 students and supporting faculty and staff by providing 24-hour police patrol and security protection for the benefit of all University employees, students, and visitors, as well as properties at the Orem campus. UVUPD officers have the same full police powers and responsibilities as officers in other Utah law enforcement agencies.

All UVUPD officers are certified and trained. Each year they receive a minimum of 40 hours of in-service and specialized training in crime prevention and awareness, first aid, firearms, defensive tactics, legal updates, evidence gathering, traffic control and traffic accident investigation, follow-up on criminal and civil investigations, etc.

UVUPD: Jurisdiction and Authority

UVUPD officers are responsible for providing a full range of public safety services to the UVU community, including the handling of crime reports, investigations, traffic accidents, enforcement of laws regulating underage drinking, the use of controlled substances, weapons violations, and enforcement of all applicable state, county and local laws, and all other incidents such as medical and fire emergencies that require police assistance. UVUPD officers prepare and submit reports of incidents brought to their attention. As a courtesy, they share information on arrests and serious crimes with any law enforcement agency having a legitimate need to know.

The legal authority of UVUPD and its officers is granted under Section 53B-3-105 of the Utah Code:

1. Members of the police or security department of any college or university are appointed by the board.
2. Upon appointment, they are peace officers and have all the powers possessed by policemen in cities and by sheriffs, including the power to make arrests on view or on warrant of violation of state statutes and city or county ordinances.
3. Members of the police or security department of any college or university also have the power to enforce all rules and regulations promulgated by the board as related to the institution.

UVUPD: The Hub of Campus Safety

UVUPD encourages the prompt and accurate reporting of crimes by victims, witnesses, or any other persons having knowledge that a crime has been committed on our campus.

UVUPD Dispatch, which is in Gunther Trades Room 331, is staffed 24 hours a day, seven days a week, 365 days a year, and can be reached by calling (801) 863-5555 or, in an emergency, by calling 911.

Emergency telephones are in each elevator, the outside entrance to the Gunther Trades Building exiting to Parking Lot 27, and in the Student Center substation, located in Room SC 108 H, which, when activated, will automatically put you in direct contact with an offsite dispatcher contracted with the elevator company who will in turn relay the information to UVUPD.

Several patrol methods are used to secure and patrol UVU properties, including uniformed vehicle patrol, foot patrol, and plain clothes motorized and foot patrol.

The serial numbers of all vehicles, office equipment, and personal property stolen from UVU campuses are reported nationwide through the National Crime Information Center (NCIC).

Daily Crime Log

UVUPD maintains a daily crime log that records all criminal incidents and alleged criminal incidents to students, faculty, staff, and visitors. Crimes reported to UVUPD are added to the daily crime log. The daily crime log is in UVUPD's office.

Unfounded Crimes

UVU is required to include in the web-based survey and the annual security report statistics for the total number of Clery crime reports that were "unfounded" and subsequently withheld from crime statistics during each of the three most recent calendar years.

For Clery Act purposes, the standard for unfounding a reported crime is very high. A crime may only be classified as unfounded after a full investigation by sworn or commissioned law enforcement personnel. A crime is considered unfounded for Clery Act purposes only if sworn or commissioned law enforcement personnel make a formal determination that the report is false or baseless.

Crime reports may be determined to be baseless only if the allegations reported did not meet the elements of the offense or were improperly classified as crimes in the first place. A reported crime may not be designated 'unfounded' if no investigation was conducted or the investigation was not completed. Nor may a crime report be designated unfounded merely because the investigation failed to prove that the crime occurred — this would be an inconclusive or unsubstantiated investigation. As such, for Clery Act purposes, the determination to unfound a crime may be made only when the totality of available information specifically indicates that the report was false or baseless.

To count a crime as “unfounded” for Clery Act purposes, the reported crime must:

Have been a Clery Act crime; was reported to have occurred on Clery Act geography; thoroughly investigated by sworn or commissioned law enforcement personnel; and found through investigation to be false or baseless, meaning that the crime did not occur and was never attempted.

Collaboration and Assistance from Other Agencies

UVUPD maintains verbal mutual aid agreements with other local, state, and federal law enforcement agencies as per Utah Code Section 76-8-707. These relationships allow UVUPD to coordinate investigative efforts, share information, and call upon these other agencies in the event an incident arises in which outside resources are required. UVUPD works in collaboration with local law enforcement for crimes reported during UVU programs, services, and activities that occur on non-campus locations. UVUPD also maintains access to multiple databases containing local and nationwide criminal history data, police reports, vehicle and driver information, and other state and federal law enforcement information.

CRIME REPORTING PROCEDURES - GENERAL INFORMATION

Prompt reporting of crime or suspicious activity is key to ensuring a safe campus. We encourage all members of the UVU community at all campuses to promptly report crime as soon as possible to the UVUPD via the UVUPD website (uvu.edu/police) or by phone (801-863-5555). Calling campus police to secure the scene and ensure safety does not require a victim to press criminal charges.

Off-Campus Crime

If non-UVU law enforcement units notify UVUPD about an off-campus crime, students may be referred to the Director of the Office of Student Rights & Accountability (SR&A) and employees may be referred to Employment Services in Human Resources, or to the Office for Equal Opportunity/Title IX if sexual misconduct is involved, to determine whether UVU policy has been violated.

Confidential Police Reporting Procedures, Anonymity/Referrals to Other UVU Departments

Individuals who witness or are the victim of crime — but who wish to remain anonymous — may report the crime to UVUPD on a confidential basis. To do so, individuals should specifically request that they remain anonymous. The report ensures that the occurrence of the crime will be included in the University's Annual Security Report; assists UVUPD in determining if there is a pattern of crime regarding a particular location, method, or suspect; and enables UVUPD, in appropriate circumstances, to alert the campus community to potential dangers. Filing an anonymous report may, however, limit the ability of UVUPD to provide specific assistance or to investigate or solve a crime.

If a victim of sexual misconduct requests anonymity from UVUPD, UVUPD will refer the victim to the Title IX Coordinator or designee, who will determine whether the identity of the victim will remain confidential except in instances when the victim is a minor or vulnerable adult, or there is imminent danger to the victim or others in the community. In such cases, identification to law enforcement is required for safety and protection.

Utah state law requires any person who has “reason to believe that a child has been subjected to abuse or neglect, or [observes] a child being subjected to conditions or circumstances which would reasonably result in abuse or neglect” to immediately report the incident to the nearest peace officer, law enforcement agency, or applicable office of the state’s Division of Child and Family Services. Child abuse includes but is not limited to any of the following:

- 1) The endangerment of a child’s physical or mental health resulting from a non-accidental harm of a child.
- 2) Threatened harm of a child.
- 3) Sexual exploitation; or
- 4) Sexual abuse.

Members of the University community who become aware of a danger to minors shall notify UVUPD, which will make the appropriate notifications to UVU’s Risk Manager and the appropriate home agency.

In instances when UVU is notified of a request for information, personally identifiable information contained in university records will remain protected and will not be accessible to the public. UVU Policy 162 Title IX Sexual Harassment and Policy 704 Minors on Campus and at University-Sponsored Events provide specific policy and procedure regarding minors. Individuals will be notified that approved requests for anonymity may limit the ability of UVU to pursue disciplinary or other appropriate university action or initiate no contact directives.

Police Interaction with Individuals Who Have Mental Health Concerns

Recognizing that addressing mental health issues properly is an important component of campus safety, UVUPD officers have received extensive training in working with those who have mental health issues. UVUPD officers work closely with Accessibility Services, Human Resources Accommodations, Wasatch Mental Health, and UVU Student Health Services. Those who disclose mental health issues are treated with respect and, when appropriate, referred to UVU resources such as Accessibility Services, Student Health Services, and/or the Title IX Coordinator.

Persons needing accommodations when working with UVUPD may request accommodations through:

Students & Visitors: Office of Accessibility Services

Referrals by UVUPD for Discipline under UVU Policies

Incidents involving student or employee sexual misconduct that are investigated by UVUPD are reported to the UVU Title IX Office for any outreach, supportive measures, or institutional investigation required by law.

Incidents involving all other student misconduct that are investigated by UVUPD are referred to the Director of the Office of Student Rights & Accountability for education and/or investigation.

Examples of such referrals include:

Consumption of alcohol by individuals on campus and/or under the age of 21.

Illegal drug use (illegal drugs, illegal use of prescription or over-the-counter-medication); and violations involving weapons.

Students are subject to discipline through the Office of Student Rights & Accountability under UVU Policy 541, which can be viewed online via the UVU Policy Office website.

Incidents involving employee misconduct, other than sexual misconduct, may be referred to Human Resources for possible investigation and disciplinary action. Incidents involving faculty misconduct, other than sexual misconduct, may be referred to Academic Affairs for possible investigation and disciplinary action.

ALCOHOL AND DRUGS ON CAMPUS

Policies & Standards of Conduct

UVU Policy 155 Alcohol and Drug-free Workplace expressly prohibits employees from the possession, consumption, use, distribution and sale of alcoholic beverages, unlawful drugs, and other illegal substances on UVU premises or at any activity sponsored by UVU.

UVU Policy 541 Student Code of Conduct prohibits students from using, possessing, distributing, manufacturing, or being under the influence of alcohol, illegal drugs or other controlled substances or drug paraphernalia, including abuse, misuse, sale, or distribution of prescription or over-the-counter medications.

Applicable Sanctions Under Law and UVU Policy

Individuals violating any municipal ordinances, state criminal laws, or federal laws relating to alcohol or drug use (including tobacco use) also are subject to substantial fines and criminal sanctions, including imprisonment.

Students, faculty, or staff who violate the drug and alcohol policies listed above will face disciplinary action up to expulsion or dismissal from employment and potential referral for prosecution. Disciplinary sanctions may include the completion of an appropriate rehabilitation program.

More details about legal and institutional sanctions are available on UVU's Drug & Alcohol Policy website and in the applicable disciplinary policy for students (UVU Policy 541), faculty (UVU Policy 648), and staff (UVU Policy 371).

Health Risks

Numerous health risks are associated with the use of illicit drugs and abuse of alcohol. A list of health impacts is provided on UVU's Drug & Alcohol Prevention website listed below.

Drug & Alcohol Recovery Resources

Drug or alcohol counseling, treatment, or rehabilitation or re-entry programs available to employees and students—including help quitting smoking—are described on UVU's Drug & Alcohol Policy website at

<https://www.uvu.edu/wellness/drug-and-alcohol-prevention/index.html>

EMERGENCY PLANNING AND PREPAREDNESS

The UVU Emergency Operations Plan (EOP) identifies natural and human-made hazards that may impact the university community. The plan is an all-hazards approach that gives basic administrative guidance in coordinating and managing campus emergencies or disaster situations. The guidelines serve as the basis for effective response to hazards that threaten the campus. The EOP will also facilitate planning, response, and recovery activities. The EOP provides pertinent information for coordination with city, county, state, and federal government agencies during situations that necessitate activation of the EOP. The plan outlines a strategy to manage hazards and coordinate critical resources in response to emergencies.

Campus Alerts

Utah Valley University maintains a campus alert system capable of providing students and employees information about emergencies on campus such as criminal activity posing a threat, severe weather alerts, building closures, severe power outages, gas leaks, or other emergencies. The campus alert system comprises several components:

1. Emergency Text Messaging – Employees and students are signed up by default to receive emergency messages via text messaging.
2. Web Alerts – Emergency messages are also posted on the UVU home webpage. There is a designated website used for all types of emergency notification www.uvu.info. This is used for short-term messaging after an incident. If the incident becomes long-term (pandemic) a hazard-specific webpage containing continuously updated hazard data and safety resources will be created. A link will be prominently displayed on the main UVU webpage.

3. Email Alerts – Messages are posted via student and employee email systems.
4. UVU App – There is a new student app, that contains emergency response information however at this time there is no ability to send a push notification. The emergency push notification for students and employees is under construction.
5. Alert Notification System – A system that pushes out messages on computers in classrooms and monitors in the hallways.
6. Fire Alarm Systems – All occupants of a building are required to evacuate upon the activation of a fire alarm system. Through the fire alarm, flashing lights, voice alerts as well as sirens can be activated and can be as specific as a particular building.
7. Media Outlets – UVU maintains communications with local media outlets to assist with mass notification of significant events that occur on UVU properties.

The UVU Director of Emergency Management and Safety and designated persons will test these procedures at least annually and document the information, including a description of the drill or exercise. This documentation will be kept with the Emergency Management and Safety Department.

UVU community members are encouraged to notify UVUPD of any situation or incident on campus that may pose an immediate or ongoing threat to the health and safety of students, faculty, and staff on campus. UVUPD has a responsibility to respond to such incidents to determine if the situation does in fact pose a threat to the community. If so, the Clery Act requires that the institution notify in a timely manner the campus community or the appropriate segments of the community that may be affected by the situation.

In the event of an incident that would require the larger community to be notified, information will be sent through the UVU website (www.uvu.info), Orem City Police dispatch, and/or local media if appropriate. The Division of Marketing and Communications will coordinate dissemination of information according to the Emergency Communications Plan.

Timely Warnings: Notice of a Criminal Threat

UVU will issue timely warnings of any criminal activity that represents a serious or ongoing threat to the safety of the campus community. The decision to issue a timely warning to the campus community will be made on a case-by-case basis. UVUPD can initiate a timely warning without prior approval of the President or vice presidents. UVUPD will make every effort to notify the President or designee as soon as possible. If the emergency requires campus to be closed and/or evacuated, the President, Provost, or designee will make the decision to do so. If there is an immediate threat to the health or safety of students or employees on campus or in a specific location, law enforcement will evacuate the immediate area as needed.

During an emergency, pre-scripted and pre-approved messages will be used whenever possible. Depending on the nature of the emergency and the response needed by police personnel or others, the following persons will initiate a timely warning message:

UVU Chief of Police, Sergeant, or Officer in Charge (OIC)
UVU Emergency Management and Safety Director
UVU Associate V.P. of Digital Transformation
UVU Associate V.P. of Strategic Communications Management
UVU General Counsel

Emergency Notification: Notice of a Disaster

UVU will issue an emergency notification to relevant members of the campus community immediately upon confirmation of a significant emergency or dangerous situation (other than criminal activity prompting a “timely warning”) occurring on the campus that involves an immediate threat to the health or safety of students or employees. When an emergency notification must be issued, the campus-wide Emergency Communications Plan will be implemented.

Emergency Communications Plan

- In a campus emergency, UVUPD should be notified immediately at (801) 863-5555. UVUPD will then notify VP of Administration & Strategic Relations.
- During an emergency, pre-scripted messages have been written and approved and will be used whenever possible. Depending on the emergency and the response needed by police personnel or others, the following persons or organizations will initiate a message.

- The following Triage Team may rendezvous in person or virtually:
 - President
 - Provost
 - VP of Administration & Strategic Relations
 - General Counsel
 - Chief of Police
 - Director of Emergency Management/Safety
 - Dean of Students
 - Associate VP of Facilities
 - Associate VP of Information and Technology
 - Associate VP of Strategic Communications Management
- If an Emergency Operations Center (EOC) is activated, this group will take the lead obtaining up-to-date information about what is happening and coordinate and manage the response. The EOC will also contact and inform UCAS, the LDS Institute, the Health Professions/West Campus, any satellite campuses, or other appropriate entities as needed.
- The President will contact and inform the Commissioner of Higher Education and Chair of the Board of Trustees.
- If the President is unreachable and the situation calls for it, decision making power should follow this order as such individuals are present: 1) Provost, 2) VP of Administration & Strategic Relations, 3) VP of Student Affairs, 4) VP Marketing and Communications 5) VP of Institutional Advancement, 6) VP of Finance and Auxiliary Services, 7) VP of People and Culture, 8) VP of Digital Transformation.
- To the extent possible, the above group will be updated on the situation by the Incident Commander, who would be at the scene of the emergency. If a scene exists and it is police-oriented, then police would take Incident Command responsibilities. If there is no scene, others may be involved (in a power outage, for example the AVP of Facilities would serve as Incident Commander). The Triage Team, or the EOC, if activated, will make decisions regarding communications plan. Communication, both internal and external, will then proceed simultaneously as follows:
 - External/ media
 - Campus email

- Web alerts
- Text messaging
- Digital signage
- Telephone alert
- Communication updates via these channels will continue throughout the duration of the emergency. Most communication will indicate the time of the next update.
- Official university communication with the media will be handled by the University Public Information Officer (PIO), who is currently the Associate Vice President of Strategic Relations. Requests by the media to answer questions or be interviewed concerning the emergency should be coordinated with the PIO.

Emergency Evacuation Procedures

In the event of a fire or other incident that would require evacuation, the university expects that all campus community members will evacuate by the nearest exit, closing doors and activating the fire alarm system (if one is present) as they leave. Once safely outside a building, it is appropriate to contact 911 or UVUPD. Students and/or staff should check in at the assembly area identified in the building emergency plan.

At no time should closing doors or activating the alarm delay the exit from the building. In the event of another significant emergency, the university's evacuation procedures will be influenced by the nature and magnitude and immediacy of the emergency. Evacuations may be for a single building or group of buildings, a campus neighborhood, or the entire campus. Evacuation information will be disseminated using any combination of alerts that may be useful given the incident's nature. Information may include known hazards, general directions to travel or avoid, precautions that may be taken, and where to assemble, if appropriate. If a general evacuation is ordered, all campus members are advised to follow any directions given. For example, directions may be to report in at the Emergency Assembly Point (EAP) designated for that building. Alternatively, directions may be given to leave campus on foot to facilitate the quickest, safest movement of the campus population, and provide the best access for emergency responders.

Testing the Emergency Plan

UVU conducts several exercises each year, such as tabletop, functional, and full-scale exercises. This includes testing the emergency notification systems on campus. These exercises and tests are designed to assess and evaluate the EOP and capabilities of the institution. For example, UVU conducts exercises involving the key decision-makers in an emergency. These exercises utilize the components of the EOC, Emergency Communications Plan, and interactions with outside agencies. UVU also conducts annual fire drills in accordance with the International Fire Code.

The President, Cabinet, key positions on campus, and UVUPD officers have received training in the incident command system (ICS). When a serious incident occurs that causes an immediate threat to the campus, the first responders to the scene are usually UVUPD, local police, and local fire departments, and they typically respond and work together to manage the incident at the scene. Depending on the nature of the incident, other UVU departments and other local, state, or federal agencies could also be involved in responding to the incident.

Evacuation exercises prepare building occupants for an organized evacuation in case of a fire or other emergency. At UVU, evacuation exercises are used to educate and train occupants on fire and safety issues specific to their building. During the evacuation exercise, occupants practice evacuation procedures and familiarize themselves with the location of exits and the sound of the fire alarm. In addition to educating the occupants of each building about the evacuation procedures during the exercises, the process also provides the University an opportunity to test the operation of the fire alarm system components.

An evacuation exercise/fire drill is coordinated by the Fire Marshal and Emergency Manager each year for all UVU facilities. These took place during fall of 2024. Students, faculty, and staff learn the locations of the emergency exits in the buildings and are provided guidance about the direction they should travel when exiting each facility for a short-term building evacuation.

Evacuation exercises are monitored by UVU Emergency Manager, UVUPD, the Campus Fire Marshal, and the building marshal/floor captains assigned to each building to evaluate egress and behavioral patterns.

Recommendations for improvements are also submitted to the appropriate department/offices for consideration. The Office of the Fire Marshal keeps a record of Fire Drills. The Office of Emergency Management keeps a record of its emergency response and other disaster exercises.

During 2024, UVU participated in an Earthquake Exercise. The purpose was to activate the Emergency Operations Center (EOC) and Policy Group and work through the immediate aftermath of an Earthquake. Communications to key stakeholders were initiated along with messages written for staff, faculty, and students, although sending out messages was simulated. Working with other off-campus entities was also practiced. This exercise was in addition to the "Great Shakeout Exercise" UVU participates in annually.

During 2024, UVU participated in "The Great Shakeout" statewide earthquake exercise. Communications were tested to include radios, HAM radios, satellite telephones, text messaging, monitors, uvu.info (website) and communications with city and county emergency operations centers (EOCs). All students, faculty, and staff participated in taking protective measures during the ground shaking (drop, cover, and hold on).

Simultaneous with "The Great Shakeout" exercise, a post-earthquake building assessment was conducted by facilities personnel. This included dividing the campus into four areas and having teams of two conduct a quick assessment of all buildings across campus to include off-campus buildings. After the assessment a determination was made about whether the building was safe to enter. A placard was then posted indicating whether people could enter the building. Assessment criteria were created using ATC-20 guidelines and other documents.

Secure-In-Place Procedures

Secure in place may be necessary during situations such as the presence of a hostile or armed intruder inside a building. Secure in place requires locking doors, windows, and barricading oneself to block entry to a campus facility, a classroom, or to an office suite. If you receive a message to secure in place, do the following:

- Lock or barricade classroom and office doors.
- Close windows and window treatments.

- Turn off lights and silence cell phones.
- Instruct everyone to remain silent and not to go into hallways.
- Crouch down in areas out of sight from doors and windows to conceal yourself as much as possible.
- If you are in a hallway during the emergency, seek shelter immediately in the nearest classroom or office suite.
- If you are in outdoor areas, you should immediately take cover.
- Wait for further instruction.

Shelter-in-Place Procedures

You may be advised to “shelter in place” rather than evacuate your building during emergency situations such as large hazardous material releases or severe weather emergencies. The recommendation to shelter in place will be conveyed through several communications methods (text, email, overhead, push notification, Alertus®, etc.).

If you receive a message for a shelter in place, do the following:

- Stay inside the building or go indoors as quickly as possible if you are working outside.
- Close windows to provide tighter seal against chemical vapors, smoke and/or fumes.
- Locate supplies you may need such as food, water, radio, or flashlights if you have them.
- In the event of a hazardous material release, turn off fans, air conditioning or ventilation systems, if you have control of these systems.
- Wait for further instructions.

Note: These are general guidelines that will help you remember what to do in the event of a secure in place or shelter in place event on campus, but each situation may present unique challenges. The most important aspect in both a secure in place and a shelter in place event is to put effective barriers between you and the threat.

Campus Security Access and Buildings

The University Facilities Planning/Plant Operations Department maintains college buildings and grounds with a concern for safety and security. These facilities are inspected regularly; plant staff attempt to make prompt repairs and respond 24 hours a day to reports of potential safety and security hazards, such as broken windows and locks. UVUPD assists maintenance personnel by reporting potential safety and security hazards. Students and employees are encouraged to call Facilities Planning and Maintenance at (801) 863-8130 to report any hazard. Representatives from UVUPD, Environmental Health and Safety Department, and Facilities Planning routinely inspect the entire campus to review lighting and environmental safety concerns.

Most UVU facilities are open to the public during the day and evening hours when classes are in session. During times that UVU is officially closed, UVU buildings are generally locked and only employees, faculty, and authorized students with proper ID are admitted. The UVU Emergency Manager and Environmental Health and Safety Manager hold a monthly safety meeting to review hazards and risks across campus that can include anything from a trip hazard, poor lighting in a parking lot, exit signs, to roadway issues. An annual safety walkthrough for each building is completed with a State Risk Management representative to identify safety or security issues.

Firearms and Weapons Training and Guns on Campus

Concealed Weapons: UVU complies with state law regarding weapons on campus. Utah state law states that a person may not possess a dangerous weapon, firearm, or sawed-off shot gun on school premises (Utah Code Section 76-10-505.5) except under certain conditions. One of these exceptions indicates that this criminal statute is not applicable if the person is authorized to possess a concealed firearm as provided by the concealed weapon law. UVU abides by this law and accordingly allows concealed firearm permit holders to possess their concealed firearm on campus. Utah statute defines a concealed dangerous weapon as being covered, hidden, or secreted in a manner that the public would not be aware of its presence (Utah Code 76-10-501). As an institution, UVU abides by state law and allows individuals with a current, valid concealed weapons permit to legally carry a concealed firearm under the parameters outlined by Utah state law.

Active Shooter Training

UVUPD officers regularly participate in active shooter response training incorporating the latest trends, techniques, and procedures. UVU's Emergency Management Department has training available upon request for active shooter situations. This training entails educating employees on how to recognize problems in people, escalating behaviors and what to do about these behaviors, and what to do when faced with the perpetrator using the philosophy of "run, hide, fight," and explains the basics of the Behavior Assessment Team (BAT). UVU Emergency Management has held 15 presentations for employees and students so far in 2023.

Students, staff, and faculty can access trainings and resources, including active shooter response and prevention resources at <https://www.uvu.edu/emergencymanagement/index.html>

(Utah Code § 76-9-702.1.)

In addition to the foregoing offenses, Utah law includes additional sexual offenses committed against minors. For the law on these offenses see Utah

Code §§ 76-5-401, 76-5-401.1, 76-5-401.2, 76-5-402.1, 76-5-402.3, 76-5-403.1 and 76-5-404.1. and 76-5-404.3.

- (k) the victim is 14 years of age or older, but younger than 18 years of age, and the actor is more than three years older than the victim and entices or coerces the victim to submit or participate, under circumstances not amounting to the force or threat required under Subsection (b) or (d) above; or
 - (l) the actor is a health professional or religious counselor, the act is committed under the guise of providing professional diagnosis, counseling, or treatment, and at the time of the act the victim reasonably believed that the act was for medically or professionally appropriate diagnosis, counseling, or treatment to the extent that resistance by the victim could not reasonably be expected to have been manifested.
- (3) Consent to any sexual act or prior consensual activity between or with any party does not necessarily constitute consent to any other sexual act. Consent may be initially given but may be withdrawn through words or conduct at any time prior to or during sexual activity.

Note that for Clery purposes, statistics include only rape, fondling, incest, and statutory rape.

For the purposes of this definition, course of conduct means two or more acts that the stalker directly, indirectly, or through third parties, by any action, method, device, or means follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about, a person, or interferes with a person's property. Any incident meeting this definition is considered a crime for purposes of Clery Act reporting, though criminal prosecution of crimes must meet the definition of Utah law.

2) Utah Law: an actor commits stalking if the actor intentionally or knowingly engages in a course of conduct directed at a specific individual and knows or is reckless as to whether that the course of conduct would cause a reasonable person to (i) fear for the individual's own safety or the safety of a third individual, or (ii) to suffer other emotional distress. An actor also commits stalking if the actor intentionally or knowingly violates a stalking injunction issued pursuant to Utah Code § 78B-7-7, or a permanent criminal stalking injunction issued pursuant to Utah Code § 78B-7-9. (Utah Code § 76-5-106.5).

A "course of conduct" means two or more acts directed at or toward a specific individual, including:

- (A) acts in which the actor follows, monitors, observes, photographs, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about an individual, or interferes with an individual's property:
 - (I) directly, indirectly, or through any third party; and

Weapon Law Violations: The violation of laws or ordinances prohibiting the manufacture, sale, purchase, transportation, possession, concealment, or use of firearms, cutting instruments, explosives, incendiary devices, or other deadly weapons. This classification encompasses weapons offenses that are regulatory in nature.

Note: The Clery crimes above are considered crimes for purposes of Clery reporting but may not actually be crimes punishable under state or federal laws.

Clery Geography

Any location on which the University is required to report crime statistics for purposes of the Clery Act, including:

- 1) Under the Clery Act, the on-campus category includes the following:

2) Non-campus building or property:

The term "non-campus" means: Any building or property owned or controlled by a student organization that is officially recognized by the institution; or

Any building or property owned or controlled by an institution that is used in direct support of, or in relation to, the institution's educational purposes, is frequently used by students, and is not within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area of the institution.

Utah Campus Housing-Specific Reporting

Utah state law (Utah Code § 53B-28-403) requires crime reporting specific to “institution non-campus housing facilities,” “student organization non-campus housing facilities,” and “on-campus housing facilities.” These definitions and geographic descriptions are unique to state law and not consistent with Clery Act geography definitions in federal law. This data is, therefore, reported separately and may duplicate the data summarized above, which also covers student housing.

UVU has no “student organization noncampus housing facilities” or “on-campus housing facilities” as described by state law. UVU reports the following 2021-23 crime data for “institution noncampus housing facilities”:

CRIME PREVENTION: STAYING SAFE ON CAMPUS

Utah Valley University seeks to provide a safe and healthy experience for students, employees, and others who make use of UVU facilities. While the University makes efforts to keep the campuses safe, individuals should take steps to ensure their own and others' safety. Many crimes are committed in response to an opportunity. Eliminating opportunity is the best prevention.

Safety Tips

1. Develop a relationship with friends and neighbors that will encourage checking on one another often.
2. Report suspicious persons or activities to UVUPD or your local police immediately.
3. Do not leave valuables unattended for even a short time. Most thefts occur moments after valuables are left unattended on campus.
4. Try to park in an area that will be well-lit and heavily traveled when you return.
5. Lock your car doors and roll up the windows completely, even if you're only running a quick errand.
6. Do not leave valuables in plain view in a vehicle. Most auto burglaries are "smash and grabs."
7. Be always aware of your surroundings. Know where you are and where you are going.
8. Avoid walking alone and let people know where you are going.
9. Avoid working or studying alone at night.
10. If you are being victimized, make noise, and bring as much attention to yourself as possible.
11. Keep lists of all valuables, including serial numbers (i.e., laptops, cameras, and iPods).

12. To avoid unwanted electronic communication, do not give out your name, address, or contact information. If you receive unwanted electronic communication, do not delete it, as it could be important evidence. Note the phone number displayed on your caller ID or save the text or e-mail message and bring it to UVUPD or University officials for assistance.
13. Keep ATM, debit, and credit cards in a safe place.
14. Never reveal a PIN number to anyone.
15. Never loan your ATM card to anyone, no matter who they are.
16. When possible, use ATM cards in daylight, or at night, indoor or in a well-lit area.
17. Follow all rules of the road when driving a car, riding a bike, or using other forms of personal transportation such as rollerblades, skateboards, or scooters.
18. If you choose to drink, drink legally and responsibly. Remember that your ability to respond is diminished by over-consumption of alcohol.
19. Put UVUPD and your local law enforcement agency in your cell phone, in case of emergency, along with a name and telephone number of a loved one, to enable emergency services personnel to contact your family in the event of an emergency.

Crime Awareness / Crime Prevention

Another important function of UVUPD is making our campus users aware of how to prevent becoming a victim of crime. If requested, one of our UVUPD officers will talk to groups regarding crime awareness/crime prevention.

UVUPD also offers a police escort service on campus upon request. Contact (801) 863-5555 if you feel unsafe and need a security escort.

In addition, several departments on campus coordinate crime prevention efforts, including UVU's Dean of Students, the Equal Opportunity/Title IX Office, Risk Management, and Human Resources. Presentations typically include:

- UVU policy and conduct expectations
- Types of misconduct
- Personal safety
- Consent
- Effect of alcohol and drugs
- Bystander intervention

These trainings can be provided to any department or student association on request.

Campus Safety Awareness Programs

The Chief of Police, the University Fire Marshal, the University Emergency Management and Safety Manager, the University Risk Manager, and other staff members are involved in a University Safety Committee, which makes periodic security and safety surveys of campus facilities. Suggestions are made for improving security and safety in each area of instruction to improve the safety and security of students, employees, and faculty.

UVUPD also provides sexual assault awareness training to interested members for the UVU campus community.

Women's Safety Awareness and Self-Defense Training

UVU offers a Safety Awareness and Self-Defense course through the Department of Public Health. The course investigates self-awareness, self-empowerment, and self-defense. It emphasizes environmental awareness and strategies in avoiding dangerous situations. It further teaches self-defense techniques that can be used in a crisis situation. RAD (rape aggression defense) Training, a six-week self-defense series, is also offered periodically.

Student Housing

UVU contractually reserves space for UVU students in certain third-party owned housing facilities. The University does not exercise operational control of the housing. Some of these housing facilities are located within 1 mile of the main Orem campus, and therefore may be considered "on-campus" student housing for purposes of the Clery Act. The University cannot guarantee or represent that non-UVU owners and managers of student housing comply with health and safety standards established by the county and the state. Students bear the responsibility to choose safe and secure living accommodations. Local law enforcement agencies are responsible for policing off-campus student residences, including the apartments listed below. UVUPD maintains a strong working relationship with local law enforcement agencies and may assist as needed. All crime should be promptly reported. UVU residential community leaders (RCL's) currently reside at the following complexes. RCLs are designated Campus Security Authorities and are trained to receive and report possible criminal incidents:

Orem ("on campus")
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Promenade Place• Wolverine Crossing• Village on the Parkway• Summerwood• The Green• The Axis

While these locations are not physically located on campus, crime that occurs must be reported to the RCL, who will report to UVUPD for Clery compliance purposes. Crime that occurs in the above apartments or surrounding common areas must be reported, for a determination of whether it should be classified on the Clery report as "on-campus" crime. Sexual misconduct concerns should also be reported to the Title IX Coordinator. Please remember that reporting sexual misconduct or a crime for Clery purposes, does not obligate an individual to press criminal charges or to pursue a formal complaint under UVU policies.

Travel: Short Stay and Repeated Use

Short-stay "away" trips: University-sponsored student short-stay "away" trips (of more than one night), when a written agreement exists, must report crime for all locations used by students during the trip, controlled by the institution during the trip and used to support educational purposes. These crimes will appear as "non-campus" property on the Clery report. Travel leaders must report all crime to UVUPD within 24 hours of occurrence.

Repeated use of a location for school-sponsored trips:

University-sponsored student overnight trips every year, where the students stay in the same hotel each year, must include portions of the hotel in its non-campus Clery geography.

Travel: International Study Abroad Programs

Online safety and security training is required and provided to all students and employees traveling abroad through the study program. Study/Travel sponsors/leaders are considered CSAs, who will report all crime during travel to UVUPD for a determination of Clery reporting obligations. Host family situations do not normally qualify as non-campus locations unless there is a written agreement with the family that gives the University some significant control over space in the family home.

Crimes occurring in rented or leased space at a hotel or other housing facility may be reportable as “non-campus” crime. Travel leaders must report to local authorities and to UVUPD within 24 hours. Sexual misconduct concerns should also be reported to the Title IX Coordinator within 24 hours. Please remember that reporting a crime for Clery purposes or sexual misconduct does not obligate an individual to press criminal charges or a formal UVU complaint.

Additional safety information may be obtained from the U.S. Department of State website (www.state.gov). This includes travel tips, warnings, and other pertinent information.

Increasing Safety

The work of safety is never finished. As we strive for the best, it’s important to reflect on where we’ve been and where we’re going.

Looking Back. In the last 18 months UVU has initiated several new steps to make campus safer.

- UVU Thrive Campaign. In August of 2023 we introduced UVU Thrive, a comprehensive well-being website for UVU students. Students may visit uvu.edu/mentalhealth to find information regarding all aspects of well-being and to evaluate where they are and what they may need. Included are resources to help students with their mental health, well-being, safety, basic needs, and social connectedness while at UVU. This website was created and developed through the UVU Student Well-Being Committee.
- Threat Assessment. UVU’s interdisciplinary threat assessment team completed a formal training on the risk assessment rubric created by the National Association for Behavioral Intervention and Threat Assessment (NABITA). UVU’s threat assessment team meets weekly to evaluate safety-related reports and information.
- UVU Substance Use Prevention Coalition. In January 2023 UVU Wellness Programs formed a substance use prevention coalition. The coalition currently consists of members from UVU Wellness Programs, UVU Office of General Counsel; UVU Student Accessibility Services, UVU College of Humanities and Social Sciences, UVU Criminal Justice faculty, UVU Police, UVU Student Rights and Accountability/Ombuds Office, Utah County Health Department,

- UVU Department of Public Health faculty, Cirque Lodge Rehabilitation Center, and Pathways Recovery Center. The coalition meets monthly using the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration's (SAMHSA) Strategic Prevention Framework as a model for assessing the current substance use prevention and service needs on campus and the planning, implementation, and evaluation of prevention and recovery programs.
- Prescription Drug Disposal. Funding for a prescription drug disposal box was provided through an E-cigarette, Marijuana, and other Drug Prevention grant that UVU Wellness Programs received through the Utah County Health Department, and UVU Wellness Programs along with UVU Police plan to begin the implementation of prescription drug takeback programs on campus in the upcoming year.
 - The UVU Police Department engaged in numerous public educational events.
 - participated in a student event called 'Light Up the Night'. The event educated the campus community about resources for survivors of sexual assault; ways to enhance personal safety; and educational sources. This was a university partnership with neighboring cities police and victim advocates, county and state service providers, and non-profit organizations.
 - participated in Hispanic Heritage Month activities by presenting to students and staff on domestic violence issues, resources, and support.
 - hosted a meeting of Utah campus police chiefs. This included all public and private colleges and universities. UVU provided training, resources, and discussion surrounding campus safety and security. Representatives from the FBI Campus Liaison program, Utah Chiefs of Police organization, Utah Sheriff's organization, and the International Association of Chiefs of Police presented ideas and programs that can assist in campus safety.
 - presented to UVU students and employees on active shooter situations, de-escalation, and personal safety.
 - taught self-defense to the Women's Success Center students.

- conducted a safe-walk campaign on campus to help get the word out to students who might feel unsafe while walking on campus. Students were educated about the police walking escort service available to all. Posters were distributed around campus and tables were set up in high traffic areas where flyers were handed out to students.
- Chief Long spoke at a campus forum called Summer University where he talked about methods of keeping yourself safe and being a tough target in today's world. This class was offered to employees and students, and it was well attended.

Looking Ahead. In the next two years, UVU expects to go further with safety. The following items represent expectations—not limitations. We're constantly looking for ways to innovate.

- Collaboration. UVU will continue to collaborate with campus public safety peers, such as Utah campus police chiefs and student affairs leaders.
- Education. UVU will continue to participate in safety education events and campaigns, such as Hispanic Heritage events, Sexual Assault Awareness Month, and the "Light Up the Night". UVU will continue to give active shooter, de-escalation, and personal safety presentations.
- Wider Safety Net. UVUPD's Victim Advocate will convene regular meetings with victim's advocates embedded in neighboring law enforcement agencies. These meetings will provide a staging ground for early, multipoint interventions in cases affecting UVU students on campus.
- Training for Student Organizations. UVU will continue requiring its student organizations, as a condition of continued recognition, to provide annual training to their members and to certify delivery of the approved training curriculum.
- Title IX Policy Revisions. UVU expects the U.S. Department of Education to promulgate further significant changes to the federal rule implementing Title IX within the next two years. This will lead to corresponding changes to UVU's policies against sex discrimination and harassment.

MISSING STUDENT NOTIFICATION

UVU's policy and procedures regarding missing student notification can be found in section 4.4 of Policy 710 Clery Act Compliance. When a student has been missing for 24 hours, students, employees, and other individuals should make a report to the UVU Police Department (801-863-5555). Any person to whom a missing student report is made should immediately refer the matter to UVUPD. Students who reside in on-campus student housing facilities have the option of identifying a contact person or persons whom the University will notify within 24 hours of a determination that the student is missing, if the student has been determined missing by UVUPD. This contact information will be registered confidentially and will be accessible only to authorized campus officials. The information may not be disclosed outside the University except to law enforcement personnel in furtherance of a missing person investigation.

RESPONSE TO AND RESOURCES FOR VICTIMS OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT, VIOLENCE, ASSAULT, DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, DATING VIOLENCE AND STALKING

Title IX

Title IX of the Education Act of 1972 prohibits sex discrimination and requires gender equity in educational programs, services, and activities that receive federal funding. Consistent with Title IX, Utah Valley University prohibits sexual harassment, dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking.

Utah Valley University does not discriminate based on sex in its education programs or activities, as required by Title IX and 34 C.F.R. § 106.1. The requirement not to discriminate in education programs or activities extends to admission and employment. Inquiries about the application of Title IX and its regulations to Utah Valley University may be referred to the Title IX Coordinator, to the U.S. Department of Education Office for Civil Rights, or both.

Reporting Sexual Harassment

The University requires every employee who becomes aware of sexual harassment—including dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking—in university programs or activities to report such incidents to the Title IX Coordinator. Students are also encouraged to report such incidents.

Any person may report sex discrimination, including sexual harassment, regardless of whether they are the victim. Reports can be made to the Title IX Coordinator through any of the following methods:

- 1) In person at the Browning Administration Building, Suite 203, 800 W. University Parkway, Orem, UT 84058 (M–F, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.).
- 2) By mail to Utah Valley University, MS 272, 800 W. University Parkway, Orem, UT 84058 (any time).
- 3) By telephone at 801-863-7999 (any time).
- 4) By e-mail at TitleIX@uvu.edu (any time).
- 5) Online at www.uvu.edu/equityandtitleix/ (any time); or
- 6) By any other means that results in the Title IX Coordinator receiving the person's oral or written report, including anonymous reporting through EthicsPoint www.uvu.edu/audit/concerns/.

Students and employees who are alleged victims of sexual harassment, including dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking—whether the offense occurred on or off campus—will receive a written explanation of their rights and options, as described more fully below.

Confidentiality and Privacy Considerations When Reporting Sexual Violence

As victims decide how they wish to report an incident, they should be aware of confidentiality and privacy considerations, as well as university mandatory reporting requirements.

Confidentiality

To disclose confidentially a criminal or noncriminal incident to someone who by law may maintain confidentiality and can assist in obtaining services, victims should speak with one of the following:

On Campus:

- Licensed professional counselors and staff
- Student Health Services providers and staff
- UVU Victim Advocate

Off-campus (non-UVU employees):

- Licensed professional counselors and other medical providers
- Rape crisis counselors
- Domestic violence resources
- Local or state assistance agencies
- Clergy/Chaplains
- Attorneys

Mandated Reporting: All UVU employees not designated as confidential above are mandated reporters. This means they are required to share information that victims have disclosed to them with the Title IX Coordinator, though that does not obligate victims to any formal involvement.

Duties with respect to minors may require reporting to state agencies and/or local law enforcement. As a result, confidentiality cannot be guaranteed.

Publicly available recordkeeping will be accomplished without the inclusion of identifying information about the victim, to the extent permissible by law.

Privacy

Information shared with the Title IX Coordinator and Equity and Title IX Office is considered private, meaning that it will be handled discreetly and shared only on a need-to-know basis within UVU. This includes sharing information with individuals who are involved in the investigation and resolution process, or who need to know the information to provide victim's with support and resources, including supportive measures designed to restore access to education programs and activities.

Anonymous Reporting

Victims may submit an anonymous report at uvu.edu/equityandtitleix/report or uvu.edu/audit/concerns. However, anonymous reports may limit UVU's ability to respond and provide supportive measures.

PROCEDURES

What to Do If You Have Been Assaulted

If you are off campus and experiencing an emergency, you can call local police by dialing 911. You may also call the UVU police non-emergency line at 801-863-5555.

| <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Seek Safety: The first priority of a person who has been sexually assaulted is to get to a place of safety.2. Seek Medical Care: Once safe, victims should timely obtain the necessary medical care. |--|--|

3. Report: Although not required, UVUPD strongly advocates that victims of sexual assault timely report the incident to police.

Time is a critical factor for evidence collection and preservation.

Those who wish incidents to be handled criminally should contact UVU Police or local law enforcement and have the right to be assisted by the university in doing so. For assistance, reporters may contact the Title IX Coordinator by email (TitleIX@uvu.edu), phone (801-863-7999), or in-person at 800 West University Parkway, Browning Administration Building, Suite 203.

What Happens After a Police Report is Filed?

Filing a police report does not obligate the victim to prosecute, nor does it subject the victim to scrutiny or judgment from officers.

Filing a police report will:

- Ensure that a victim of sexual assault receives a victim advocate, who will assist in obtaining essential medical treatment and tests, without any cost to the victim.
- Provide the opportunity to collect crucial evidence for potential prosecution, which cannot be obtained if delayed (ideally, a victim of sexual assault should refrain from washing, douching, using the toilet, or changing clothing prior to a medical/legal exam); and
- Secure access for the victim to free confidential counseling from UVU counselors specifically trained in sexual assault crisis intervention.

When a sexual assault victim contacts UVUPD, they have several choices on how to proceed. They can:

- Opt for an investigation through the criminal justice system.
- Opt for an investigation through a university disciplinary process (when the alleged perpetrator is a UVU student, faculty, or staff member).
- Choose either of the above options or decide not to pursue either.

Evidence Preservation

If the incident just occurred, evidence should be preserved, which may help prove that the alleged criminal offense occurred or help in obtaining a protection order. Victims should consider the following steps:

1. The victim should call 911 and get to a safe place as soon as possible. Promptly calling 911 may help in ensuring an individual's physical safety, obtaining immediate medical care, and accessing other necessary support. It is also important for preserving evidence, which can assist the University and law enforcement in responding effectively.
2. The victim should go to a hospital emergency room where trained medical personnel can collect evidence through a forensic rape exam, check for injuries, and provide emergency contraception and limited STD-preventive medication.
3. The victim should not shower, bathe, douche, or brush their teeth.
4. The victim should save the clothing they were wearing during the assault in a brown paper bag.
5. If the incident took place in the victim's home, they should not rearrange and/or clean up anything.
6. The victim should be encouraged to seek support by talking with someone they trust (friend, family, advisor, community, or university resource).
7. The victim may contact the free and confidential Utah County 24-hour crisis line at 988. Trained advocates are available to provide support and talk with the victim about available options.

Additional information about the preservation of evidence, reporting options, support through counseling, and other interim and safety measures can be found in the Rights and Options Brochure.

Supportive Measures

When the Title IX Coordinator receives a report of alleged sexual harassment—including dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking—a representative of the Equity and Title IX Office will promptly reach out to the victim to explain their options, including supportive measures. These resources, which will be provided in writing, are available to victims regardless of whether they report to law enforcement or file a complaint with the university

Supportive measures are non-disciplinary, non-punitive individualized services offered as appropriate, as reasonably available, and without fee or charge to the parties to restore or preserve access to the university's education programs or activities. Supportive measures can also be implemented to protect the safety of all parties or the educational/workplace environment, and/or deter future misconduct.

The university will act to ensure as minimal an academic/occupational impact on the parties as possible. The university will implement measures in a way that does not unreasonably burden the other party.

Supportive measures may include referral to crisis counseling and/or health services or referral to the employee assistance program, support for modification to housing or transportation arrangements, altering work arrangements for employees, a safety plan such as providing campus security escorts, implementing contact limitations between the parties, offering adjustments to academic deadlines, course schedules, etc. Supportive measures may further include counseling, health, mental health, victim advocacy, legal assistance, visa and immigration assistance, student financial aid and other services available for victims, both within the institution and in the community. Supportive measures are private, and the University will notify only those who need to know for implementation purposes.

Students may also be eligible for student loan deferment. To determine whether they are eligible for loan deferment, the Title IX Coordinator and Registrar may provide necessary information for a student who elects to contact the U.S. Department of Education.

The Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) has provisions for immigrants who are victims of crime. The Title IX Coordinator, Registrar, and International Student Services can assist victims with visa questions. There are two types of visas available, a T visa and a U visa. There is no requirement to be in immigration status to apply. More information can be found on the US Citizenship and Immigration Services website <https://www.uscis.gov> and in their brochure Immigration Options for Victims of Crime, which can be found at https://www.dhs.gov/xlibrary/assets/ht_uscis_immigration_options.pdf

Court Orders

Where applicable, UVUPD will enforce orders of protection, no contact orders, restraining orders, stalking injunctions, or similar lawful orders issued by a criminal, civil, or tribal court.

Training

The university grievance process is conducted by officials who receive annual training on issues relating to sexual harassment, including dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking. This training includes, but is not limited to:

1. The definitions of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking.
2. The informal resolution process.
3. The scope of the university's education programs and activities.
4. How to conduct the procedures outlined in UVU Policies 162 Title IX Sexual Harassment and Policy 165 Discrimination, Harassment, and Affirmative Action, including live hearings, appeals, and informal resolution.
5. How to investigate and serve impartially (including prejudgment of the facts at issue, conflicts of interest, and bias).
6. How to conduct a trauma-informed investigation.
7. Issues of relevance for questions and evidence.
8. Applicable evidentiary standards.
9. How to create investigative reports that fairly summarize relevant evidence.

UVU ensures that all training materials do not rely on sex, race, religious, and other stereotypes and will promote impartial investigations and adjudications of formal complaints of sexual harassment.

Consent

Consent is an affirmatively communicated willingness through words and/or actions to participate in sexual activity. Consent is active, not passive, and silence, in and of itself, may not be interpreted as consent. Consent must be given by all participating parties; must be clear, knowing, and voluntary; and can be given only by someone who is 18 years of age or older and is not mentally and/or physically incapacitated.

All participants in sexual activity are responsible for ensuring that they have the consent of all involved to engage in sexual activity. Any individual who engages in sexual activity without receiving clear, knowing, and voluntary consent, or who forces a party that has withdrawn consent at any point to participate, has violated this policy. Sexual activity with someone deemed unable to grant clear, knowing, and voluntary consent constitutes a violation of this policy. This includes, but is not limited to, individuals who are:

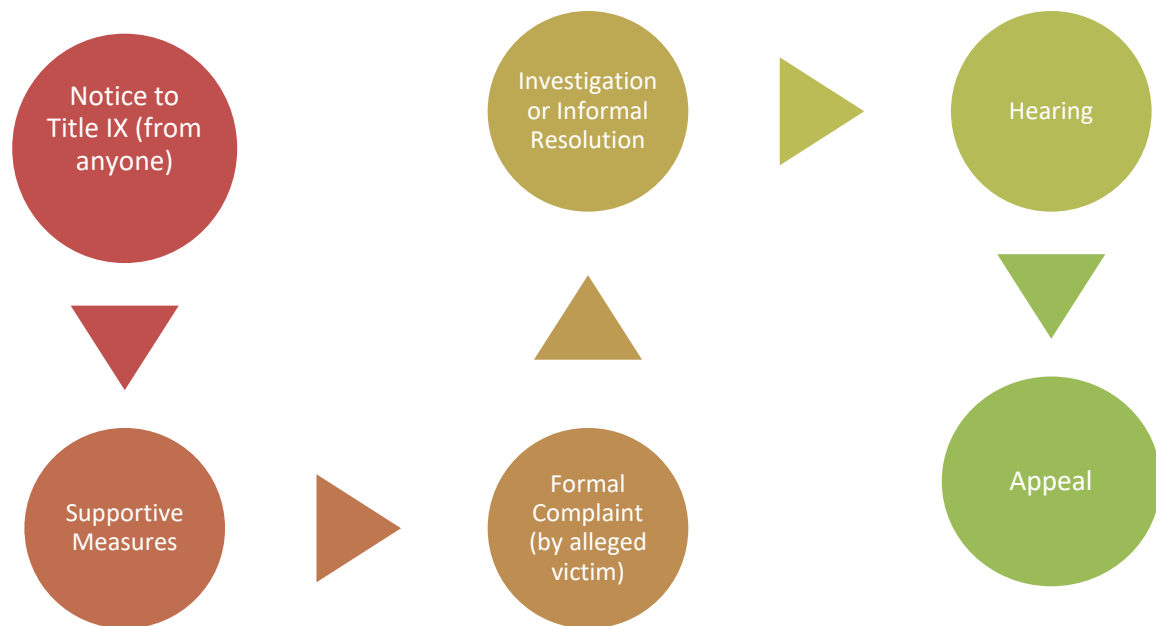

- 1) Mentally or physically incapacitated for any reason.
- 2) Under the age of 18; or
- 3) Forced to give consent in any way, including, but not limited to, by coercion, intimidation, duress, deception, threats, implied threats, and/or physical force.

Consent to any one form of sexual activity does not automatically imply consent to any other forms of sexual activity. Past consent to sexual activity does not imply ongoing future consent. The current or past existence of a relationship does not imply consent. Whether an individual has taken advantage of a position of authority over an alleged victim may be a factor in determining consent or coercion.

UNIVERSITY GRIEVANCE PROCESS

This section briefly summarizes the grievance process for students and employees in cases of alleged Title IX sexual harassment, including dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking. For complete information please read UVU Policy 162 posted at:

<https://www.uvu.edu/policies/manual/>

Standards in University Proceedings

UVU provides prompt, thorough, fair, and impartial investigations and resolutions that seek to protect the safety and due process of parties and the campus community in a manner that is respectful to all.

A determination of responsibility for sexual harassment will be made using a “preponderance of the evidence” standard—that is, a respondent will only be held responsible if it is more likely than not that the alleged sexual harassment occurred.

Complainants and respondents are equally entitled to a support person /advisor of their choosing during the grievance process. The level of allowed participation of support persons/advisors varies depending on the stage of the grievance process.

Investigation

If the formal complaint is not dismissed or resolved informally, the Equity and Title IX office shall conduct a thorough and impartial investigation by interviewing witnesses and collecting documentary evidence. Upon conclusion of the investigation, a written draft investigation report will be prepared that includes:

1. A summary of the complainant's allegations and the respondent's responses;
2. Relevant evidence;
3. Material witnesses supporting or opposing the allegation(s);
4. Preliminary recommended findings; and
5. A description of the procedural steps taken.

Before the draft investigative report is finalized, parties are provided an equal opportunity to review the draft report and to inspect and review any evidence obtained as part of the investigation that is directly related to the allegations in the formal complaint. Parties may then submit written responses to this information.

Sanctioning Official

Once the investigation report is finalized, it will be sent to the designated sanctioning official who will recommend appropriate sanctions and remedies within 10 business days. Written notification of recommended sanctions and remedies will be provided to both the respondent and Title IX Coordinator.

Hearing Proceedings

Upon receipt of the final investigation report and sanction recommendation, the Title IX Coordinator will convene a neutral 3-person panel to conduct a live hearing on the allegations.

During this hearing, parties may present relevant evidence and cross-examine witnesses. Each party may be accompanied by a process advisor of their choice. Process advisors may participate in the live hearing through the giving of opening and closing statements; the examination and cross-examination of witnesses; the introducing of relevant evidence; and the providing of support, guidance, or advice to the party.

Following the conclusion of the review hearing, the panel will deliberate to determine if the respondent is responsible and if sanctions, if any, are appropriate. If the hearing panel determines the respondent is responsible, they shall consult with the decisionmaker to obtain updated recommended sanctions. The hearing panel shall defer to the decisionmaker's recommended sanctions unless such sanctions are clearly unreasonable in light of the evidence and known circumstances.

The hearing panel will provide the written determination simultaneously to the Title IX Coordinator, the sanctioning official, and the parties within 20 business days after the live hearing concludes.

Appeal

Within 10 business days of written notification of the decision, any party may submit to the Title IX Coordinator a written notice of intent to appeal (1) a hearing panel determination regarding responsibility; or (2) the dismissal of any portion of a formal complaint by the Title IX Coordinator. The Title IX Coordinator will provide simultaneous instructions to all parties on the appeals process, which will be decided by an impartial appeal officer.

The appeal officer will consider a notice of intent to appeal only if the appeal officer determines one or more of the following conditions are satisfied:

1. A procedural irregularity affected the outcome of the hearing;
2. New evidence that was not reasonably available at the time of the hearing or dismissal could affect the outcome of the hearing or dismissal; or
3. The Title IX Coordinator, investigators, or hearing panel had a conflict of interest or bias for or against the parties generally, or an individual complainant or respondent, that affected the outcome.

In cases where a hearing panel's determination is appealed, the appeal officer's final written determination may uphold, modify, or reverse the hearing panels' written determination(s) of responsibility.

In cases where a Title IX Coordinator's dismissal is appealed, the appeal officer's final written determination may uphold or reverse the Title IX Coordinator's dismissal.

Finality

The appeal officer's final written determination is final; no further internal reviews, appeals, or grievances are available to the parties.

Possible Sanctions

Possible sanctions for being found responsible for conduct adjudicated under this policy include the following:

Employees—Possible sanctions against employees for violations of this policy include, but are not limited to, verbal or written warning, verbal counseling, written warning, probation, reassignment, transfer, demotion, reduction in pay, suspension without pay, and termination of employment.

Students—Possible sanctions against students for violations of this policy include fines, restitution, interim suspension, suspension, warning, probation, expulsion, withholding diploma, revocation of certificate or degree, discretionary sanction, organizational sanction, and notation on the student's transcript consistent with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act.

Vendors/Contractors/Visitors/Volunteers—Possible sanctions against employees for violations of this policy include banning the individuals from all or part(s) of the University and/or ending business relationships with the vendors and contractors.

In addition to the above sanctions, the University may issue an order of no trespassing on campus and/or in UVU programs, services, and activities.

RIGHT OF NOTICE

The University will, upon written request, disclose to the alleged victim of a crime of violence (as that term is defined in section 16 of title 18, United States Code), or a non-forcible sex offense, the report on the results of any disciplinary proceeding conducted by such institution against a student who is the alleged perpetrator of such crime or offense. If the alleged victim is deceased because of such crime or offense, the next of kin of such victim shall be treated as the alleged victim for purposes of this notice.

EDUCATION AND PREVENTION PROGRAMS

Utah Valley University is dedicated to fostering a safe and respectful campus environment through a range of campaigns, strategies, and initiatives aimed at preventing domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking. The university is committed to addressing these issues by offering both primary prevention and awareness programs for all incoming students and new employees, as well as ongoing efforts throughout the year. These programs and campaigns are designed to:

- Clearly communicate UVU's prohibition against domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking.
- Define domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking in accordance with federal and state law, and explain what constitutes consent to sexual activity according to state law and university policy.
- Describe safe and positive options for bystander intervention, empowering students and employees to prevent harm or intervene when there is a risk of these crimes.
- Offer information on risk reduction strategies, enabling students and employees to recognize warning signs of abusive behavior and understand where to seek help if they find themselves or others in unhealthy or abusive relationships.
- Ensure that victims of these crimes are informed of the procedures they should follow, including how to preserve evidence and report incidents. The university explains the steps it will take when such crimes are reported, including possible disciplinary actions, confidentiality considerations, victims' rights, available supportive measures, and options for additional support.

Primary Prevention and Awareness Programs

Sexual Misconduct Prevention Training: All incoming students are required to participate in online, interactive sexual misconduct prevention training as a prerequisite for registering for their first-semester classes. This training covers topics such as the definitions of, and the university's prohibition against, dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking. It also explains consent, safe bystander intervention, and includes information on campus resources, reporting options, and support services available to students affected by sexual misconduct.

Mandatory Reporter Training: All new university employees are required to complete Mandatory Reporter Training within their first 30 days of employment. This training ensures that employees are fully informed about UVU's prohibition against dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking. It covers key topics including the definitions and impact of these crimes, effective bystander intervention techniques, procedures for reporting incidents, and the supportive measures available to those impacted by these issues.

Ongoing Prevention and Awareness Efforts

Ongoing prevention and awareness efforts are designed to continuously educate both students and employees on the prevention of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking, and to reinforce the knowledge and skills provided in primary prevention programs. These ongoing efforts include:

Mandatory Reporter Training: All university employees are required to complete annual Mandatory Reporter Training. This training ensures that employees are fully informed about UVU's prohibition against dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking. It covers key topics including the definitions and impact of these crimes, effective bystander intervention techniques, procedures for reporting incidents, and the supportive measures available to those impacted by these issues.

Clothesline Project: An annual exhibit hosted by UVU's Center for Social Impact and the Office for Student Life that raises awareness about the impact of sexual violence. Students, faculty, and staff create t-shirts that express their personal experiences or show support for survivors, fostering community dialogue and solidarity.

Student Safety Fair: Held each September, the Student Safety Fair provides students with valuable information on campus safety, including resources for preventing and responding to sexual violence, reporting options, and information relating to available supportive measures.

Campus messaging programs: Throughout the year, the Equity and Title IX Office runs targeted messaging campaigns to raise awareness on key issues related to relationship violence, sexual assault, and consent. These campaigns coincide with national observances such as Relationship Violence Awareness Month and Domestic Violence Awareness Month and include posters and digital communications that promote safety and respect within the campus community.

Educational and awareness tables: The Equity and Title IX Office hosts educational and awareness tables across campus to engage with both students and employees directly and provide them with valuable information. Examples include:

- Wolverine Resource Fair: As part of "College Day" during Wolverine Welcome Week, held in the first week of the Fall semester, the Equity and Title IX Office hosts a booth at the Wolverine Resource Fair. This booth features interactive activities and educational materials designed to increase students' understanding of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking. The booth also shares essential resources and strategies to prevent these crimes, promote healthy relationships, and ensure student safety. Students have the opportunity to engage with staff, participate in activities that reinforce the importance of consent and bystander intervention, and take home informational resources and personal safety devices.

- Faculty Convocation Fair: Here, the Equity and Title IX Office shares information relating to faculty members' mandatory reporting responsibilities, relevant university policy, and procedures the university will follow when responding to reports of sexual violence.
- UVU Housing Fair: During the annual Housing Fair, the Equity and Title IX Office sets up a table to reach students living in local off-campus complexes. The table provides information on maintaining safety in housing situations, understanding the dynamics of healthy relationships, and knowing where to seek help if needed.

Student consent campaign: The student consent campaign, facilitated by the Equity and Title IX Office, features a video created with the participation of UVU students. The video explains the concept of consent and highlights the importance of mutual respect, clear communication, and understanding in healthy relationships. This video is an integral part of student group trainings and serves as a vital tool in promoting a culture of respect, accountability, and safety among students.

Light Up the Night: In partnership with The Refuge, various campus resources participate in this annual event dedicated to raising awareness about the issues of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking. This event includes a candlelight vigil, guest speakers, and performances that honor survivors and advocate for a violence-free campus.

Group trainings: The Equity and Title IX Office offers tailored in-person training sessions for various groups, including athletics teams, student organizations, residential community leadership, and academic cohorts. These trainings focus on topics such as bystander intervention, consent, healthy relationships, reporting options, and relevant university policies and resources. Each training is designed to address the specific needs and dynamics of each group.

Presentations upon request: The Equity and Title IX Office provides customized presentations on topics related to dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking. These presentations are available upon request to any campus group or organization and are tailored to meet the specific needs of the audience, ensuring relevance and impact.

Risk Reduction

Risk reduction is defined as options designed to decrease perpetration and bystander inaction, increase empowerment for victims in order to promote safety, and help individuals and communities address conditions that facilitate violence. The university uses the following risk reduction information in education, training, and outreach about sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking:

Empowerment and Education:

- Educating students and employees on the importance of recognizing warning signs of abusive or unhealthy relationships and understanding the dynamics of power and control in such situations.
- Providing resources and information on how to seek help or report concerning behavior, ensuring that victims know their rights and options.

Bystander Intervention:

- Training students and employees to identify potentially harmful situations and to safely intervene in ways that prevent violence or support those at risk.
- Encouraging the campus community to take collective responsibility in preventing violence by stepping in, speaking out, or seeking help when necessary.

Personal Safety Tips:

- Offering practical advice on maintaining personal safety, such as traveling in groups, sharing plans and locations with friends and family, being aware of surroundings, and setting clear boundaries in relationships.
- Providing information on how to protect oneself in social settings, including the importance of staying with trusted friends and avoiding risky situations.

Safe Relationship Practices:

- Promoting healthy relationship behaviors that are based on mutual respect, clear communication, and consent.
- Encouraging students and employees to engage in open and honest discussions about expectations and boundaries within their relationships.

Resource Accessibility:

- Ensuring that students and employees have access to resources and support services to help them navigate challenging situations and make informed decisions.
- Providing information on how to access these resources both on-campus and in the wider community.

The property managers and/or owners of student housing facilities each establish their respective limitations on portable electronic appliances, smoking, and open flames. According to UVU Policy 710, students shall abide by restrictions and guidance contained in their applicable handbooks and/or lease agreements concerning electrical appliances, smoking, and open flames.

Procedures for Evacuation from Student Housing Facilities in the Case of a Fire

Whenever a fire alarm sounds at any on-campus student housing facility, all residents, guests, and staff should immediately evacuate and assemble at appropriate nearby locations. Residents are encouraged to assemble at nearby safe locations.

The following are fire safety evacuation tips for residents, guests, and employees at on-campus student housing facilities and other University buildings:

1. Know the locations of building exits.
2. Know where the fire extinguisher(s) are located on the floor.
3. If there is smoke:
 - a. Keep low to the floor.
 - b. Feel the door and doorknob for heat, and if the door or doorknob is hot, DO NOT open the door—call (911) or the University Police (801-863-5555).
 - c. Provide the building and room number.
 - d. Hang a towel or bright object out of your window if unable to escape.
 - e. Place a wet towel in front of the door to block smoke infiltration.
4. If it is safe to exit:
 - a. Leave quickly, exiting the building by the closest exit.
 - b. Leave the door unlocked.
 - c. Close all doors.
 - d. Take keys and ID with you.
 - e. Assemble with others at a nearby safe location or assemble at the pre-designated evacuation assembly point and check in.
5. Re-entry: Only re-enter the building after the appropriate emergency personnel have indicated that it is safe to do so.

Policies on Fire Safety Education and Training of University Students and Employees

Student- and employee-residents, and property managers of UVU student housing facilities are invited annually to receive training on the proper use of fire extinguishers, evacuation procedures, and other fire safety topics.

Reporting Fires Occurring in Housing Facilities

Residents and employees at UVU facilities should report fires occurring at UVU facilities by calling 911. As soon as safely feasible, report a fire to the UVU Fire Marshal at 801-863-8021.

Plans for Future Improvements in Fire Safety

The university has determined that future improvements in fire safety are unnecessary at this time.
