

Dallas Karren

Dallas Karren is the current President of the Utah International Mountain Forum (UIMF), and a senior Political Science student at UVU with an emphasis in Public Law and Political Philosophy, and minors in Constitutional Studies and Spanish. He aspires to attend law school and earn his Juris Doctorate degree; and particularly enjoys constitutional law. Dallas served in the LDS mission Colombia Bogotá North from 2016-2018; and is interested in Latin American affairs. Dallas also served the Editor-in-Chief of the 2020 volume of the Youth and the Mountains academic research journal on Sustainable Mountain Development (SMD). Recently, Dallas led an official delegation of UIMF members, UVU faculty, and Orem Rotary during the 65th session of the United Nations Commission on the Status of Women. The delegation through student-engaged learning hosted a parallel event about the role of women in creating the Utah model of SMD on March 22, 2021.
