

Erbolot Artykov

Erbolot Mukashevich Artykov was born on February 24, 2005, in Osh, Kyrgyzstan. From an early age, his passion for knowledge and creativity shaped his path. Studying at the private school "Evrika", he not only built a strong academic foundation but also discovered his creative potential—an essential driving force behind his journey. In 2020, after completing the 9th grade, Erbolot enrolled in the Kyrgyz-Uzbek International University (KUIU). His desire for continuous learning and self-improvement led him to pursue a bachelor's degree at the same university. Alongside his studies, Erbolot actively explored the world of UX/UI design, where technology and creativity seamlessly blend—an area that has always fascinated him. Additionally, Erbolot immersed himself in targeted advertising, helping businesses and various niches expand their presence on social media. Sports have always been an integral part of his life. In 2023, his volleyball team secured 1st place in a youth championship in Bishkek. Besides volleyball, Erbolot also enjoys playing football and table tennis, as he believes sport not only strengthens the body but also cultivates discipline and teamwork. In October 2023, he was offered a position as a technical operator at KUIU—an opportunity that marked a turning point in his personal and professional development. This role ignited his drive for self-improvement, pushing him to expand his skill set and embrace new challenges. Being immersed in an academic environment enriched his intellectual, cultural, and spiritual growth. Through hard work and a commitment to excellence, Erbolot achieved a significant milestone in early 2025, earning a promotion to Lead Specialist. This advancement unlocked new opportunities, broadening his horizons and strengthening his aspirations for further professional growth. Erbolot firmly believes that every individual has the power to contribute to society's progress. His goal is not only to evolve professionally but also to empower the youth of Kyrgyzstan, helping them unlock their potential, embrace self-development, and cultivate a thirst for knowledge. With an ever-evolving world ahead, Erbolot is ready to take on new challenges, make a meaningful impact, and shape a future driven by innovation and purpose.
