

Ana Caballero Ferreyro

Ana Caballero Ferreyro is a junior at Utah Valley University, pursuing a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science with a concentration in Global Politics, alongside a minor in National Security Studies. Originally from Mexico, Ana serves as a team leader in the LEAD program, President of the Foreign Affairs club, and member of UVU's Honors Program where she fosters an inclusive environment for students from diverse backgrounds. Passionate about social issues, she dedicates her time to service activities helping with Mountain Sustainable Development initiatives that enhance her understanding of community needs and contribute to her personal growth as a student leader at UVU. Ana had the great opportunity to volunteer at the conservative Climate Summit this past October 2024 where she got to meet Congressmen John Curitis and Congresswoman Celeste Maloy.