

Nursel Bilimbekova

Nursel Bilimbekova, born in 2002, grew up in Balykchy, a scenic city by the Issyk-Kul Lake in Kyrgyzstan. She is studying International Relations at the Ala-Too International University, where her understanding of international issues has deepened. She also became more active in volunteer work, first with a charity foundation, and later took a more active role by organizing programs to help those in need. Her dedication to developing herself demonstrates her interest in diverse activities, such as attendance at various conferences and training sessions on international relations. Driven by the desire to make a difference, Nursel is committed to continuing self-improvement personally and professionally to ensure that she has a positive impact on the world.