

COURSE DESCRIPTION

All students are responsible to bring their IRPG's (Incident Response Pocket Guide) FOG (Field Operation Guide) and the applicable PTB (Position Task Book) to each class session. Additional items will be mentioned on the course acceptance letter. You are responsible to double check your enrollment status, current address, phone numbers, and email addresses. This will help ensure that you as the student will receive any and all the information pertaining to the class you are enrolled for. If your supervisor has enrolled/nominated you, it's critical that you double check your enrollment status.

By clicking on the ROLL for each class, you can see an updated class enrollment. This will be done weekly. Any questions or concerns call Angie Menlove (801)863-7704 and or Dan Cather (801)863-7423.

S-219 – IGNITIONS OPERATIONS

Formerly titled S-234

Course Description:

This is an entry-level course providing training in the functional roles and responsibilities connected with firing operations. The course covers, planning, ignition procedures and techniques, and equipment applicable to wildland and prescribed fire. This course also addresses the role of the ignition specialist or firing boss as the organization manages escalation from a non-complex to a complex fire situation. Note: This course is not intended to qualify or certify any personnel in the use, storage, or transport of any firing device. Rather, it is to provide the potential firing boss a description of available equipment and the requirements specific to each such device.

Objectives:

- Describe the role and responsibility of the single resource boss (FIRB), firing and prescribed fire ignition specialist (RXI2) for planning, execution, safety, training, and coordination of an on-incident burn operation.
- Analyze an ignition/firing plan and describe its validity.
- Write an ignition/firing plan to include: ignition method, firing tactics, resource needs, and safety.

Target Group:

Personnel desiring to be qualified as firing boss, single resource (FIRB) and resource personnel involved in fire use.
