

Braden Birbara

Braden was born in New York City and grew up in both the New York and Connecticut area, moving to Orem, Utah in 2022. Although from coastal areas, Braden has grown to love the natural beauty and opportunities that only mountainous regions can provide. He loves to ski and be out in nature. Braden is currently a sophomore at Utah Valley University. He enrolled in 2023 to pursue a bachelor's in philosophy and political science. After graduating he seeks to attend law school with a focus on international law.