

Mrs. Aijan Chynybaeva, Bishkek Rotary Club former Vice President

Aijan Chynybaeva is a distinguished figure with over 15 years in the business sector, boasting an extensive international background. A fervent advocate for social entrepreneurship and environmental conservation, Chynybaeva has played pivotal roles in various organizations, including past President of the Rotary Club of Bishkek, member of the Women's Forum "Kurak," and Chairman of the Public Association of Women of Kyrgyzstan "Kurak." Her commitment extends to nurturing youth entrepreneurship and social projects, serving as a mentor and trainer in several initiatives like "I Invest in Kyrgyzstan" and founding the Eco-Demi Public Fund, known for its nationwide cleaning campaigns since 2015. As the Ambassador of "Let's Do It World" in Kyrgyzstan and its representative in Central Asia since 2021, her leadership has earned her international acclaim, including the Excellent Leadership Award at the Women Economic Forum in Delhi, a state award from Kyrgyzstan's Prime Minister for advancing women in business, and recognition for her efforts during the COVID-19 pandemic. Under her stewardship, Kyrgyzstan secured first place in the World Clean Up Day, competing against 150 countries. Chynybaeva has also contributed her expertise to the board of AUCA since 2012, solidifying her status as a leader in both business and social impact.
