Intermediate ICS
ICS-300(H-465) for Expanding Incidents

&

Advanced ICS
ICS-400(H-467) for Command and General Staff, Complex Incidents and Multi-agency Coordination System, Regional Training Course

Place: Utah Fire and Rescue Academy
Room 111

Dates: April 25-27 (Intermediate ICS)
April 28-29 (Advanced ICS)

Time: 0800 to 1700 each day

Class Size: 24 – 30 (minimum class size 24)

Purpose: These courses provide training for personnel who require advanced application of the Incident Command System (ICS).

More info at: www.uvu.edu/ufra/ics.html

All students attending must be affiliated with a city, town, or county fire department in Utah.

For more information contact:
Dennis.goudy@uvu.edu
801 652-3852

Prerequisites: Students who wish to attend this training must complete the online or classroom ICS 100 & 200 courses. It is also recommended that students complete the online ICS 700 & 800b courses prior to entering this class.

 Each course will require separate registrations and written tests. ***