

Jan-Erik Ingwersen

Jan-Erik Ingwersen is the current treasurer of the Modelling United Nation Club at snow college, and a junior political student at snow college. After my exchange year, I want to be progressing my bachelor's degree in business and politics since. Then I would like to go to graduate school for my master's degree in international law and politics.