

COURSE DESCRIPTION

All students are responsible to bring their IRPG's (Incident Response Pocket Guide) FLHB's (Fireline Handbook) and the applicable PTB (Position Task Book) to each class session. Additional items will be mentioned on the course acceptance letter. You are responsible to double check your enrollment status, current address, phone numbers, and email addresses. This will help ensure that you as the student will receive any and all the information pertaining to the class you are enrolled for. If your supervisor has enrolled/nominated you, it's critical that you double check your enrollment status.

By clicking on the ROLL for each class, you can see an updated class enrollment. This will be done weekly. Any questions or concerns call Angie Menlove (801)863-7704 and or Dan Cather (801) 863-7423.

L-280 – FOLLOWERSHIP TO LEADERSHIP

Course Description:

This training course is designed as a self-assessment opportunity for individuals preparing to step into a leadership role. The course combines one day of classroom instruction followed by a second day in the field with students working through a series of problem solving events in small teams (Field Leadership Assessment Course). Topics include leadership values and principles, transition challenges for new leaders, situational leadership, team cohesion factors, ethical decision making, and after action review techniques. Some course delivery may be arduous in nature.

Objectives:

- Students will demonstrate an understanding of fundamental leadership principles.
- Students will assess their individual traits and motivation for entering into a leadership role.

Target Group:

- Personnel desiring to be qualified as a single resource boss.

Course Prerequisites:

- Experience on incident assignments in operations or support functions.
- Successful completion of Human Factors in the Wildland Fire Service (L-180).
- Satisfactory completion of pre-course work.
