

COURSE DESCRIPTION

All students are responsible for bringing their IRPG (Incident Response Pocket Guide), FLHB (Fireline Handbook), and applicable PTB (Position Task Book) to each class session. Additional items to bring will be mentioned in the course acceptance letter. As a student, you are responsible for double-checking your enrollment status and current address, phone numbers, and email addresses. This will help ensure that you will receive any and all information pertaining to the class for which you are enrolled. If your supervisor has enrolled/nominated you, it's critical that you double-check your enrollment status.

To see the updated enrollment for a class, go to uvu.edu/ufra/training/wildland/schedule.html and click on the "roll" link. If you have any questions or concerns, call Dan Cather at (801) 863-7423.

I-400. ADVANCED ICS FOR COMMAND AND GENERAL STAFF AND COMPLEX INCIDENTS

Course Description

This course directs students toward an operational understanding of large single-agency and complex multi-agency/multi-jurisdictional incident responses. Topics include a fundamentals review for command and general staff, major and/or complex incident/event management, area command, and multi-agency coordination.

This course was developed in conjunction with the US Fire Administration's H467 course and the Emergency Management Institute's G400 course. These courses are built on the same lesson objectives and content as the NWCG I-400 course and are interchangeable. They are all National Incident Management System (NIMS) compliant.

Objectives

Upon successful completion of this course, students should be able to:

- Identify the incident management process of command and general staff functions during complex incidents as prescribed by the Incident Command System.
- Describe implementation of the incident management process on a complex incident.
- Describe the management and coordination process during multiple incidents.

Target Group

Senior personnel expected to perform in a management capacity in an area command/complex incident environment

Course Prerequisite

Intermediate ICS for Supervisors and Expanding Incidents (I-300)
