Colleagues,

We, at the Utah Women & Leadership Project (UWLP), have a number of announcements for February:

First, three upcoming events: 1) Our final Utah Women’s Leadership Speaker & Dialogue Series free event, is titled, "The Status of Women Worldwide: Becoming Informed & Empowered as Global Citizens," will be held on February 19th (6:30-8:30pm) at UVU (live streaming available too). Our speakers will include Sharon Eubank & Dr. Valerie M. Hudson. You can RSVP online now! 2) We also have a few seats left for tomorrow’s Unconscious Bias Workshop - From Awareness to Action!, which is being held at the Hyatt Place Hotel in Lehi. 3) Our last Women’s Leadership Forum will be a free panel discussion on “The Gender Wage Gap: Digging Deep into Understanding The Complexity” (March 24, 3:30-5:00pm), with panelists Katie Hudman, Carrie Mayne, and Erin Jemison.

Second, today we are releasing a new research snapshot titled A Historical View of Women in Utah’s Top Political Roles (co-authored by Rep. Candice B. Pierucci); it highlights all women, throughout Utah’s history, who have served in the state legislature or executive state positions. All of our research can be found here.

Third, we have a few new resources this month. In this event video, therapist Tiffany Roe discusses “Real Tools for Women’s Mental Health.” We are also launching our new Podcast Website that hosts our 14 podcasts; this site allows you to listen on Apple Podcasts, Spotify, Google Podcast, Stitcher, iHeart Radio, and TuneIn + Alexa. We have also released a new “What Can I Do?” report titled What Media Professionals Can Do to Strengthen the Impact of Utah Girls and Women and an updated infographic on Voting and Civic Engagement Among Utah Women.
