

Alley Holt

Alley Holt is a Senior at Utah Valley University, majoring in Political Science and Electrical Engineering. She is the Vice President of the Rotaract Club on Campus and is an active member serving in her community. She is passionate about learning and improving the world around her and hopes to continue her education studying law to pursue a career in patent law.