

MAMMOGRAPHY AMONG UTAH WOMEN

HOW DOES UTAH STACK UP?

Utah women are behind compared to the rest of the nation when it comes to screenings.

Utah is among the Bottom

5

States in the nation for mammography
screenings.

HEALTH RECOMMENDATIONS

The Utah Cancer Control Program offers free screenings to uninsured low-income women.

According to the American Cancer Society,

WOMEN AGED

45+

should receive screenings
annually.

Utah has a mammography
screening rate of

This is 9% below the target.

WHO IS GETTING SCREENED IN UTAH?

Mammography screening rates differ by race, income, and education.

Race

Income

Education

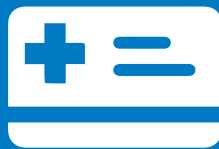

WHY UTAH?

There are many reasons why Utah women are not getting screened.

Top Reasons Listed by Women

Cost

Screenings are not always covered by insurance.

Time

There is a perception that screenings take too much time.

Other At-Risk Populations

Single women

Women with children at home

WHAT CAN WE DO?

Companies, policy makers, organizations, and individuals can all help to improve screening rates.

Employers can increase screening incentives.

Organizations can raise awareness.

Policy makers can expand insurance coverage.

Women can get screened and encourage others.