

Carolina Yauyo

Carolina Yauyo is a 25 year old international student at Utah Valley University from Lima Perú. She came to Utah in 2014 and studied English at the English Language Center at BYU. After, she studied and graduated from LDS Business college and finally transferred to Utah Valley University. Carolina is a political science student with an emphasis in global politics and with minors in Languages and Peace and Justice studies. Additionally, she is a member of the Global Student Leadership council. She has a passion for international affairs, diplomacy, resolution of conflicts and humanitarian service. She was introduced with Utah International Mountain Forum (UIMF), a coalition of student clubs at UVU, because of her participation in one of her political science classes. She has a big interest in the UN Sustainable Mountain Development because of her roots and she is excited in her upcoming participation on the 66th Session of the Commission on the Status of Women.
