Please Read Carefully!!!

This is your pass to take the Certification Test!!

This book has been loaned to you, so that we can deliver this course for free. It is your responsibility to keep it in good condition and return it on the day of the certification test with no more than normal wear and tear. If you do not bring this with you and return it on the certification test day, you will not be given your certification test results, until it is returned! If this book is not returned for any reason, we will contact your chief to make sure it is returned or replaced at your expense.
