Mr. Oliver Rosenbauer

Born in 1970, Oliver studied communication sciences (BA) and psychology (MSc). After spending his early career at a PR agency in London, where he worked with pharmaceutical companies, he joined the World Health Organization (WHO) in 2003 as spokesperson for the Global Polio Eradication Initiative. In this role, he works closely with Rotary, Rotaract and the PolioPlus program. He has been a Rotarian himself since 2015, serving in the Rotary Club Genève International. Oliver lives with his wife and two daughters near Geneva, Switzerland.
