Success is walking from failure to failure with no loss of enthusiasm.”
– Winston Churchill

The lives of top executives seem almost like fairytales with riches beyond the average person’s wild imaginings and what appears to be a carefree existence. But if you ask any executive, the money is good, yes, but it doesn’t come without its fair share of challenges to overcome.

During the course of this lecture series, you will hear from seasoned executives about such challenges and how they’ve created careers around navigating various opportunities. Join us and learn from the best so you can avoid some troubles of your own. We’re going to cover topics as varied as business science to achieving happiness and these lessons can benefit anyone who works in business—and that’s all of us.

I look forward to seeing you each week.

Tom Macdonald
Assistant Dean, Woodbury School of Business
