The Year 2015 was another good year for The Journal of Business Inquiry (JBI). Volume 14 published ten articles. We received many high-quality papers with a 46.1 per cent acceptance rate. The articles were written by authors, whose primary affiliations include 21 institutions from 4 countries - Canada, India, South Korea and the United States. Turnaround time took, with 7.7 per cent of the editorial decisions, less than or 30 days, 18.3 per cent between 31 and 90 days, 74 per cent, between 91 and 200 days.

On behalf of The Journal of Business Inquiry, I would like to thank Professor Diane Tardif of the University of Ottawa, as well as, Elizabeth Heard for copy editing the articles in this issue and Lisa Walker for her administrative assistance and for formatting the articles. Special thanks go to Aaron Barrett for the IT services he provided.

The Journal of Business Inquiry would also like to thank the following individuals, who served as referees over the past year. Some of these individuals refereed more than one paper. Without their help, JBI could not fulfill its mission.
